Michael McMullen read in the newspapers of South American Kidney Cure, and when doctors tried hard and failed to cure him, he, with the faith of a prophet commenced the use of this great Kidney Specific. In his own words:
"Gravel and Kidney Disease had been the bane of my life for eight years. Thanks to South American Kidney Cure to-day I am a well man.
I wish I could have every kidney sufferer within the sound of my voice for long enough to tell it." 30

table a sample of the large Baxter apple of flavor and in a good state of preservation. They are from the large fine orchard of Mr. R. B. McGregor, the Holstein man of Hammond, N. Y.
The Baxter is called a poor keeper but Mrs. McGregor says if they are picked early in September they will keep well, and if re-sorted will keep until June.
Let them mature more for November and December use. This is true of all winter apples. It may be as she says.
We, to-day, might have a supply of eating apples if we understood harvest ing them. Let us wait until next season, and avoid having our winter apples melt down as they did last season.
This is the third time this thought has been brought before readers of the Re-Sarsaparilla. At this season your blood is loaded with impurities which have accumulated during the winter and which should be expelled. Hood's

X LIGHTAUL-HUFF.

Mr. David Lightaul, the popular young baker with Mr. M. H. Eyre, is the latest Athenian to join the ranks of the benedicta. The ceremony which united him to Miss E. W. Huff, of Campbellford, daughter of Col. Huff, late of Brighton, was performed in the Campbellford Methodist church, by the pastor, Rev. B. Greatrix, in the midst of a large circle of friends. Miss Thompson, of Hastings, was bridesmaid, and the duties of best man were ably performed by Mr. Scott, of Campbellford.
At the conclusion of the ceremony the happy young couple were tendered a reception at the residence of the bride's sister, at which they received many valuable tokens of esteem from their many friends in that town. The home of Mr. Eyre was filled last evening at which a large number of the groom's friends were present, and a happy time was spent. The young couple have the Reporter's best wishes for a long happy wedded life.
