LETTER BOX

A SERIOUS CHARGE.

To the Editor of The Planet:

Chatham, Ont.:

My Dear Six,—On Sunday, Sept. 4th, the Orillia Lacrosse Club travelled from their home town to Chatham to be in your city to play a match game there with the Chatham Club on Monday, Sept. 5th, 1904.

This Sunday journey has been the occasion of strong protest and severe criticism in Orillia of the club of that town. The manager, John C. Miller, over his own signature in the Orillia Packet of Sept. 25th endeavors to defend the action of the Orillia Lacrosse Club. In that letter Mr. Miller says: "I have the assur-Mr. Miller says: "I have the assurance of Chatham's manager that the team practise lacrosse on Sunday afternoon." When in Chatham last week I made enquiries but could not find a single person who knew of such Sunday practice. I would be glad if you would let me know if such is the custom of your lacrosse club, or whether they did practice on Sundays at any time during the season. I cannot believe that such sport is allowed in Chatham, and be-lieve that the manager of the Orillia ber that a big financial consideration was offered to Chatham by Chicago early in the season for a Sunday game there which was promptly turn ed down by the management.

This morning Financial Manaager John McCoig, chairman of the club's executive, was interviewed by The Planet and emphatically contradicted the report that there had been any Sunday practice by the Chatham club. Such a thing would not be tolerated for a moment," he declared, "and if there was anything in it-which doubt-it might have been the morning runs or individual training of the players. But I don't believe it at all, as it was distinctly prohibited by our executive."

THEATRE OF WAR.

Tie Pass Russian Main Base and What May Be Looked For.

Tokio, Oct. 6.—It is evident that the country, which is embraced by an irregular triangle, the apex of which is Tie Pass, with the base runupper reaches of the Hun River, will soon be the theatre of extended and extensive military operations.

Tie Pass Russian Main Base. The Russians are apparently using Tie Pass as their main base and are constructing a series of defences to shield it from the south and the east. Two roadways approach Tie Pass from the south. One is the main highway from Mukden and the other, which is smaller, starts at Fushun which is smaller, starts at Fushun and winds through a hilly country. Nineteen miles north of Mukden is the town of Yilu, the south and eastern approaches to which are sheltered by sharp ridges, offering a natural protection. It is reported here that the Russians are strongly intrenching on these ridges and are protein as the restrict of the reserving semi-payment for the restrict of the start of the star srecting semi-permanent fortifications. The Yilu River, which is shallow and fordable, runs through the town.

Russians Fortifying High Hill.

The Russians are reported to be fortifying the right bank of the river, between Yilu and Tahaitun, fifteen miles to the northward. Several miles of ridges cross the road and it is said that the Russians are erectit is said that the Russians are erecting works on many of these eminances between Tahaitun and Tie Pass. For some seven miles the country, generally speaking, is flat, although commanding the readway from the eastward is a hill a theusand metres in height which the Russians are fortifying. fortifying. A range of hills flanks Kurepatkin's Object. The Russians are holding Fushun with a heavy force, and it is believed they are erecting works along the road from that place to Tie Pass.

This defensive work of the Russian and the disposition of their forces.

and the disposition of their forces strengthens the belief that General Kuropatkin merely intends to retard Field Marshal Oyama in his crossing of the Hun River and to give battle on the ground which he is now hur-riedly fortifying.

London, Oct. 6.—Joseph Chamber-ain re-opened his fiscal campaign at Luxon, Bedfordshire, last night. He began his speech with an eloquent tribute to the late Sir William Vernon-Harcourt. He dwelt at considerable length on the agricultural situation and painted a gloomy picture of present coned a gloomy picture of present conditions, predicting that there is worse to come. He said agriculture had been crippled and land values had shrunk by hundreds of millions. The capital of farmers, he said, had fallen $1,000,000,000. Mr. Chamberlain saw only one blemish in Mr. Balfeur's proposal; it was that the Premier seemed to think it would be necessary, after was that the Fremier seemed to think it would be necessary, after the conference had arrived at an agreement, to take a second election. Mr. Chamberlain saw no need of such a second plebiscite and foresaw need-less and endless trouble if, before the agreement was submitted to the reagreement was submitted to the respective Parliagnents, they had to wait till every legislator, at home and in the colonies, was re-elected. Mr. Chamberlain, in closing, pre-dicted that if the fiscal policy be developed along the lines he indicat-ed, then descendants would see a united nation of a hundred million, all carrying it on in all the corners

The resolution in favor of a change n the present fiscal system was car-ied by a large majority, which closed the meeting.

LANDMARK MOVED

An old landmark has been moved from the valley. The little red house that was long a picturesque feature of lower Brooklyn was moved yesterday by Caleb Montgomery. The house was purchased by James Paul and moved to a jot on Wood's Survey, where it will be fitted up as a dwelling house. There is a by-law requiring house movers to get a permit to use the city streets. Caleb Montgomery forgot to get the permit and the moving operations were stopped by City Engineer Jones and Chief by City Engineer Jones and United Helmes until the permit was secured.
