

Look at the calendaronly nine shopping days to Christmas. Very little more than a week to do your shopping in. You KNOW better than anybody else just what you have to do; you KNOW that forehanded buyers shop in comfort, and are more sure of getting what they want. You KNOW how difficult it is to pick and choose when the Christmas rush is on.

You'll find us ready every day from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. and anxious to serve you well. Our delivery service was never as good and we can assure you of prompt and careful delivery.

PERKINS HAS RESIGNED

A. E. Orr Succeeds Him as First V. P. of New York Life.

> Charles A. Peabody Elected President to Succeed R. A. McCurdy of the Mutual Life-His Salary One-Third of McCurdy's - Issues Statement Pledging the New Administration to Economy and Lawful Methods.

New York, Dec. 14.-Two incidents affecting the life insurance situation in New York yesterday overshadowed the Legislative Committee investiga-tion. While the committee was inquirtion. While the committee was inquiring into the conduct of the Prudential Life Co. and the Metropolitan Life, George W. Perkins resigned as first vice-president and chairman of the finance committee of the New York Life. He was succeeded as first vice-president by Alexander E. Orr, president of the New York City Rapid Transit Commission and as chairman of the finance committee by John Claffin, head of the H. B. Claffin Co. Mr. Perkins is a member of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Co.

Morgan & Co.

The board of trustees also announced the appointment of this committee of investigation: Thomas P. Fowler, Norman B. Ream, Clarence H, Mackay, Hiram R. Steels and Augustus C.

Paine.

A statement was issued which de-clared that the executive officers had exercised too broad a discretion in expending money. The committee is in-structed to inquire especially into pay-ments made to Andrew Hamilton and to use every effort to sequire a proper accounting from him. It is instructed to engage expert accountants to examine the system of bookkeeping now in use by the New York Life.

use by the New York Life.

Peabody is President.

Another important move was the election by the trustees of the Mutual Life of Charles A. Peabody to succeed Richard A. McCurdy as president at $50,000 a year. McCurdy's salary was $150,000. Peabody is a lawyer, the American representative of William Waldorf Astor and a director in several banks and other corporations, of which one is the Illinois Central Railroad Co. Peabody also was nominated as trus-Peabody also was nominated as trus-tee of the Mutual Life Co., to succeed Justice Rufus W. Peckham, and Em-ery McClintock was nominated to succeed Elihu Root.

He issued a statement to policyholders saying:

"The new administration stands pledged to economy, to lawful methods and to reform of existing abuses. Much has already been accomplished to carry out these pledges and all will be done that is necessary to fully redeem them. The board of trustees is harmonious and united upon these matters. The company possesses financial resources far beyond its liabilities. Lapse and far beyond its liabilities. Lapse and surrender of policies means abandonment of accumulations and the savings of years of thrift. Policyholders are urged to continue their policies in the company and not to withdraw from it."

A Financial Deal.

Just before adjournment yesterday Haley Fiske, vice-president of the Metropolitan, told of an incident in which that company commissioned W. A. Read to buy 323 shares of railroad stock for the company. Fiske said that A. Read to buy ass snares of antones stock for the company. Fiske said that Read the same day sold the stock to a company of brokers at $10 a share less than the broker; sold to the Metropolitan. Fiske said he had tried to get

tan. Fiske said he had tried to get the money back, but Read refused to surrender it.

John K. Gore, actuary of the Prudential, said the amount paid into the Prudential Co. in premiums since its organization is about $227,000,000. In the same time its earnings, apart from premiums, were $19,500,000. It paid to policyholders in that time about $92,-000,000.

The young man was engaged in lacing a belt caught on the shafting and winding about young Calkins pulled him up and whirled him about in a shocking manner. Both of his legs were torn from his body and he wasalmost decapitated.

The young man resided with his par-

Aberdeen Not Represented. London, Dec. 14.—(C.A.P.)—At the Aberdeen harbor board a strong objection was taken to the constitution of the executive committee of the Canatal Canada Ruit. dian Cattle Association of Great Bri dian Cattle Association of Great Brit-ain, in respect that no representative of Aberdeen had been appointed. Dan-iel Mearns said Aberdeen held the fourth place in the kingdom in impor-tation of cattle; he was amazed Aber-deen had been overlooked. Lord Pro-vost Lyon thought it would be very in-advisable that they should use threats.

The Pursuit of Banwell. Toronto, Dec. 14.—Edwin S. George Banwell, the runaway teller of the Crown Bank, has not been located, nor have the police ascertained anything reliable regarding his movements. Circulars giving descriptions of both Banwell and Miss Hector were sent out yesterday, offering a reward of $250, and stating that a warrant had been issued for his arrest.

Death of Mrs. Lucas.
St. Catharines, Dec. 14.—Mrs. Lucas. wife of Rev. Dr. Lucas, an active W. C. T. U. worker, is dead, after a long illness. In 1857-58 she accompanied her husband on his temperance tour around the world, and was instrumental in founding many branches of the W. C. T. U. in Australia and also
