SIGNS OF SPRING

SPRING is Nature's painting time. She tints the trees with soft green leaves. She colors the fields with glowing flowers. And sets us the example of brightness and cheerfulness which we should follow in putting our homes in keeping with Nature's glorious outdoors.

Spring time is painting time — and good painting always suggests substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind

In Use For Over 30 Years

Put the Castoria in your child's bottle.

If your child is underweight, the less, alert, liable to get sick easily, it needs a medicine to build its weight and strength. For this purpose there is nothing else we know of that we can so strongly endorse as Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion. The remarkable success of this splendid medicine is due to the fact that it contains ingredients that tone the nerves, enrich the blood and furnish to the entire system the strength, weight and health building substances it needs.
And it does so all this without injuring the stomach. In fact, Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion is not only pleasant to take, but even the most sensitive stomach is benefited by it, and the digestion improved. On the other hand, it contains no alcohol or habit forming drugs, which most parents object to giving their children. It does its good work by taking hold of the weakness and builds the body up to its natural strength, at the same time making it strong to resist disease.

If Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion does not build your child up, feed the stomach, purify the blood, and make the little one lively, strong, well, and full of the animal spirits children are accustomed to have, get your money back.
We don't want you to lose a cent of the money you have spent. We think this is no more than fair—it leaves you no cause to hesitate.
For old people also—those who are tired, run down, no matter what the cause—we offer Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion with the same guaranteed entire satisfaction or money back sold only at the 700 Rexall Store-in this town only by us. $1.00

Twice Proven
Cure for Nerves

Irritable, Hysterical, Sleepless, Dr.
Chase's Nerve Food Restores Health.

There is a message in this letter for thousands of women who are suffering from broken-down nervous systems. Sleepless nights, much irritability over little things, spells of diseases and nervous sick headaches are among the symptoms.

You may not realize the nature of your ailment until nervous prostration comes upon you. But in whatever stage you are yourself, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is ready to help you.

Mrs. W. S. May, 18 Annetta Street, Toronto, writes: "Some years ago I suffered from nervous trouble, and took Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, which completely cured me. About six months ago I received a shock which again shattered my nervous system to such an extent that I was irritable and hysterical, and could not sleep.
I began to use the Nerve Food again and was not disappointed.
Improvement was apparent from the first box, and now I am entirely well." Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 4 for $2.00, all dealers.

They Were Pals.

They had always been 'just pals'— friends from school days, when Jimmy had invariably let Caroline carry home her own books. In fact, many times Caroline had carried Jimmy's that he might skip off untrammelled to a game of ball.

Naturally enough as they grew up together each relied upon the other as an ever-ready comrade. They had attended all the youthful dances together simply because Caroline's parents would not permit her to go with any other boy, and Jimmy had been quite content.

"I don't have to tell you every time we dance together, that you are the best of the lot," he often remarked with frank admiration. "I hope the fellow you hook up with will appreciate you."

"We will have to try and fall in love at the same time, Jimmie," laughed Caroline, "otherwise we will miss each other fearfully."

Later, when Jimmy had been accepted in a large firm of interior decorators it was to Caroline he invariably turned with his newest designs and ideas.

"How is that?" he would exclaim with eager longing for praise.

"If I marry a man wealthy enough to permit it I will give you the contract for my house, Jim," she told him after having admired a particularly wonderful scheme of coloring for a breakfast room.

"And the man, Caroline—it may bring me fame and fortune."

"Perhaps he is waiting out west for me," laughed Caroline. "If he should be I will shorten my visit and return here to give you the contract."

"You might telegraph it," laughed Jimmy and drew a sigh. "By jove it will be long some this summer."

"Perhaps loneliness for you may drag me back, too," Caroline told him, and looked at her big handsome comrade with lighter loving eyes. "You are a treat to the vision," she added, "maybe you will let me kiss you goodbye this time when I go."

"Just try me," laughed Jimmy.

It had been no idle threat with Caroline for when she left for the west she stood on tiptoes and kissed Jimmy goodbye.

"Maybe you had that wealthy husband!" he called out as she waved her hand.

"I will turn into a searchlight," she called back.

Jimmy turned back into the New York that was so undeniably home-without Caroline. There were few girls he cared for since she had filed all feminine interest for him.
He plunged into work, and days slipped into weeks and weeks into two months.

It was then that Caroline's letter came in which she wrote of the thing they had joked about as having come true. Jimmy scanned the pages a second time.

"Jimmy, want you to select a pretty six room apartment. It must overlook something green, either the river or some of the parks. Do locate it throughout in your own taste, but I must make every room lovely. I am very much in love, Jimmy boy, and you must do your best. Could you possibly have it done in five weeks?" It had hardly wait to see you—there is no such talk about Always Yours, Caroline.

A frown gathered and remained between Jimmy's fine eyes. It was hard to realize that a third person had come into the friendship of years.
Who was he and what would he be like—this man to whom Caroline had given her heart? Jimmy knew that it was going to be difficult to look with any kind of favor on the man who undoubtedly was taking away his conscience from him. The beauty of unshared intimacy was no longer possible. Jimmy's frown grew to a scowl.

A week later he wrote a letter tell-

Use PURITY FLOUR and do justice to your baking ability

Your bread, pies, cakes and pastry can be no better than the flour you use. For the sake of your family's health and your reputation as a cook you should always use PURITY FLOUR.

Tell your grocer that you want a sack of
Give it a fair trial—an actual baking test —and if it does not prove to be the best flour you have ever used your money will be returned.

What more evidence do you require of the superior baking qualities of PURITY FLOUR? Doesn't it stand to reason that PURITY must be the best and purest flour milled? Otherwise we could never afford to guarantee it so liberally.

Spring Seeding.

There is old saying which has been accepted as a half truth, to the effect that a 'late Easter brings a late spring.' Little faith is to be put in weather predictions, especially of such a general character as this. Even with all our scientific knowledge and appliances it is only possible to see a day or two ahead. There are, no doubt, changes taking place in the climate of the country, but these are so slow as to be scarcely discernible in a life time. Our springs and summers seem to be cooler and our winters seem to be warmer.

After all that has been said about seed quality, the harvest depends in a measure upon seeding under proper conditions. There is a greater loss throughout too early sowing than too late, taking in the whole country over.
The advice to 'sow as early as possible' is sound, but it must be applied with common sense. After a winter's rest impatience sometimes causes the soil to be worked before it is dry to a sufficient depth, with the result that the soil is packed and made im-permeable to water and fresh air, destroying two important conditions for healthy growth.

It is a safe rule that no seeding should be done until the growth begins to show in grass and trees and when weeds begin to show themselves.

A Word to Boys.

Boys, here are a few words of advice from Judge Wolford, of Kingston, which he wishes every boy reader to consider and then ask himself if the judge is right:

"I have been on the bench fourteen years, and in that time thousands of boys have been brought before me for attendance at church or Sunday school or one of them was a constant attendant of church or Sunday school or obedient to his father or mother."

"I have inquired of many boys what caused them to get into trouble, and have found that in most instances, staying away from home and school, playing pool, hanging around saloons, and cigarette smoking are responsible."

"Start right, boys. To be anybody, to accomplish anything for the community you yourself cannot be idle. Don't drink; liquor destroys the mind and body. Don't swear, gentlemen do not. It is low and vulgar. Don't read trashy literature.
Don't hang around saloons. Good men are not made that way. Whenever you see a man lying around a saloon, the devil is after him and will get him sooner or later. Benjamin Franklin would never have accomplished anything if he had been guilty of these practices. Be honest above all things."

"To make a good man you must be a good boy. So start right. The graveyards are filled with those who
