friends ? I am Mr. Editor, faithfully yours, MICHAEL WHELAN. Stillwater, Minn., 16th Sept. 1886. "PATRIOT'S" EFFUSIONS.

To the Editor of the Union Advocate. SIR :—Recent issues of the ADVOCATE contain some letters in which a "Patriot" iscusses the Jesuit question.

The subject has been much written on, and talked about for the last six or seven months. People commenced to think that enough—perhaps more than enough, had been said by the different parties who there of the commence of t pparently, they were very much misaken; for a "Patriot" in the ADVOCATE feels that enough has not been said, and, in charity, feels compelled to enlighten "Protestants and intelligent Catholics."
