Optimus est Reipublica status, ubi nihil deest nisi licentia percundi.-SENECA.

PUR MURPL CAPA TIPP

end Oil Ski

to Act to authorize the coldinal femurance Fire Composite at the Coldust House, in the Coldust House, on TUESDAY, the fill smal, on TUESDAY, the fill smal, on TUESDAY, the fill smal, on TUESDAY, the fill smaller in the FREHOLDER's of the FREHOLDER's of the constant of Montreal, to take into consider the augusticage of emablishing a FIRE IAM ANCE COMPANY on the principle of Motoal Insurance, in conformity with the process.

J. Delisio,
H. S. Gay,
A. M. Buljate,
Jon. Valloo,
Louis Boger,
J. O. Alfred Tur
George Smid,
U. Boudraga,
Julion-Perraph,
W. F. Leste,
Fra. Perrin,
Bonj. Domers,
Charlos Perry,
Aug. Tulloch,
Fra. K. Bokudry,
Paul Kamere.

ALEXANDER M-MILLAL ANGUS M-DANS

MONTREAL:

EAL BANK,

Y AND UTILITY. her has on hand, a supply of PATENT ROTARY COOK.

theroof are her d within six most

CH MARMALADE made by JAMES R. Dandos. 133

CE—All persons having claims against Estate of the late ALEXANDER Esq., will plans hand these in forthwith against and Estate, are requested to estite sective accounts immediately, as all out-dolte spill shortly be placed in the hand termey, for collection—Mr. Davic, St. Freet, is suther ised to agttle all the

J. VALENTINE

WILLIAM GRAFTON

Morning Courier.

ONTREAL, FRIDAY, NOV. 20, 1835.

d by the packet Olympia, 4th Oct. from wre, the New York papers have received glish and French journals to the above respectively. We have made a selecbelow, from the intelligence fur se sources.

England.

The condition of the money market continued stract attention in London. The Congress of Sovereigns at Toplitz, having sechanged contesses and settled the affairs nations, were about to break up. The second great sale of Coffee at Amsterdam nt off better than the first.

Parsatouri, Oct. 10.—The Wanderse, 38, amander Dilke, is destined for South Ame a. She will convey Sir R. Plaskett, to his vernorship at St. Helens, and will then go to de Janeiro for the purpose of conveying arry S. Fox, E.q., from the embassy at that urt, to New York, as the umbassador from recounty to the United States. to New York, as the amount of the United States, of the London papers was esized at the s and elsewhere at Boulogue, in conseor its containing some atrong strictures conduct and policy of the French Governters from Genoa say that an expedition paring at that port, to bring Don Mignel to Potugal, and that the expenses attend-he same are defrayed by the king of Sar-It consists of four men-of-war, followed a. It consists of row average and a several light vessels. It will be present aloop of war, called Strebeck, armed with average and waiting for orders.

Landon, Oct. 10.—We are happy to learn that far as can be known of the present quarter and the accounts of which will be made appeared to the accounts of which will be made appeared.

hole were stationary yesterday at 90%, for ... The foreign murket is heavy at pre-wing to the great-scarcity of money which is also, the S. anish securities rooming low-Paris, has an effect on the Spanish may the cholors had entirely disappeared, and tommercial affairs were in consequence im-ving. The arrangements of the Governor, he reard to the amitary state of the place, met with general approval. The tribes Amount and of Zottaons had supplicated peace and tendered their submission.

ortigal makes progress. At a Cabinet Coun-leid in the 25th, it is said to have been agreed sign the contract for the anion with the inner of Sax Coburg Goths.

The private letters from Lisbon, give settle.

remone indebted to the said two Firms, an hereby problems symmetry and hereby problems symmetry and hereby problems of the said was the State of the Military, and further as the State of the intends adopting assess of the said of the Spain.

A telegraphic dispatch from Bayonne an nounced that accounts had been received at St. Sebastian, of a victory being obtained over the Carlists at Vallariage, in which they suffered great loss. Les Navas, who was marching on Madrid, had given up his intention, and submitted to the Government.

Advices from Madrid to the 30th Santanhanders tted to the Government. Advices from Madrid to the 30th Septembe stinus to represent that the Administration andisabel was likely to put an end to the tro protegal, and that the expenses attendance are defrayed by the king of Sart consists of four men. of war, followed all light vessels. It will be preceded by of wer, called Strebeck, armed withility, and a corvette, now stationary at the strength of wer, called Strebeck, armed withility, and a corvette, now stationary at the strength of the consistency in the strength of the consistency in the recognit of the cacies depart. The foreign mixet is heavy at present the strength of the strength of the transmission of newspapers free of the transmission of newspapers free of the foreign mixet is heavy at present the strength of the stren that Lord Gospone was about to remove or supposed Mr. Justice Gals from his office. Whatever His Excellency's instructions upbelow a country of the commercial and faming a factory accounts of the country. The Government that he would hazard this act of injustice, seeing the recovered of the late pressure for money, and that he would, by so doing, so far about the he would hazard this act of injustice, seeing that he would, by so doing, so far abet the tyranny of the House of Assembly, as could clean in good taste. "A word to the wise." from tyranny of the House of Assembly, as could not fail to arouse the indignation of the A Lover of the

of these unfortunate individuals, had lost his reason.

The trial of Fisschi has been postponed until apring.

M. Coletti, the Greeian Charge d'Affaires in France, has arrived in Paris.

The long contected and lucrative poet of Chancellor of the Legion of Honour, left vacant by done up to that time. Since then I have been done up to that time. Since then I have been school Society, as may be seen by a copy of the commission here subjoined.

"Respecting the grounds of dissatisfaction etween myself and the former association, smething may be said hereafter, should circumlances perm to meaning."

TO THE CITIZENS OF MONTREAL. The Mayor and Common Council of Montreal are most earnestly solicited to take the ne sessary steps to put a stop to the disgraceful prectice of street begging. And it is expected, that all house keepers in the city will promptly come forward to furnish the means of building, or renting, premises for the employment and accommendation of all the destitute.

Monther country and this Colony, or the latter and the United States, continues against us, even though our depreciated half crowns should be banished. Does any person but the writer in the will be banished. Does any person but the writer in the pressing necessity of organization among

The late benevolent Mastellen gave £1500 to.

The Ameteura of the 32d Regiment, appeared on Menday evening last, in the Melo Drama of "The Innkeeper of Abbeville," and the Farce of this is the way of propping it up, and by means of merconary begonsts either of home or foreign manufacture, but by the best and most solid of all stays—the love and gratitude, and antire confidence of millions of free men. This is likewise putting the last and inviolable soal to the testment of Ferdinand VII. and resting on this sacred covenant with the nation, the young Queen may hard defiance at her enumies. Her reign, too, will be an iris in the sky, an mouncing that the political waters have subsided to their proper level, after three centuries of frightful miscule, during which all sons of individual independence, and all the elements of public presentity, successively disappeared. by stans-were not eminently successful in the representation of this Farce, during their last

The songs now introduced between Play and Farce, are of too low and coarse a stamp; and such ridiculous displays as the "Ganto Fancy Star Glass Dance," might be dispensed with nities, styl. expose the pretentions of the Vindicator to [the more than " helf-knowindge" on the matter which he has denied to tit: We are accused of a quibble in the application

We are accused of a quiline in the application of the word Spanish, in connection with dollar—in limiting it to a particular kind of dollar, instead of including, as the Vindicator does, "the whole tribe coined by pursons professing the language of Spain." Most of business know hatter, however, than to treat Spanish property, so thing; and when a person presumes to discouns on a subject, he ought first to understand his text. But even allowing the Vindicator the beness of his calarged interpretration of the term
"Spanish," still our remark is quite partinent as to the impracticability of making Spanish dollars remain in circulation here, at 5a. gurrenoy, while the balance of trade between the

The Vindicator confesses that many of our eing banished, ere should soon have less specie its value, as an expert at par, would be higher than any thing else in an unfavourable balance of trade, and no local produce that could be sent Sin,—The Vimilicativ of the 2d instant, contains an account of a meeting which was lately held in Leeds, called by Mr. Clapham.—As that statement contains the most grots falsehoods, I cannot suffer it to pass unneticed.

The meeting was called by Mr. Clapham, for the purpose of surviviles.

was seconded by Mr. Rue, and unamany agreed to. No resolutions of any kind were proposed by the Tories. The resolutions which were passed at a previous meeting of the Reformers (which was not attended by thirty individuals,) were indeed proposed, but did not pass, as the meeting was dissolved by the Reformers themselves, whilst they were under discussion.

Jour Huns.

We need rooms for ledgings and workshops, on the plan introduced by Count Rustron. in the Union 1 late act of the Governor, which has been so wards such an Institution in Montreal, and arguments apply well enough to the existing struction on this subject, and discovers how struction on this subject, and discovers how entirely inapplicable, should the Legislature banish our depreciated half-crowns. He either the bends of union require to be tight-banish our depreciated half-crowns. He either the bends of union require to be tight-banish our depreciated half-crowns. He either the bends of union require to be tight-banish our depreciated half-crowns. a right to enquire how and in what mannor these sums have been applied.

It was expected, that all street begging long

We have never once had recourse to the state of bodies scattered throughout the country. Reformers, and also between the various It was expected, two would have been done away; but do of Argueles, as our own—the source of the street of the first goest, which on high the onti-liberal and summer places and process of the street, which as the street, carre, at some kind of reable antiquity, also to sull those destitute persons who are classes and the street, carre, at some kind of propose of park when the Cortes was the light of their support? And would it not be when the daily it will be confirmed to the conformation of the support of park when the Cortes was the support of park when the conformation of the support of park when the cortes was the suppose of park when the suppose of of our balences. American half-deliars at me unanimous peal of public indignation, which were presented; among others, would not continue with us, and our half-crowns would have made the most coursecuts and would have made the most coursecus and determined Ministry quail. The Government tion of the class of Quebec and would not there have been left to learn the relief from Quit Routs. A me being banished, we should soon have less species than ever in the country, and a proportionate demand for an increase of small note pages, unless indeed, we are prepared to exist without any foreign trade. We have in vain asked the Viadic cator to point out the means by which he purpose to retain species (not depreciated) in circu. To pose to retain species (not depreciated) in circu. Canada, things are managed very differently. The growl of discountent is heard in private, balances of trade are adverse. Specie, like other things, must be paid for; and unless a other things, must be paid for; and unless a country be prepared to gird more than value for value, in its foreign transactions, it cannot expect either to add fresh accombilations to its stock of specie, or even hold what it had. You may put the coin of the country on a sound may put the coin of the country on a sound may put the coin of the country on a sound may be it remembered that he is a man occupy.

In the Government would not there have been left to learn the value from Quit Rents, allows the remainder of the Press. The results of the result of public onlines to he would not there have been left to learn the value for not intended in public onlines and remonstrances. But here, in Canada, things are managed very differently. The growl of discountent is heard in private, lating the description of the contingencies, pointed to determine on manifestation of the country. In the probation, of the country. The provided may put the coin of the country on a sound may be the coin of the country on a sound may be it remembered that he is a man occupy. The bas not constitute.—Can and the country is the country in the coin of the country on a sound may be it remembered that he is a man occupy. The bas not constitute.—Can and the country is the coin of the country on a sound may be it remembered that he is a man occupy. may put the coin of the country on a sound Be it remembered that he is a man occupyfooting, but you cannot keep it at home, while ing an elevated station in society; he has no transport at man, would be higher ns of mingling with the mass of the peohome under, or at par.

The Vindicator imagines, "good easy man, that he has us on the hip, when we alinds to the state of the currency in France, where there are no circulating notes under 500 france. He usy, "we never hear of passics in France," when turbed; when, on the contrary, there persuantly, "we never hear of passics in France," when a large portion of the contrary, there persuantly, we have noticed the contrary will be the contrary of the contrary. the monty, they were beginning to imment grows and the adaptation of the production of the comment of the production of the production of the comment of the production He is wrong—within our, own anowledge and recollection, there have been panies, and we have heard of "merchants failing, one after an have heard of primary merchants failing, one after an have heard of primary merchants failing, one after an have heard of primary merchants failing, one after an have heard of primary merchants failing, one after an have heard of primary merchants for the Asts of the Copies of the Copies of the Asts of the Copies of the Copies of the Asts of the Copies o The part of particle and partic

the affairs of the Colony, our rights and pri-vileges may be trampled under the feet of our ents, while our muttered denunciations will be found to retard neither their destrucion, nor to put off the day of our complete

The wharf at St. John's, belonging to Mr. Jason C. Parace, broke down on Thursday, and vere precipitated into the river. About five erose were store, and the contents lost. The auction on Monday, to Mr. Jone Munn, for $4,450. It is said to have been bought in for he proprietor, Jones Jones, jr. Esq.

THOMBON, the abelitionist, sailed from few days ago for New Brunswick,

The French Indemnity question is beginning again to excite considerable speculation in the United States, as the time for the opening of

There has been a most distructive gale at Buffalo, by which several lives have been lost,

The Treasurer of the Montreal Infant School Society begs to acknowledge the receipt of £14 18s 1ds, being the amount contributed at the late Annual Meeting in aid of that Institution.

Guzzze, Nov. 18.—The House, according to adjournment, met today at 4 o'clock. Shortly after the chair was taken, the House was amminoned to meet His Excellency the Governor in-Chief in the Legislative Council, when His Ex-

FOR PER ISSION TO REPRODUCE, APPLY TO PUBLIC ARCHIVES, OTTAWA.