

The Charlottetown Herald... EVERY WEDNESDAY... The Herald Printing Company...

Contracts made for Monthly... Quarterly, Half-yearly, or Yearly... Remittances may be made by Draft, P. O. Order, or Registered Letter.

JAMES McSAIG, Manager, Charlottetown.

Calendar for September, 1898.

Calendar for September, 1898. Table with columns for days of the month and corresponding events or dates.

North British and Mercantile FIRE AND LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY... ESTABLISHED 1809.

SULLIVAN & McNEILL, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Solicitors in Ontario, Notaries Public, &c.

D. A. MACKINNON, LL.B., ATTORNEY, SOLICITOR, Notary Public, &c.

Credit Foncier Franco Canadien... OFFICE: 115, Water Street, Charlottetown.

FRUIT & CONFECTIONERY... B. SALMOND has a full supply of the season's fruit.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children. A safe and reliable medicine for various ailments.

"IN UNION IS STRENGTH." PARTICULARLY in this case in the union or combination of the Vegetable Oils which, blended together, compose SIMSON'S LINIMENT. Its penetrating powers in cases of Rheumatism, Lamé Backs, Neuralgia, Sore Throat, &c., have been thoroughly proved.

BROWN BROS. & CO., Chemists, Halifax, N. S.

JOHN NEWSON. On hand and to arrive, the greatest assortment of all kinds of HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE. The Cheapest Place in Charlottetown. Chairs, Tables, Bedsteads, Parlor Suites, Chamber Suites, Mirrors, Picture Moulding, Changan Window Blinds (the newest style), Hand-carved Window Furniture, Fets, Cornices, Rings, Rollers, Holders, Bands, Chains, RYERSTON. Woven Wire Mattresses, all kinds of Mattresses and Beds.

EVERYTHING CHEAP, BEST QUALITY. CALL AND EXAMINE. JOHN NEWSON.

LEFT AGAIN. THE man who pretends to sell Clothing at L. K. Prowse's prices gets left every time.

BANKRUPT CLOTHING. Twelve Thousand Dollars Worth of Clothing to be sold at prices never heard of before.

Men's Suits from 3.50 up. BOYS' and YOUTHS' ALL PRICES. Be sure you see them.

L. E. PROWSE, Sign of the Great Big Hat, 144, Queen Street.

Prince Edward Island Railway. 1898. SUMMER ARRANGEMENT. 1898. On and after Friday, June 1st, 1898, Trains will run as follows:

Table showing train schedules for the Prince Edward Island Railway, including stations, departure times, and arrival times.

Tailors Wanted. WANTED IMMEDIATELY, Dress and Suit Makers, at J. A. McNEILL'S Tailoring Establishment, Queen Street, Charlottetown, July 25, 1898.

J. UNSWORTH, Superintendent.

The Catholic Church and the Slave. WORK OF ST. PETER CLAVIER, THE GREAT APOSTLE OF SOUTH AMERICA.

The first feast of St. Peter Clavier, who was recently canonized, was celebrated at St. Francis Xavier's, Liverpool, on August 19, with befitting solemnity. High Mass, at ten o'clock, was sung at 11 o'clock, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Knight, bishop of St. George's, presiding. The panegyric was preached by Rev. J. A. Froude, O. P., from the text: "These were men of many words, whose goodly deeds have not failed; good things continue with them, and their posterity will be holy inheritances, and their good seed shall stand in the covenant. And their children for their sakes remain forever; and their seed and their glory shall be for ever." (Gen. 12:1-3).

St. Francis Xavier, the great apostle of the Indies, was born in 1506 at Caldas, near Coimbra, Portugal. He was a man of many words, whose goodly deeds have not failed; good things continue with them, and their posterity will be holy inheritances, and their good seed shall stand in the covenant. And their children for their sakes remain forever; and their seed and their glory shall be for ever.

St. Francis Xavier, the great apostle of the Indies, was born in 1506 at Caldas, near Coimbra, Portugal. He was a man of many words, whose goodly deeds have not failed; good things continue with them, and their posterity will be holy inheritances, and their good seed shall stand in the covenant. And their children for their sakes remain forever; and their seed and their glory shall be for ever.

Conference of English Catholics. THE MEETING IN LONDON NEXT MONTH AND THE PROGRAMME.

An important conference of English-speaking Catholics is to be held in London in October, under the auspices of the Catholic Truth Society and the immediate patronage of the Cardinal-Archbishop and the bishops of England and Wales. The programme of the conference, as set forth in the programme of proceedings, a copy of which we have been favored with, is to promote the four great objects for which the Catholic Truth Society was established and to take steps to extend more widely the work of that Society. These four great objects are: (1) To disseminate among Catholics small and cheap devotional works. (2) To assist the necessitous poor to a better knowledge of the Catholic faith. (3) To spread among Protestants information about Catholic truth. (4) To promote the circulation of good, cheap, and popular Catholic literature.

Some idea may be gained of the whole scope which the discussion will take by setting down a few of the sub-headings under the different sections. Under the heading of how best to meet the objections of Protestants and skeptics, the principal discussion will be on the Holy Father's direction on philosophy and how to meet the objections of Protestants and skeptics, the principal discussion will be on the Holy Father's direction on philosophy and how to meet the objections of Protestants and skeptics.

The Work of a Monk. The most beautiful volume among the half million in the Congressional library is said to be a Bible, which was translated by a monk in the sixteenth century. It is not to be matched to-day in the best printing office in the world. The parchment is in perfect preservation. Every one of its thousand pages is a study. The general lettering is in German text, each letter perfect, as is every one in each black ink, without a scratch or blot from lid to lid.

Cardinal Weld. A little work just received from the author—pamphlet as to form, but book in the amount and interest of its contents—finally clears up a question, first opened up a couple of years ago in the Gazette. Some of our readers may recall that after the joyous fete in honor of Cardinal Haubara, we ventured to assert that His Eminence was not the first prelate of the Canadian Church who had been honored by admittance to the Sacred College. On the 11th of August, 1836, a short article appeared in our editorial columns, calling attention to the fact that Monsignor Weld, coadjutor-Bishop of Kingston, had been raised to the dignity by Pope Pius VIII. Thomas Cardinal Weld, was the son of Mr. Weld, of London, and was, in 1836, held in veneration by English Catholics as the founder of Stonyhurst College. He succeeded his father in 1836, and was the first Canadian to be raised to the rank of Cardinal. He died in 1883, and was succeeded by his brother Joseph, who, in 1836, entertained Charles X. and his family as his guests at Lalworth, a very interesting biography of Cardinal Weld is given in Monsignor's Biographical Treasury. The Rev. Dr. Scadding's "Toronto of Old," also mentions his appointment in 1836 as coadjutor to the Bishop of Kingston. Some months later a correspondent of the Episcopate, "J. G." of this city, gave some further and interesting particulars on the subject. He had in his possession, he said, a copy of the New York Atlas, dated 1836-37, containing a list of the Cardinals assembled at Rome to elect a successor to Pius VIII., and among them was included the name of Thomas Weld, coadjutor-Bishop of Kingston, in upper Canada. He also speaks of the donation of Stonyhurst to the Jesuits, and added that the Hon. Mr. Turcotte and other Canadians had been educated at that institution.

The little book already mentioned, "Reminiscences of the late Hon. and Right Rev. Alexander Macdonnell, Bishop of Upper Canada," contains the foregoing, and in the same contemporaneous accounts of Cardinal Weld's connection with Canada. "Advancing age," writes the author, "and increased responsibility forced the Bishop to apply for a coadjutor, and Mr. Thomas Weld, a descendant of one of the oldest Catholic families in England, was chosen. He died in 1836, and was succeeded by his brother Joseph, who, in 1836, entertained Charles X. and his family as his guests at Lalworth, a very interesting biography of Cardinal Weld is given in Monsignor's Biographical Treasury. The Rev. Dr. Scadding's "Toronto of Old," also mentions his appointment in 1836 as coadjutor to the Bishop of Kingston. Some months later a correspondent of the Episcopate, "J. G." of this city, gave some further and interesting particulars on the subject. He had in his possession, he said, a copy of the New York Atlas, dated 1836-37, containing a list of the Cardinals assembled at Rome to elect a successor to Pius VIII., and among them was included the name of Thomas Weld, coadjutor-Bishop of Kingston, in upper Canada. He also speaks of the donation of Stonyhurst to the Jesuits, and added that the Hon. Mr. Turcotte and other Canadians had been educated at that institution.

Cardinal Weld's daughter, Lady Clifford, died in 1831, leaving six sons and two daughters. One of her sons is the Hon. and Right Rev. William Joseph Henry Clifford, Bishop of Clifton, in the Roman Catholic hierarchy of England, who, in 1834, was raised to the rank of Cardinal. He was the first Canadian to be raised to the rank of Cardinal. He died in 1883, and was succeeded by his brother Joseph, who, in 1836, entertained Charles X. and his family as his guests at Lalworth, a very interesting biography of Cardinal Weld is given in Monsignor's Biographical Treasury. The Rev. Dr. Scadding's "Toronto of Old," also mentions his appointment in 1836 as coadjutor to the Bishop of Kingston. Some months later a correspondent of the Episcopate, "J. G." of this city, gave some further and interesting particulars on the subject. He had in his possession, he said, a copy of the New York Atlas, dated 1836-37, containing a list of the Cardinals assembled at Rome to elect a successor to Pius VIII., and among them was included the name of Thomas Weld, coadjutor-Bishop of Kingston, in upper Canada. He also speaks of the donation of Stonyhurst to the Jesuits, and added that the Hon. Mr. Turcotte and other Canadians had been educated at that institution.

Cardinal Weld's daughter, Lady Clifford, died in 1831, leaving six sons and two daughters. One of her sons is the Hon. and Right Rev. William Joseph Henry Clifford, Bishop of Clifton, in the Roman Catholic hierarchy of England, who, in 1834, was raised to the rank of Cardinal. He was the first Canadian to be raised to the rank of Cardinal. He died in 1883, and was succeeded by his brother Joseph, who, in 1836, entertained Charles X. and his family as his guests at Lalworth, a very interesting biography of Cardinal Weld is given in Monsignor's Biographical Treasury. The Rev. Dr. Scadding's "Toronto of Old," also mentions his appointment in 1836 as coadjutor to the Bishop of Kingston. Some months later a correspondent of the Episcopate, "J. G." of this city, gave some further and interesting particulars on the subject. He had in his possession, he said, a copy of the New York Atlas, dated 1836-37, containing a list of the Cardinals assembled at Rome to elect a successor to Pius VIII., and among them was included the name of Thomas Weld, coadjutor-Bishop of Kingston, in upper Canada. He also speaks of the donation of Stonyhurst to the Jesuits, and added that the Hon. Mr. Turcotte and other Canadians had been educated at that institution.