

Grand Dominion Day Celebration

London July 5.—In France within sound of the guns, with airmen holding the air marshes, a great meeting of Canadians celebrated Dominion Day and welcomed the Duke of Connaught, late governor-general of Canada, and Sir Robert Borden, prime minister of Canada. In a great natural amphitheatre our national holiday was celebrated, with an enthusiasm never equalled at home and an event and a programme unique in the allied armies. "Like a scene from ancient Rome," said a famous Polish representative to the commanders of the Canadian forces, as he surveyed the vast multitude of soldiers. Overhead a famous Canadian aviator thrilled the crowd with daring turns, playing "Bonnie Dundee," halting in front of the Duke of Connaught and Sir Robert Borden.

Later each divisional band entered the enclosure playing the divisional march. Massed in front the guests and all the thousands of Canadians present bared their heads as the bands played "O Canada." Representatives from every allied army were there and most all gave credit to the Maple Leaf men of giving the greatest and most unique holiday ever seen in Europe. It was a wonderful Canadian re-union. Men of Ypres, Festubert, Somme, Vimy Ridge and Passchendaele met for the first time since they went against the Huns on those glorious days. The Nursing Sisters came from base hospitals and they were cheered by men who had been brought back to health and strength by their watchful care and devotion.

From the British army came many great leaders to do honor to the Canadian force and witness the Canadian celebration. The navy was represented by prominent officers who had commanded Canadians in the naval service. "Like Derby Day," was the comment of a British general. Perfect weather permitted Canadians from all parts of France to gather. Early in the morning men from all parts moved towards the great gathering places. The prime minister and his colleagues, arrived from Vimy, had great receptions. The Duke of Connaught was received by one of the finest guards ever paraded in France. The guard was drawn from a famous brigade commanded by an officer from the first force, who has a great record in the field. The guard was cheered by the whole army, proud of their fine showing.

Baseball, lacrosse, football, tennis were carried on at the same time while the famous circus of the western brigade furnished a humorous part. A baseball game final went eleven innings, won by three to two. The game was witnessed by the Duke of Connaught, Sir Robert Borden and the ministers, Foulkes, of Victoria, and McAvity, of St. John, played a draw in the tennis singles, while Foulkes and Maynard won the doubles final from McAvity and Bessey. The hundred yard race was run in ten seconds and the mile done in four minutes, forty-one seconds. During the sports, aeroplanes photographed the scene. The pictures were developed and the airmen returned, dropping them in the grandstand. The grounds were splendidly arranged and it is claimed were better than at the first stampede in Calgary. The grandstand was three hundred yards long with special stands for distinguished visitors.

Sir Robert Borden says it was the greatest day of his life. Hon. J. A. Calder remarked that he had seen many thousand Canadian gentlemen gathered at one point in France. Hon. Arthur Meighen could not comment on the programme as he said he was too busy meeting old friends to witness the sports. No unfavorable incident marred the day. Despite the immense crowd there was no wrong act or sign of ill-feeling. Hon. N. W. Rowell was much impressed by the wonderful order and conduct of the great assembly. The sports concert party gave an entertainment, there being present over ten thousand. Sir Robert Borden was accorded a wonderful reception. He addressed the men.

"How about leave, Sir Borden?" yelled someone. "Every Canadian has long leave to do his best to beat the Hun," retorted the Prime Minister, and ten thousand soldiers sprang to their feet, cheered and waved their hats at this sentiment. There never was seen such a gathering or programme in Europe. It was Canada's day and Canadians are proud of its great success. Before going to the sports Sir Robert and his colleagues with corps and divisional commanders, visited Vimy Ridge. The ridge was ablaze with blood red poppies aiding the devastation. They visited the graves of Canadians who died on that glorious day when they swept the Hun from Vimy. With the party were men who led Canadians over the ridge and they explained the operation that brought fame to Canada and heartened the allies.

President Wilson Speaks

Washington, July 4.—From the shadow of Washington's Tomb, President Wilson today offered America's Declaration of Independence to the peoples of the world, with a pledge that the United States and its allies will not sheath the sword in the war against the Central Powers until there is settled "once for all" for the world what was settled for America in 1776. Foreign-born citizens of the United States 33 nationalities, who had placed wreaths of palms on the tomb in token of fealty to the principles laid down by the father of his country, cried their approval of his words in many languages and then stood with reverently bared heads while the voice of John McCormack soared over the hallowed ground in the notes of the "Star Spangled Banner."

There can be but one issue. The settlement must be final. There can be no compromise. What we seek is the reign of law, based upon the consent of the governed and sustained by the organized opinion of mankind. The speaker's crisp words as he emphasized the least which America will consider as a basis for peace were interrupted by a tumult of applause, and words of approval in many tongues. The demonstration swept beyond the wall of khaki-clad marines to the throng of Americans scattered over the hills and through the woods surrounding Washington's home. The President forestalled any offers of peace by compromise which the Central Powers may make by announcing that the purpose for which the United States is sending millions of its men to the trenches may not be fulfilled around a council table. "These great ends cannot be accomplished by debating," the President asserted.

A single reference to Russia gave notice to the world that the United States still accounts the peoples of the youngest democracy as allies. President Wilson enumerated the opponents of Germany as peoples of many races, "the people of stricken Russia still, among the rest, though they are for the moment unorganized and helpless."

According to recent London advices, a visit to the United States by the Prince of Wales has been suggested recently in British papers. It will be remembered that the Prince's grandfather, Edward VII, visited the United States in 1880 while Prince of Wales.

Mr. J. H. Rattray, Lobster Packer of St. Peter's was found drowned near Holman's wharf Summerside on Friday forenoon last. Deceased had attended the meeting of the Lobster men in Charlottetown on Wednesday, and went from here to Summerside on business connected with his lobster factory. He is reported to have intended to go across to Port Elgin, N. B. The supposition is that he undertook to board a vessel that was bound for Port Elgin, probably during the night and in some way missed his footing and fell between the vessel and the wharf. The body was sent to St. Peter's for burial.

Sunday, the 7th, was the 25th anniversary of the marriage of King George and Queen Mary. The public rejoicing, which would have eventuated under ordinary circumstances, was moderated in consequence of the war and the only public ceremonies commemorating the event, in which the royal couple participated, were a special thanksgiving service in St. Paul's Cathedral followed by a visit to the Guild Hall where a congratulatory address and a gift from the city of London were received. This was followed by the presentation of a cheque for a large sum to be distributed among such charities as their majesties should decide upon and a gift of a piece of silver. These were the only public wedding gifts their sovereigns consented to receive, having decided that at the present time nothing should be diverted from charitable purposes.
