Toths littles of its Sgad

Many of the readers of your paper will be sorry to hear of the dash of Murdoch

McRae one of Mr Donald McRae one of the most respected and oldset pioneer setthers of the Township of Ashfield. He and his brother left their father's present home in the State of Minnesott fifty miles from St. Cloud, en route for Duluth. They arrived about three weeks ye.

The decease
of manifested every indication of strength, health, and manly vigor. A few days after his arrival, he was taken ill with diarrham, a disease which is very prevalent here at present. He fillness which he bore with chraitian patience and fortitude continued for nine days. Every effort was here at present. His illness which he bore with christian patience and fortitude continued for mue days. Every affort was made, and every remedy applied to save his life, but death prevailed. He died on Saturday the 27th August at the hour of mine o'clock in the morning. I and three other friends called to see him about a quarter of an hour before he died. He conversed freely and pleasantly with us and said he thought he was out of all danger. We went outside to the end of the house to converse to a friend, little anticipating that death was so near. In about three minutes his brother came rushing out of the door and said Murdoch was dying. THE CANADIAN PARTICIPES
