The Free for All.

The free for all brought only two entries, Leland Onward, owned by J. W. Clark, and Captain Derby, owned by P. O. Dwyer, both of Edmontor Leland Onward was the favorite and von easily in straight heats.

In the first heat there was consider. able scoring befort the pair got away with a good start. Capt. Derby, which had shown a tendency to break, went up in the air on the back stretch while leading and lost eight lengths. This he failed to regain and Leland Onward came home an easy winner. This was the most closely contested heat of this race. In the second Leland Onward took the lead and was never headed. The Captain tried hard to win on the stretch but could not overtake the bay stallion which came under the wire two lengths ahead.

In the third heat Leland Onward again went to the front. The Captain challenged on the back stretch during the first half but again broke, leaving Leland Ontward to finish with
