By Jas. J. Jeffries. Reno, Nev., July 4 .- "I lost my ight this afternoon, but did not have ne snap of youth I' used to have. believed in my heart that the old dash was there but when I started to execute the speed and youthful stamina were lacking. The things I used to do were impossible. "For instance, I used to shoot in a right hand body punch, a sort of short range blow that never used to fail me. But when I tried it to-day the snap was not there and it was only a love tap. "Six years ago the result would have been different, but now—well I guess the public will let me alone

By the Referee. Reno, July 4.-The following state nent is by Tex Rickard: "Johnson is the most wonderful fighter that ever pulled on a glove won as he pleased from Jeffries and never was in danger. I could not help but feel sorry for the big white man as he fell at the champion's blows. It was the most piti-able sight I ever saw. As a matter of fact I thought away down in my heart that Jeffries would be the win ner of the fight."

By the Time-Keeper.

Reno. July 4.-By George Hartling, official time-keeper:
"Time was called at 2.45. Johnson entered the ring at 2.26 and Jeffries entered four minutes later. The fight lasted 15 rounds. The time for the last round was 2.27. The fight was stopped at 3.41.

"In the 15th round there was three knock-downs. The first two of these were each of nine seconds duration. The last one was eight seconds. Then Jeffries seconds rushed in and the referee gave the decision to Johnson. There is no doubt that independent of this action Jeffries would have been counted out."

By Jack Johnson. Reno, July 4.—"I won from Mr. Jeffries because I outclassed him in every department of the fighting game. Before I entered the ring I was certain I would be the victor. In never changed my mind at any time "Jeffries' blows had no steam behind them. So how could be hope to defeat me. With the exception of a slight cut on my lower lip, which was really caused by an old wound being struck, I Am unmarked. I heard people at the ringside remark about body blows being inflicted upon me. I don't recall a single punch on the body that caused me any discom-fort. I am in shape to battle again to-morrow, if it were necessary.
"One thing I must give Jeffries credit for is the game battle he made.

He came back at me with the heart of a true fighter. No man can say he did not do his best.
"I believe we both fought fairly There was nothing between us which

him. I told him I knew he was a bear, but I was a guorilla, and would defeat him. "For the next few weeks I shall play in vaudeville. Then I shall go to my home in Chicago to rest. They broke away and Johnson sent a stiff left uppercut to the face and right to the body. kept Jeff bobbing his head to escape a right uppercut whenever they came together in a clinch. Jack sent two uppercuts to the face and Jeff appeared to be tired. He shoved Jeff about with his head on his shoulders and Jack hooked a left to the nose, drawing blood. Jeff appeared slow com-pared with Johnson. Just before the call of time Jeff sent a left and right to the body, but Jack was going away and was not hurt. Johnson's round ROUND TWELVE-Jeffries walked orward waiting for a chance to get inside the negro's defence. Jack simply waited, and then drew back and hooked a left to the face. Thought you said you were going to have me wild," said Johnson Corbett. Jeffries forced his way to close quarters, but got a left on the sore nose. He spat out a mass of blood. Jeffries looked fresh. ROUND THIRTEEN—Putting his ight glove before his face Jeffries valked into a clinch without a blow.

When they broke Johnson sent a left to the body and a right uppercut to the chin. "Stick there, Jim!" shoutd Corbett. Jeffries stuck immeditely, but he was forced away. Then e took two lefts and a right upper ut to the face. Holding him right n the shoulder, Johnson sent bedy. As they broke Jack tried an uppercut. He missed, but stung Jeff's face with his left. Jeffries stepped in with left to Johnson's head and the crowd cheered. The gong found them in a clinch. Jeffries took three straights to the face and got in a left to the Johnson before they could get within six inches of his face. "How do you leel, Jim?" "How you like 'em?" Jeffries was sober and made no response. He took three more lefts.

THE FINAL ROUND. ROUND FIFTEEN-When the mer faced each other, it was plain to all that Jeffries was in distress. His face was puffed and bleeding from he punishing blows he had received, and his movements were languid. He stumbled after the elusive negro-sometimes crouching low with his left hand stuck out in front of him, and sometimes standing erect. Stooping or erect, he was a mark for Johnson's accurate blows. The negro simply waited for the big white man to come on and chopped is face. They came to a clinch after a feeble attempt by Jeffries to land left on the body, and as they broke away Johnson shot his left and right the jaw in a flash Jeffries staggered back against the ropes. His defensive power seemed to desert him in an instant, HIS FIRST KNOCK DOWN. Johnson dashed at him like a tiger rain of lefts and rights delivered close quarters sent Jeffries reeling blindly. Another series of short, snappy punches and the giant went down, for the first time in his ring career. He fell under the top rope over the lower one, and upon the over-hang of the platform.
