What "Aus- tralasia" Means.

The following letter, just received from the Auckland Chamber of Commerce, gives the incorrect use of the term "Australasia."

The attention of this chamber has been directed to the unsatisfactory position resulting from the indiscriminate use of the term "Australasia" in connection with business matters. It is stated that overseas exporting houses, in placing agencies with Australian firms, frequently use the term "Australasia" when only the Commonwealth of Australia is intended. Individual cases were quoted where, on New Zealand firms applying for agencies, it was found that their appointment was barred through "Australasia" being used in the agreement with some Australian firm, although the latter had no connection whatever with New Zealand and no intention of working it. In some instances the New Zealand appointment had actually been made before the hitch resulting from the agreement was discovered.

You will recognize that this is detrimental both to New Zealand business and to the overseas exporter, who in many cases is practically blocked from obtaining a connection in the Dominion. The chamber is of opinion that you may think the matter of sufficient importance to bring it to the notice of American manufacturers. "Australasia" is understood to cover Australia and New Zealand, the two countries are quite distinct and it is not in the interests of either that the control of agencies covering both territories should be placed with a firm doing business only in one—Commerce Reports.

Yellow Streak.

(From the Boston Herald.)
The German "white offensive" is now in full swing. Day by day the great wireless station at Nauen sends out its appeals for leniency, for a modification of the armistice terms, or for haste in relieving the wants of the German people. German agents in neutral countries and German sympathizers everywhere are protesting loudly that the Allies must not crush this nation whose running amuck cost the world so many million lives. The campaign for leniency is being carried on with all the ingenuity and brazenness which marked the course of German propaganda in this country before we entered the war. With nations as with men the British temperament is usually tinged with a yellow streak. Germany, during the last two or three weeks, has demonstrated that maxim to the world. It is characteristic that a nation which starved Belgium, Serbia and Poland should now set up a wall because it is own people have to go on short rations. It is characteristic that a navy which torpedoed hospital ships and shelled lifeboats should now surrender its capital vessels without firing a shot. The Spaniards at Santiago were willing to put up a fight, such as it was. And the Russians, in the sea of Japan, were not afraid to face certain defeat with their barnacle ships. It has remained for the Teuton to show the world how men can take humiliation in unmeasured quantity rather than risk a fight upon unequal terms. The German Government has been warning the Allies that Bolshevism cannot be restrained in the fatherland unless the armistice terms are made more lenient. Let it be replied that the spread of anarchy in Russia did not induce the Hohenzollern empire to relax the rigorous terms imposed at Brest-Litovsk. If the returning German soldiers insist upon finding scapegoats among the militarists of their own land, why should the Allies interfere? The men who have most to fear from a Bolshevik outburst in Germany are the ones who were responsible for the war. There is no reason why France, England or America should now intervene in their behalf?

"Monstrtius!"

German Press on Armistice Terms. Copenhagen, Nov. 30.—The Deutsche Tageszeitung, commenting on the provisions of the armistice, says:—"The Government must recognize that these armistice terms are modelled on those dictated by Rome to Carthage, and seem to foreshadow a peace of violence. The German people must now ask their government for a clear statement of the measures which they propose to take to meet this terrible catastrophe."

The Vorwärts says:—"These terms are indeed heavy, but after the downfall of the old system there is no alternative for the new Government but to accept them."

The Tagliche Rundschau describes the terms as "monstrous" and adds:—"The Entente's diabolical plan with regard to the continuation of the blockade will result in famine and a perpetuation of the revolution."

The Berliner Tageblatt says:—"The terms of the armistice are unprecedented in their inhumanity. We are ready to deliver up fortresses and give up ships, but in addition a great part of our railway material, which is absolutely necessary for our support, is demanded. With these terms, to support a crisis is bearing."—Reuter.

"OLD AND RELIABLE," Sends Forth Its Forty-Third Xmas Announcement to the People of Newfoundland!

Although some changes have been made in our business during this long period, we still lay claim to the fact that, LIKE OUR BRAVE AND HONOURED REGIMENT, our Lines are "BETTER THAN THE BEST." Xmas Shopping, at any time, is both FATIGUING AND UNSATISFACTORY. Let us demonstrate to you this Season with what ease and promptitude you can Shop for Men at Our Store.

BEING SPECIALISTS, it is our business to know what Men require in Dress Accessories, our whole time being devoted to studying their every whim, and, invariably, the verdict of our Patrons is: "I LEAVE IT TO YOU, AS YOU ALWAYS KNOW WHAT I WANT."

Our Buyer visited the Markets earlier than usual this year, consequently our large and exclusive selection of Xmas Novelties for Men EXCELS IN VARIETY, BEAUTY, QUALITY AND VALUE any previous effort of ours. To the few who will be unable to reach this BRIGHT AND BUSY STORE during the next three weeks, we give the following helpful hints:—

Perhaps he is short of Collars. We have all the new shapes in every size. What more acceptable than a dozen Collars; or if you wish to add an all-leather Collar Box, we have them as well. Price 25c.

FANCY WOOL VESTS.

A Jaeger Fancy Wool Vest is a very acceptable gift in this climate of ours, as unlike the sweater coat, it can be worn at all times, and one does not have to change it, thereby running the risk of catching cold. All sizes in stock from 38 to 44. Price $10.00.

Talking about Fur Caps, we have a dozen or so extra specials in Hudson Seal. Why not give him one of these? He would surely appreciate it, as he would keep it for years.
