The Shrine.

A very simple Shrine, consisting of a pyramid surmounted by a cross, will be erected in the centre of the lower portion of the Park and enclosed by a ring, within which accommodation will be provided for the sick and wounded, the wreath-bearers and the firing party. The outside of the ring is reserved as follows: The eastern portion for His Excellency the Governor and party and holders of Red Tickets; the southern for school children, who will number some four or five thousand; the western for next-of-kin who hold white tickets; the northern for troops, war veterans, nurses, etc., and Brigades.

Wreath-bearers.

On arrival in the Park, will those ladies and gentlemen who have been asked to bring wreaths kindly report to Capt. C. B. Dicks for instruction. Owing to the lack of space and time the general public are requested not to place their floral tributes on the monument until after the ceremony is over.

The Colours.

Lady Harris and Miss Harris have graciously consented to place wreaths on the Colours, which will then be escorted to Bannerman Park. Citizens are asked to remember what the Colours represent, and to pay them all the honor and respect which are due them.

Entrances.

All who attend the ceremony in the Park will please make use of the various gates as detailed below, and so avoid confusion.

10 a.m.—The two lower gates on Rennie's Mill Road will be opened for the school children.

10.30 a.m.—The large centre gate on Bannerman Road will be used by Hospital patients.

11 a.m.—(a) The next-of-kin (holders of white tickets), enter by the gate opposite Lady Whiteway's House on Rennie's Mill Road. (b) The holders of red tickets enter by the small gate on Bannerman Road, in rear of Colonial Building.

11.15 a.m.—Troops, War Veterans, Brigades, Nurses, V.A.D.'s, move into the Park by main gate on Bannerman Road.

11.45 a.m.—The two gates on Circular Road are thrown open to the general public.

11.50—His Excellency the Governor and party arrive at the main gate on Bannerman Road.

Sign posts will be placed at each gate and in the various enclosures.

N.B.—Is it too much to ask all those who daily seek pleasure in the Park, to show respect for their glorious dead, by leaving the Shrine and the tributes untouched?

A. E. BERNARD, Lt-Col., Royal Nfld. Regiment, 27th June, 1919.

Wedding Bells.

HALLERN-SHAW.

A pretty wedding took place Sunday evening at the R. C. Cathedral, when ex-Private Bernard Shaw of the Royal Newfoundland Regiment, Little Hearts Base, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Katie Hallern of St. Vincent's, daughter of Frances and Mary Hallern. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Greeng. The bride was charmingly attired in white silk with hat to match. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Florence Hallern, who was neatly attired in pink Georgette crepe and black picture hat. The groom was ably supported by Mr. Fred Newton, brother-in-law of the groom. After the ceremony the wedding party drove to the home of the bride's brother, 15 Barter's Hill, where a reception was held and a very enjoyable evening was spent. The bride was the recipient of many useful and valuable presents. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Shaw a bon voyage over the matrimonial sea.

Salvage Speaks.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir:—Quite recently a letter appeared in the Advocate from Salvage written by one who is clerk in the Union Store there. Of course this young man, who is only about 18 or 19 years of age, must be some business man and moreover some authority politically, or otherwise, and no doubt has large ideas, which have been handed down to him by his master Coaker. This young chap Peters, from Melrose, in his child like letter takes upon himself to speak for the intelligent people of Salvage and Salvage Bay, when he comes out in the Advocate—and mind you over his own signature too, and tells that Mr. Morine has no chance there. Well, well, to be sure, what may we expect next? Coaker is foolish enough God only knows but some of his poorly paid little clerks should take thought for to-morrow as to how they should live, and demand something more than barely enough to pay their board. Did you ever work for Coaker, boys? Well if you didn't, you should ought to. I never did, neither do I want to, but taking you into my confidence for a few minutes, I will tell you that I have heard that Coaker is continually writing all kinds of abuse about everyone else and everything good about himself, and when he can't write or shout praises enough about his great self, he gets after his clerks to help him out, and if the poorly paid fellows don't do this they are threatened with dismissal. The slavery of old is nothing compared to what it would be under the Coaker rule. Come on Mr. Morine and your two men. You, Morine, have fought for us before and we shall need you worse now than ever before.

Yours truly,

A UNION MAN.
Salvage, B.B., June 21st, 1919.
