

Whitbourne Notes.

New Year's Day 1923 was remarkable here, bright sunshine, and a few flakes above to cheer us. A happy day for the year ahead we trust. The singing of church bells and ringing of bells announced the birth of another year. The S.A. with its band paraded through some of the streets at midnight, as their custom is. On New Year's Day the Holy Eucharist was celebrated in St. John Baptist Church at 10 a.m. After the usual parade round the settlement the Loyal Orange Association, and the Divine Service in the same church. The Incumbent was assisted by the Rev. A. B. Stirling, Rector of St. Mary's Parish, Southside. St. John's Mr. Stirling preached a stirring sermon on the 30th verse (Ch. 1) of the Hebrews: "By faith the men of Jericho fell down after they were compassed seven days," and exhorted all to faith and good works, in an uncertain manner. Eighteen years ago Mr. Stirling was in charge of this parish and renewed acquaintance with many old friends, as well as making new ones. Later on in the evening the clergyman gave a short address to the brethren of the L.O.A. in their Lodge, after which a social evening was spent, ending up with a game and refreshments.

Mr. Eliot Noseworthy passed quietly away on the 2nd inst. and was laid to rest in the Anglican Cemetery on the 4th. Her demise was not unexpected, but her death was a great loss to the family. She was a native of Harbor Grace, and a daughter of the late Mr. Eliot Noseworthy. She was 78 years of age. The funeral took place on the 4th inst. at 10 a.m. from the Anglican Church. The late Mr. Eliot Noseworthy died in June past, his wife surviving him by a few months.

Gordon Sparkes, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Sparkes, left Whitbourne on the 28th December on the west bound express for Gambo, en route to Indian Bay, where his work on the survey camp now takes him. He is the regret of his family and friends. The Anglican Church here will miss his services as Organist, and his grateful and generous rendered his services necessary.

Five days before Christmas (Dec. 27) the C.E.W.A. held a tea and Christmas Tree in the C. E. School. The affair was a success, and the school building has had considerable repairs done of late months, and is much improved in appearance.

Miss B. Gillespie, R. C. Teacher, left school on Monday, 8th inst. The school building has had considerable repairs done of late months, and is much improved in appearance.

Miss M. Morgan, C. E. Teacher, who spent her Christmas vacation at her home, Clarke's Beach, returned here on the 8th, opening school the following day.

We should like to express our sincere regret at the serious accident which befell Baggage-master, Mr. George Polley of the Reid Nfld. Co. while pursuing his work on the line. Mr. Polley's many friends here deeply sympathize with him. May grace and patience be vouchsafed him in this must be a severe trial, and may complete restoration to health follow the Hospital treatment.

A happy and prosperous New Year to the Editor and his staff and to the readers of the Evening Telegram. Many thanks. Same to you—Editor.)

Lesley Young Men's Literary Class.

MAKE PRESENTATION. On Tuesday evening last, Wesley Young Men's Class held a social on behalf of Mr. Fred Gushue, who will shortly leave for Newfoundland. Mr. George Gushue acted as chairman for the evening, and after the programme had been gone through, the remainder of the evening was devoted to games.

A special feature of the evening was the presentation by the Pastor, Rev. J. J. Joyce, of a purse of gold made up of the members of the Class to Mr. Gushue to show that they appreciated his kind efforts, hard work and valuable service he has given to the class, and to wish him every success in the future. Mr. Gushue, who has been training in the Literary Class, was able to suitably express his thanks, said that he appreciated the address presented with the purse, and that the gift itself was a pleasure to receive. The sincere and whole-hearted feelings of the class were expressed in the presentation. The evening was brought to a close with the singing of "Auld Syne."

On Wednesday evening Mr. Gushue was given a surprise party at his home by a number of his friends, when an address and presentation was made by Mr. William Gushue, on behalf of those present, wishing him abundance of success in his new home. Fred, in reply, said he appreciated highly the kind wishes and action, and that during coming years, they would be a source of happiness and pride to him. The evening games were finished in a very enjoyable time by all—Com.

Interest Never Wanes at--BAIRD'S

Witness the Following Values outlined for

FRIDAY, SATURDAY & MONDAY

The Store's first big event for the year 1923. The extent of the savings to be obtained are clearly emphasized by the lowness of prices prevailing. The merchandise involved is not specially bought goods for the occasion, but our own quality goods gathered from the four corners of the store, and reduced, to be in keeping with our unalterable policy of clearing away incomplete lines and assortments before getting into our stride for a full year's business. Now is the time to supply the family needs easily, economically and well.

Puffs of jade taffeta trim a child's smart little frock of black taffeta. Green embroidery emphasizes the bolero feature of a street frock of white broadcloth for southern wear. A light shade of reddish purple is used to embroider a one-piece frock of pearl grey rep. A tiny square of printed chiffon is the daintiest and quite the smartest handkerchief for evening. Narrow ruchings, pleatings and pipings of ribbon in contrasting color are used on blouses for spring.
