Declares Many Statements Concerning Timber Probe To Be Untrue.

Toronto, April 25.—At the resumption of the sittings of the Riddell-Latchford imber inquiry commission in Osgoode Hall here today, Mr. Justice W. R. Ridell made a statement as to the legislation that had been passed to enable the commission to resume. He also dealt with some statements made in the press. but did not mention the name of any newspaper in connection therewith. Justice Riddell said it had been stated Smith that Crawford ...... 146 246 204- 596 "in at least one public journal" that the timber commission had settled the Joseph Hourigan matter. The commission, he said, had taken certain evi-dence with reference to the Hourigan ompany, but had had no part in the settlement, directly or indirectly. and were not concerned as to the terms of Statement Untrue. "It has also been stated over and over again, untruthfully, and in some cases apparently with a knowledge of its untruth," said Justice Riddell, "that we have laid down 50 to 55 per cent as the proper amount of overrun on the Doyle rule. That statement is untrue without the slightest shade of foundation for it and it ought not to be re peated, and will not be repeated by an honest man.

Justice Riddell explained that in one particular case the commission had con-ceived the percentage named to be a reasonable amount to allow for overrun and that a settlement had been ar ranged on that basis, as desired by all parties concerned. The amount applied however, only to this specific instance he pointed out, and so far no general finding had been made and the commission might never be called upon make one.

A Vicious Principle Only one witness was heard today Albert Grigg, deputy minister of lands and forests, who stated that leniency had been shown to pulp companies in paying of dues, as a consequence of which very often large sums were al-lowed to go in arrears. Interest was charged on these, however, at the rate

Hood's Sarsaparilla combines the roots, barks, herbs, berries and other medicinals that have been found in many years of intelligent observation to be most effective in the treatment of these ailments. Successful physicians prescribe the same ingredients for diseases of the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys, and in cases where alterative and tonic effects are needed. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the spring medicine that purifies, enriches and revitalizes your blood, increasing power of resistance to disease. For a laxative take Hood's Pills.
