An outstanding feature of the election day was the ousting of the Forest council. There has been a conflict in the Lambton town for many months over the waterworks many months over the waterworks question. Last year it required three elections to get the council of complete. This year the council of last year was turned out of office. The waterworks plant is now under construction.

At Goderich the electors carried by a small majority a bylaw providing for a new town hall.

In many constituencies the election was limited to only a part of the council. In several instances reeves and deputles were elected by acclamation.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a Dependable Help to Mothers

Port Greville, N. S .- "I took your medicase for a terrible pain in my side and for weakness and headaches. I seemed to bloat all over, too, and my feet and hands were the worst. I am the mother of four children and I am nursing my baby—the first one of four I could nurse. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound be-fore the baby's birth, so you can see how much it helped me. I cannot praise it too highly for what it has done for me. I took all kinds of med-icine, but the Vegetable Compound is the only one that has helped me for any length of time. I recommend it to any one with troubles like mine and you may use my letter for a testi-monial."—Mrs. ROBERT MCCULLEY, Port Greville, Nova Scotia.

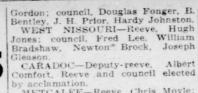

Before and after childbirth the mother will find Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a blessing.

TRURAL COMEDY IS BROUGHT BACK

"The Love Test" Is Presented by Majestic Theatre Players.

The once familiar rural comedy-drama of the old apple tree, the mort-gaged homestead and the village "constabule" has been resurrected. The new edition has been labelled "The Love Test." It is being presented by the Majestic Players at the Majestic theatre this week.

J. P. J. dge, who is responsible for the book, has omitted nothing of that material which twenty years ago went into the making of overdone barnyard plays. It looks as though the author had taken all the old favorites and rolled them into one, and for good The once familiar rural comedy author had taken all the old favorites and rolled them into one, and for good measure tossed in some present day American slang to bring it up to date. Thus we say the "New Edition."

"The Love Test" is "East Lynne," plus "The Old Homestead." plus "Way Down East." The author has contrived to give equal deases of senti-"Way Down East." The author has contrived to give equal doses of sentiment and humor. The thing is so in the offing ready to clown for a moment.

But "The Love Test" is not all fun in the village inn, nor is it all dirty work at the cross roads. The characters are a friendly lot. Osculatory treats are passed around as freely as apples at the old time Halloween party. It is at its best, however, when it rises on the crest of popular humor; at its worst when it wallows in the dismal troughs of trashy sentiment. It is light and gay in the frivolous upper reaches. It is heavy when it flounders in the serious spasms.
