

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

<text><text><text><text><text> much better than of a year or two would be the Dominion it might po gain. To us it would rious, possibly an irrepart There appears to be a feeling quarters that the willingness, of Canada to receive British now is attributable to shee? gradizement. A hitle refled show the absurdity of such tion. That Batish Columb the great scheme of empire tionable. But that in order British Columbia as all Ca secure it now, few persons willing to assert. The des mediate arguistion must be for chiefly upon the grounds for chiefly upon the grounds rial policy and a willingness this colony in the way of welld ing. Those who at Canada of a desire to adm Columbia now from selden a motives are, it is to be feared measuring other people's co own bushel. At any rate, to arsert that such persons a a rule the most patriotic in t nity. It has long been know Dominion Government has Dom nion Government Tas stesmer Emms will. ing for the East Coast and Bu Tan etrametio, Californie,

The Weekly British Col Wednesday March 16. 187 Going into Committee,

The Legislative Council go Committee of the Whole to-m upon the Confederation Resol Now that the three or four m who appear to have conceived i a sort of penal duty to offer op to the measure in its initial stag gracefully and, we thick, wisely their adhesion, or, as it is mor mon y expressed now-a-days, the situation, it is fondly hoped will unite in Committee for pose of making the conditious a ficial and favorable to this col may be compatible with accepta Canada. It would be as un wise pose terms so high as to prec possibility of their acceptance a wa as to propose terms unjur After all the harsh things h Canada by men whose prejuc upon their ignorance of the they affect to despise, all section House appear to have, in a able degree, been brought to that negotiations will be carried a Government entitled both to and confidence. The three d bate has not been without its g While it has enabled most of have hitherto been conscientio nosed to Confederation an opp of seeing the error of their way at the same time, afforded a class of opponents an oppor relieve themselves of their ver thus establish a better under and a more bealthy feeling and a more heatiny reening parties. It has, in fact, cleared for dealing with the practi-of the subject in a more rati effective manuer than might o have been the case. Now talking has been done, and do itably and to good purpose, work has been reached and the stances would appear to be mo pitious. The assurance give Carrall during the debate, was no desire on the part of proposing conditions that an nents or additions which proposed in Committee won very consideration at the han Government, was received plause; and however excellent ecutive terms may be as far a we are still disposed to regard in some degree incomplete. I with a Government like that a where the interests of both pi so thoroughly identical it w that some slight omissions made rather than that the reasonable and impracticab tions which might delay the even another year. It shou forgotten that Canada can affor