A BUSY WHARF.
The government wharf is a busy place just now. There are three large ocean steamers, a barquentine and a large three masted schooner loading lumber there.

BIG GAME SEASON.
The big game season opened Monday morning and the Vendor of license, Mr. Wm. Gremley has been very busy, a large number of sportsmen are now in the woods. Readers are reminded that it is contrary to the law to shoot partridge this year.

SUDDEN DEATHS.
The death of Mr. James Woods, aged 77 years, a much respected resident of Campbellton took place at his home here at an early hour Wednesday morning. Tuesday he was about his work as usual and retired early but expired as above stated. He is survived by a widow and one son James.

A TORPEDGED STEAMER.
There is now loading at the government wharf the steamer "Tewkesbury" which in 1916 was torpedoed and sunk. She remained under water two years and when salvaged was found to have been broken in two. She was raised, each part separately, and repaired, some sixteen feet having been added to her length.

Come to "The Fair" and see what other women can do.

NINE HOUR DAY.
Practically all the mills in the Restigouche adopted the nine hour day on Monday. It was not necessary to form a union or strike, all that was necessary was for the men to ask the employers, when the change was made. The change was made and the men have given a slight increase per thousand.

FOR "THE FAIR" IN AID OF THE SOLDIERS' MEM. HOSP.
Will all those who have gardens kindly contribute roots of hardy plants, such as peony roses, phlox, painted daisies, meadow-sweet, oriental poppies, narcissus, etc. Also young growth of rose bushes, syringas, lilacs, honey-suckle, etc. Label each with name and color, if possible and send to the Rink in good time for "The Fair," in care of the Sales Committee.

MR. AND MRS. PUBLIC.
MEET CYCLONE SMITH

Eddie Polo, star of the recent Serial, "The Lure of the Circus," Assumes a New Character in an Adventure Series of Ten Two-Reel Western Dramas Which Will Start at the Opera House Next Monday and Tuesday.

EDDIE POLO, the great serial star, is to assume a new character in the interim between "The Lure of the Circus" and the starting of his new serial. Thousands remember Polo as Ed Cody in "The Bull's Eye," and it is not too much to say that ten million know him as Eddie Somers in "The Lure of the Circus."

We take pleasure now in introducing Eddie Polo as "Cyclone Smith," cowboy extraordinary, dead shot, daredevil rider, expert roper, the unchallenged leader of his community, strong for the right and uncompromising in his enmity toward lawlessness and oppression. Such is the general character of the new role which Eddie will play in this series of ten two-reel pictures. This description has been made general enough to fit all of the stories in the series, for there is absolutely no connection between any of them. Each story is built about the character, but no spectator will have to see any one picture to appreciate the story or the character of "Cyclone Smith" in any of the others. The only connection will be the central "Cyclone Smith," and the fact that the entire ten constitute a series.

THE BAND STAND.
The treasurer of the band stand fund, Mr. A. D. MacKendrick hopes to have a full statement of the cost of the band stand and subscriptions collected for publication in our next issue. The total cost of the band stand will only be about $260.00 not $400.00 as stated last week.

SUCCESSFUL HUNTERS.
Messrs. Dave Ferguson, Dugald Mylne and Isaac Farrer, returned from a very successful hunting trip, being accompanied by Mr. H. R. Hoyt, Jr., of New York and Thos. Bennett of Boston. They were fortunate in securing two large moose and three deer.

NEWSPAPER HISTORY.
The Toronto Times, which continued the venture of the Toronto News, begun in 1851, has gone out of existence. The paper had its good features and made a hard struggle for existence. Toronto also is a big city and growing bigger year by year. The expense of producing a good daily newspaper grows faster than the field. Only the fittest can survive and show a profit. There are few cities which in the last dozen years have not had evidence of this in the collapse of newspapers of standing and strength.

TO EXPELL ALL FOREIGNERS.

The customer rapped on the counter, coughed loudly and did all the things customers usually do to signify their impatience.
The shopkeeper eyed her coldly.
"I want a mouse-trap," she said sharply. "Quite a cheap one. And please be quick, because I want to catch a train."
"I regret madam," said the shopkeeper, "but I am sorry to hear that you are not guaranteed to catch trains."

VICTORY!
Our Photo Tops with the motif, floral and lodge designs and buckles have realized in sales $168.73, up to Sept. 12. Much thanks to our Bay Chaleur friends. All are well pleased with photo tops, etc., only one small fault found by some people and that is the 3 per cent. of these sales going towards our Soldiers' Memorial Hospital. The Government of Northwest Russia is endeavoring to have this measure postponed.

Please don't be selfish, live and let live, so come on with your orders as every little bit helps towards The Soldiers' Memorial Hospital.
