REAL ESTATE — ANOTHER big mistake is quoting fancy prices—often one-fourth more than will be taken for the property. We sold a terrace of 10 houses on Isabellarires without the abatement of a dollar from the price first asked. We offered a property for $75,000 and sold it without the reduction of a cent. The 9-roomed houses at $2000 on Charles-street will not be sold any less. A builder has closed for one already. R. J. GRIFFITH & CO., 16 King street east.

MONDAY, Aug. 19. "The Queen City of the Lakes" has invited all Canada to her second annual International Fair, and a queenly reception will be given to all comers. Queen's weather may be expected and a good time generally.

Buffalo is a good city to visit, and has much that is worth seeing besides the special interest--- "The International Fair."

Within an arrow's flight of our shores southward the grand, new and perfectly fire-proof hotel, "THE IRO-Quois." prominently attracts attention and is worthy the high praise awarded it.

About the same distance northward is "The Tifft cellence of its table and the geniality of "mine host." Our stores stand on the site of the famous old American Hotel, burnt down in 1865, and from that circumstance now known as The American Block. Our stock, when you visit us in first or second week of Septembers will consist of Dry Goods, Carpets, Upholstery, Draper ies, Books, etc., etc., worth more than a million dollars. Beautiful goods to look at and cheap enough if you wish to buy.

"SECOND TO NONE" is our notto, and if you know where we found it, and the proud gallantry of its meaning, you know the sort of men you have to deal with. Come and see us.
