RAILWAY SUITS IN APPEAL COURT.

The Grand Trunk Company Takes Exception To the Findings of a Couple of Juries.

The Common Pleas Divisional Court yesterday heard an appeal by the Grand Trunk Railway Company from the verdict and judgment of Mr. Justice MacMahon and a jury in the case of Weagér v. G.T.R. The plaintiff had his hand injured while coupling cars in the Toronto yard and sued for damages. He recovered a verdict of $1000.

Before the same court the Grand Trunk Company appealed from the judgment in favor of the plaintiff in the action brought by Donald Milloy of Brant Township against the company for the loss of 54 barrels of apples, delivered at Paris for shipment in October, 1891. Before the apples were removed from the freight sheds and loaded on cars the sheds were burnt and also the apples. Mr. Justice MacMahon tried the action at Toronto.

A PLEA FOR GAYER COATS.

How Torontonians Failed To Follow the Fashion Set By Mr. Hutchison.

Editor New York Sun: I am pleased to notice your valuable remarks recently upon the "Garb of Men," and have long entertained the opinion that some reform was needed to replace the dismal churchyard black cloth, hats, etc., used by men, all of which may be best material and shapely, but wanting altogether in pleasant lively colors used by the fair sex.

Two years ago I determined to try and set an example in Canada to see if the public would "catch on" and adopt same, and although a modest attempt, still I am not ashamed to allude to it. I got a lady to buy me enough nice small pattern lively-colored Scotch plaid and I had a waistcoat made and wore it a year, then threw it aside because my venture did not "catch on" so far. In Toronto I was the only man dressed in such a nice waistcoat.

Will any New Yorker kindly adopt my tartan waistcoat style to begin the reform, as Torontonians prefer the old dismal garb used in dark ages down to now?

J. C. HUTCHISON.

Toronto, Feb. 3, 1893.

Prevention Better Than Cure.

Editor World: The Globe publishes a long article contending that a grave error is committed by those who would visit upon political unionists—only not call them annexationists?—any social penalty for professing the faith that is in them.

Society to-day is composed of people bound together by recognized bonds of mutual safety and convenience; but every now and then Human Nature breaks these bonds, asserts its primitive force and acts on the impulse of human passion. All considerations for artificial law and order go overboard. A riot swells to a revolution, and what was begun in emotional enthusiasm and continued in blood and rapine is completed in sober earnest. Some day it will be shown that there is enough of the old British spirit left in this city to assert the principles of Human Nature against the artificial protection under which traitors and conspirators take leave to plot against our Sovereign Lady the Queen, and the integrity of Her Empire. Mr. Van Horne, in the pleasing vernacular of the Far West, has said that if Mr. Goldwin Smith doesn't take care somebody some day "will step on him." My own opinion is that if the tolerance now extended to traitors and conspirators be much further prolonged, you will see an armed body of men making for the top of John-street, sacking the Grange and destroying that splendid library which has made its master mad with too much learning. Better to show people that society resents the ways of the traitor. Society comes first and laws follow. And whereas it may not always be expedient for law to compel, the preliminary frown of society is a recognized agency in prevention. Therefore the expulsion of Mr. Goldwin Smith from St. George's Society is, I think, a wise precautionary measure, and if he is not to be tabooed elsewhere, then is the day of revolution not far hence. Begin at the top. If Mr. Smith (the name is handy) goes to Ottawa, the recognized head centre of a movement, not for Home Rule, but for the actual separation of Canada from Her Majesty's realm, is the Governor-General to set the seal of personal approval upon his guest by asking him to dinner? Shall the Lieutenant-Governor, the Governor-General's representative here, insult his other guests, loyal to the traditions under which this province has been created, by placing Mr. Smith between two of them, or at his own right hand? Impossible; and so on down the grade. The disapproval of Mr. Smith, the Mr. Smith or a Mr. Smith should be shown by social ostracism. It is in the family, they say, that all general good must have its origin. Then let Canada's attitude toward annexation be taught, and therefore illustrated, at home. If Mr. Smith cannot deny himself an indulgence which society has ever declared to be a pre-eminent breach of the bonds holding it together, he should pay the natural penalty. Barbarians and wild Indians sacrifice the traitor. Should civilization tolerate him, and if so, why? Let avowed annexationists feel "the cut direct," which they will do if the example be set in high places, and a peaceful barrier is raised against the plot to swamp Canada and its glorious history in the sea of troubles to the south of us. If not peaceful, the opposition will be forceful, and very quiet unobtrusive individuals will be seen in the front of the demonstration. Touch ever so quiet a man's form of religion he resents it, and the most awful deeds are done by religious fanatics. Mr. Smith's knowledge of history will tell him a hundred cases where patriotism has kindled even a fiercer blaze, and directly people agree that forbearance has ceased to be a virtue. Mr. Smith will have a chance to pose as a martyr. This particular Smith would profess indifference to all pains and penalties—he is nothing if not a professor; but he has so long been the autocrat of Toronto dinner tables that his exclusion from them would, I think, entail on him some feeling of loss. As a wise and precautionary measure—in keeping with that tolerance of the times which precludes an early appeal to law—I say it is the duty of loyal Canadians to ostracize the betrayers of their country in every way within their power.

Drill the Militia.

Mr. Charles Durand has addressed an open letter to the Minister of Militia, in which, after reciting the many "wanton and wicked" acts against Canada of which the United States has been guilty, calls upon Mr. Patterson to arm and drill a large force of militia in this country to be "ready for emergencies."

Struck By a Trolley Car.

A lad named Lavens Cathers, residing at 32 Springhurst-street, attempted to board a Yonge-street motor car yesterday afternoon near Gerrard-street while it was in motion. He was thrown to the ground and received a cut in the head about 1½ inches in length. He was taken into E. H. Goodman's drug store, where Dr. G. Chambers dressed his cut and he was sent to his home.

The Sanitary Inspectors.

"Plumber" writes complaining that owing to vexatious and unnecessary delays, for which the inspectors are responsible, plumbers are put to loss and inconvenience.

TAKE WARNING!

GERM-LADEN WATER, INCLEMENT WEATHER, IS A SPLENDID COMBINATION TO PRODUCE DISEASE.

Many mineral and other waters are extensively advertised now as an antidote, but we can assure you that they misrepresent facts when they proclaim their ability to

DESTROY GERMS OF DISEASE WITH THEM.

THERE IS ONE, AND ONLY ONE, REMEDY FOR THIS,

Which, with almost seven years' experience throughout civilized communities, has ever been able to destroy the seeds and germs of disease when once they enter the human system without fail, and can bear a daylight investigation as to the truth of this claim.

YOU HAVE HEARD THE NAME BEFORE!

RADAM'S MICROBE KILLER!

Now is the time to use this remedy freely, if sick, sparingly, but regularly, if you want to keep well.

CHOLERA WILL BE HERE WITHOUT FAIL.

Those who manage to keep a good healthy stomach and a perfect digestion need have no fears of this scourge.

BUT HOW MANY ARE SO FORTUNATE AS TO POSSESS THIS

Those who are not so favored will do well to at once discard the use of drugs and nostrums of all sorts and use "Nature's Remedy," "The Microbe Killer," to not only tone up their stomach and digestion, but also to purify and keep purified their Blood.

IF ANY MAN, NO MATTER WHAT HIS POSITION OR PROFESSION IN LIFE,

Tells you the use of this remedy may prove harmful to you, we say in plain English

THAT HE LIES! THE TRUTH IS NOT IN HIM.

All such prevaricators or their unsuspecting believers are invited for a conference, pro and con, at our headquarters.

"PROCRASTINATION is the THIEF OF TIME."

With the Public poisoning themselves with Toronto Bay Water, the "Grim Reaper" will have a rich harvest when milder weather sets in, and if Cholera gets to us here it will be terrible indeed. Fortify yourself with a Sure Anti-Septic,

TUESDAY EVENING, Feb. 7.

Matters were quite brisk on the local Stock Exchange to-day. Considerable business was transacted throughout the day. Western Assurance stock had the call among the morning investors, and the Canadian Northwest Land Company seemed to be preferred among the afternoon speculators. Western Assurance advanced from 170 to 172, and at the latter figure 180 shares changed hands. There were 578 shares of Canada Northwest Land Company sold for 88¼, when the price advanced until it closed at 90.

TIPS FROM WALL-STREET.

John J. Dixon & Co. received the following despatch over their private wire from Henry Allen & Co., New York, to-day:

In the stock market to-day there has been some show of nervousness, but not much of a pronounced movement either one way or the other. The defeat at Washington of plans for taking up and repealing the demoralizing silver law has occasioned new apprehensions in the minds of many people who are inclined to be nervous over the monetary situation. Money continues cheap, and is likely to remain so for some time to come so far as can be calculated from the flow in this direction of western and southern funds, but none the less we are confronted with the danger of getting at once upon a silver basis, for the amount of free gold now remaining in the country is exceedingly small, and important bankers intimate that more gold will be shipped on Saturday. The most conspicuous stocks are the cliqued industrials, which advanced only under stress of extraordinary manipulation. Much of the short interest in D.C.F. has been eliminated, and a new pool organized last week to try to put the stuff up is already disagreeing.

GOSSIP FROM CHICAGO.

John J. Dixon & Co. received the following despatch over their private wire from Schwartz, Dupee & McCormack to-day:

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—We think corn will sell lower. Oats—Receipts 156 cars, 75 estimated to-morrow. The contract stock in store increased 14,000 bushels. Oats will sell lower. Provisions dull and uninteresting, excepting lard, which was again higher, receiving active support from the bull party. Ribs were alternately firm and easy under a very moderate amount of business. Some short selling of pork by local operators, but in ribs the market is a long one and very susceptible to selling orders. The very small receipts of hogs are undoubtedly largely due to the sleet and ice, and some increase is looked for when the roads improve. The local feeling is undoubtedly growing bearish, but traders are disposed to keep close to shore.

R. Cochran received the following despatch from Kennett, Hopkins & Co. to-day:

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—Wheat—For some reason the market opened strong and higher, but long stuff began to come out. Cables were disappointing. The amount on passage showed large increase. These depressing features, added to the favorable Government report, made an obstacle against which the clique were powerless to contend. At 78½c the clique brokers tried to stop down current, but it was too strong. Stormy weather has cut off receipts from farmers for several weeks, and we look for still lower prices to-morrow.

Corn and oats weakened under large receipts and slack consumptive and export demand. There was a little squeezing in Liverpool spot corn at close of last month, which indicated considerable strength to those on this side, but this view was evidently misleading.

The Live Stock Market.

There was a brisk demand for all kinds of cattle at the Western Cattle Market to-day and the limited offerings were all taken early. Twenty-one loads of stuff came in, consisting of 237 sheep and lambs, 113 hogs and half a dozen calves. There was a good attendance of local dealers and several outside buyers were also on the market. Receipts for the week ending Saturday, Feb 4, were: 1182 cattle, 781 sheep and lambs and 711 hogs. Weigh fees $19.11.

CATTLE—Prices, while not quotably changed, were much firmer. The local demand was good. Montreal took half a dozen loads, and several small lots were picked up for other places. Extra choice butchers' cattle brought 4 to 4¼c per lb.; choice do 3¾c to 4c, and common to good loads 3¼c to 3½c per lb.; inferior cattle sold well at 2¾c to 3c per lb. The yards were cleaned up early. Here are a few of the chief sales:

21	butchers' cattle,	1050 lbs, at	$3.85	per cwt.
21	"	1120	39	" head.
20	"	1040	38	" "
1	load "	1100	3.85	" cwt.
1	" "	990	3.65	" "
15	" "	1000	3.25	" "
21	" "	850	28	" head.

Hogs—The market was unchanged and firm. Choice fat hogs sold at $6 90 to $7 per cwt., weighed off car; stores at $6.50 per cwt. and roughs at $5 75 to $6 per cwt. All were taken early in the day and more would have sold.

Sheep and Lambs—Easier, owing to the liberal offerings. Lambs sold at $3.50 to $5.25 per head and sheep at $4 to $5 75. Local demand fair.

A few calves and milch cows were offered and sold at unchanged prices. Good calves are in active demand.
