(Continued from first page.) It is unnecessary to describe the tournament in detail; suffice it to say that at 3

intermission between the sets. swered Tom disconsolately.

"Because you don't stand right," said his friend smiling. "Fall back to the base line of your court—that ball rises the further it travels: I lectured you one whole afternoon on that your point."

"Because you don't stand right," said his friend smiling. "French soldiers sent to conquer with pistols and hatchets, oh no; but English people—ladies and gentlemen—come to reside in this new town." With such a reside in this new town." With such a away, for the ball was returning with a quickness that found him unprepared, and alarmed that I took to running and I didn't their chairs.

"Was it possible Millionarie Lightwell could be beaten by a common village lad?"

hotel which I succeeded in finding after some delay. I didn't get up and arise till 7.30 a.m. next morning. At that date I peron very friendly terms with the young man, a few yards square with a brick house on it. This began to seem Rob Crusoe like, her with all the ardor of a boy.

million people on the grounds. The sea of Tilford in the meantime, looked on with When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria, surprise, then grief, as he saw his pupil's When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria, carelessness. At last he left his seat and When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria, just as Tom raised his racquet to begin the When she had Children, she gave them Castoria, tourth game, he heard his friend's voice at his elbow. He turned to the speaker like a flash, then his eyes fell and something rose in his

"Play," called the president; and Tom gripped his racquet with new determination of the fundamental control of the fundamental co gripped his racquet with new determination.

"What had he been doing?" he asked himself. Then he shut his teeth hard and all the old-time skill and vigor came rolling back with a rush.

How he played the remainder of the set is a matter of Fenmere history.

Lightwell could not place one ball beyond his reach.

James Fitzgerald, a plasterer, aged 50 years and a well known character about town, was walking along Bradford street, near St. Mary's Church, this evening, when he met a gang of laborers cutting down a tree. He didn't like the way they were doing their work, so he climbed the tree to show them how.

He cut off the limb he was sitting on and he now lies at the hospital with a broken back.

his reach.

If the city man played for the back court, Tom was there; if he tried the border lines, Tom was there: and when he sent the ball to the lower corners, it came back, for Tom was everywhere.

And so the game went on until the score stood "Five All," meaning that each won

Tom scored the sixth game with more __When the chickens seem to be conti Tom scored the sixth game with more applause than he had received, and then came the hardest trial of all. If he won the next game Lightwell was beaten; if he lost the games won were equal, and the contest must go on until one of them should capture two games in succession.

—When the chickens seem to be continually crying, it means more warmth needed. The warmth is more important than the food. If the chickens are stupid, drowsy, continually cry, or have fits, look on the heads and necks and under the wings for the large lice. Also examine for the little red mites.

capture two games in succession.

Lightwell nerved himself for the last, desperate stand. He played better tennis than ever before, but he had to deal with a young giant, whose muscles were steel.

Rally followed rally in quick succession. The spectators left their seats and surged shout the court. about the court.

How Tom played!

His shirt was open at the throat showing the play of muscles in his sunburned neck, the right sleeve rolled up, hat off and the the right sleeve rolled up, hat off and the develope findly. light of battle in his eye; he looked like a develops finely. gladiator and he meant to die rather than be beaten. pupil had the lead.

The next point went to the village representative also, and the fashionables began resentative also, and the fashionables began to shake in their shoes.

side.

It was returned and then an exciting rally chickens. took place which lasted for ten good minutes.

under such circumstance, and Tom thought | c Six, eight, nine minutes went by and still ences. the ball was in the air. . Then Lightwell lost his head for a moment and returned a high ball. Tom saw his advantage. He met the sphere at the net and re turned it with a downward smash no man living could stop. Lightwell made a desperate effort, and fell, missing the ball.

Then such a cheer went up as old Fenmere had never heard until that day.

—As an after-dimer pin, to strengthen the strength of the stomach, assist digestion, and correct any bilious tendencies, Ayer's Pills are considered the best. Being sugar-coated, they are as agreeable as any confection, and may be taken by the most delicate. Fashionable society was beaten.

Tom bore his honors meekly, and there —There is no "best month" for clear were many of them. Tilford's kindness still continued. He hung the tennis medal and when the summer was over the two went back to the city-together, and a new and broader life began for the country boy All this happened a good while ago.

—No good blood is made by the Dyspeptic. K. D. C. makes good blood by restoring stomach to healthy action. Ask your druggist for it.

But I saw that very medal upon Tom's watch chain only yesterday, as I sat in his cosey office down town, and listened to this each other's health. tale of Thirty-Fifteen. -Edward E. Rose.

-Itch cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's should-make free use of Puttner's Emulsion, the best lung healer, strengthener and flesh producer.

SWEET'S BON Dear Sire, the best lung healer, strengthener and flesh producer.

[Written for the MONITOR.] The Autobiography of Joshua Grumps

IX-MY VISIT TO HALIFAX. o'clock that afternoon Tom rose to meet the After my unsuccess with agencies best player of the club, the sifting process hought I would take a little vacation and having reduced the contestants these two.

This time Tom was puzzled. One, two, three games he lost without scoring a point, the games he lost without scoring a point, when that arrived set out for Halifax. and the set, or six games was finally won Now, I had never been to this town and by Lighthall, his opponent.

"What's the matter Tom?" asked Tilford, as his pupil came up to him during his short was the place where, "three years after was the place where, "three years after the years after the place where, "three years after the D'Anville's shattered fleet lay moored in "I can't return that ball he plays," and Chebucto Harbor, new ships were arriving on that very point.

Tom nodded as he took his place for the second set. It came all back to him and he saw his mistake.

H-to-O Street? How could I with British saw his mistake.

Lightwell smiled slightly as he served the should play this boy. Then his smile died should play this boy. Then his smile died my present position. While I was up on the point went to Tom.

"An accident," said Lightwell to himself and served again. But the ball came back, a good return, too, barely clearing the net and placed out of his reach; one more point the point went to Tom.

"An accident," said Lightwell to himself against one of them big cannons and my force was so great that, it discharged itself and fired down into the harbor—Chebucto Harbor. I was more scared than ever now, especially as the soldiers were getting thick. Fashienable society shifted uneasily on I cleared for good and went to bed in the Tilford smiled as he noticed these signs ambulated to the public gardens which I of uneasiness; and nodded encouragingly to thought quite pretty. I was feeding the Tom.

"I knew you could do it," he said as Tom came up to him after winning the second set. "We said you'd win, didn't we, Mrs. Warren?"

Tom's mother smiled assent. She was Tom's mother smiled assent. She was thought duther pretty. I was feeding the geese in the big poind with some peppermint drops when I lost my balance and went overboard into the depths of the goose pond and had an unceremonious bath free and without any notice beforehand. I paddled till I landed on a little island about

A.D. 1892, at One O'Clock p.m., but just then the sexton of the gardens

"Last set," called the president.
"Now, Tom, it's do or die," whispered Tilford. "I shall drown myself in the bay if you let that Dandy beat you.
Tom walked to his court with a lump in his throat and a dull ringing in his ears. It is hard to do one's best when the tide of popular favour sets against you. The Fenmere people wanted Tom to win, of course, but they failed to show any appresence of the section of the gardens came along and—and I was rescued! After my water bath I took a sun-bath to dry myself and then I wandered down street and costs be paid to the petitioners or their solicitor, or to the said sheriff, and lost my way again. I looked at my historical guidebook for information but couldn't get any just then. So I asked a big Indian in front of a tobacco store, but I think he must have been deaf and dumb for he answered me not. What was I to do? I was getting kind of tired of Halifax and to all that certain parcel of Fenmere people wanted Tom to win, of course, but they failed to show any appreciation of his good plays, while Lightwell's friends made the air ring whenever their favourite scored a point.

The excitement was intense, but all were very quiet.

Tom could hear the surf in the bay and the twitter of the birds as they flew homewards. It seemed to him there must be a million people on the grounds. The sea of at North Street Depot, so I disembarked and got aboard the steam car that was waiting the south side of the post road, so called; thence eastwardly along the south side of th

J. AVARD MORSE,

E. Sidney Crawley, of Wolfville, Kings Co., Solicitor for Petitioner

Bridgetown, July 19th, 1892. 16 5i FISH! FISH!

Codfish, Haddock,

Hake and Pollock. for which I will pay the highest market cash prices. At Port George apply to ELIAS WOODWORTH. THOS. S. WHITMAN.

Annapolis, June 7th, 1892. 10 6m Early Closing

MONDAY, WEDNESDAY, and at SIX O'CLOCK, until further notice Monday, June 20th: Runciman, Randolph & Co., G. H. Dixon. Strong & Whitman Shafner & Neily, E. S. Piggott, Hugh Fraser, Mrs. Ansley,

JUST LIKE THE STORY .- A joke of the Addiator and he meant to die rather than be beaten.

"Thirty-fifteen!" shouted the club scorer.

"Bravo, Tom!" yelled Tilford, for his best cure for sour stomach and biliousness. I have also used Burdock Pills and can be be be the best cure for sour stomach and biliousness. I have also used Burdock Pills and can be be be be better than the best cure for sour stomach and biliousness.

-All the small potatoes should be boiled, Whiz, went the ball from Lightwell's from time to time, and mixed with a quan-

Parties requiring their services can rest assured of prompt and satisfactory attention, at most reasonable charges.

ROOP & SHAW.

Middleton, June 16th, 1891.

11 tf took place which lasted for ten good minutes.

Back and forth flew the sphere, while the spectators watched the play with breathless interest. Ten minutes is a long time less interest. Ten minutes is a long time and the spectators watched the play with breathless interest. Ten minutes is a long time less interests interests in the dog-day season, the drain of nervous and vital energy may be countered by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. In purifying the blood, it acts as a superb corrective and tonic, and enables the system to defy malarial and other climatic influ

If parties took as much trouble to defend their principles as they take to defend their friends, politics would be cleaner, purer,

-As an after-dinner pill, to strengther

The Great Wonder of the Age -There is no "best month" for clear

-- Doctors are the ones who can afford to

THE KEY TO HEALTH.

BURDOCK BLOOD

BRIDGETOWN

THOMAS DEARNESS

Headstones, &c.

Also Monuments in Red Granite,

EVERY WOMAN should take them.
They cure all suppressions and irregularities, which inevitably

YOUNG HEN should take these PILLS.
They will cure the re-For sale by all druggists, or will be sent upon THE DR. WILLIAMS' MED. CO.

SHERIFF'S SALE!

In the Supreme Court, 1892.

closure of a mortgage made by OBA-DIAH T. HAWKINS and wife to said John O. Pineo in his lifetime. To be sold at Public Auction by th town, in the said county, on FRIDAY, AUGUST 26th, pursuant to an order of foreclosure a sale made herein dated the 18th day wards. It seemed million people on the grounds. The sea of upturned faces grew blurred and indistinct, then rose and fell.

"Are you ready?"

It was Lightwell's voice and the sound seemed miles away.

Whiz came the ball.

He made no attempt to return it; his arm lacked the strength for an effort.

And so the set went on until Lightwell had won three games.

Tom played with utter indifference.

He knew perfectly well that he was not even trying to play, but something seemed to chain his arm and make it useless.

When Bahv was sick, we gave her Castoria,

High Sheriff.

The Cod
That Helps to Cure

Richard Shipley, Miss B. Elderkin,

600000

UNDERTAKING.

MIDDLETON, N. S.

Beg to announce to the public that the atend carrying on the Undertaking Bus

Caskets, Coffins, Trimmings,

AND ALL OTHER FURNISHINGS.

PALFREY'S

CARRIAGE SHOP

-AND-

REPAIR ROOMS.

Corner Queen and Water Sts.

ARTHUR PALFREY.
Bridgetown, Oct. 22nd. 1890. 291y

THE LAST AND LATEST OUT!

SWEET'S BONE LINIMENT

a world renowed relief for all kinds of Pain, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Outs, Burns and Frost Bites.

The Cold. The disagreeable taste of the COD LIVER OIL is dissipated in

Of Pure Cod Liver Oil with HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA.

The patient suffering from CONSUMPTION.
BRONCHITIS, COUGH, COLD, OR WASTING DISEASES, takes the remedy as he would take milk. A perfect emulsion, and a wonderful flesh producer.
Take no other. All Druggists, 50c., LOO. SCOTT & BOWNE, Belleville

CALL AT R. ALLEN CROWE'S, BRIDGETOWN,

-FORarrel Churns, Creamers, Butter Trays, Ladles and Mould Prints. Never-Break Wrought Steel in Sinks, Pots, Sauce Pans and Spiders. STOVES AND RANGES. Kitchen Furnishing Goods. CAST IRON SINKS AND

OLLOWARE, LEAD PIPE, SHEET LEAD, ZINC, PUMPS, WROUGHT IRON WATER PIPE AND CAST IRON SOIL PIPE. Messrs. ROOP & SHAW

MASLIN KETTLES AND

GRANITE WARE ness at Middleton, and have now in stock a varied and comprehensive line of A SPECIALTY. Bridgetown, May 11th, 1892.

WE ARE PREPARED TO DO

JOB WORK IN ALL THE LATEST STYLES. FINE WORK

-such as-NOTE HEADS, LETTER HEADS, BILL HEADS, THE subscriber is prepared to furnish the public with all kinds of Carriages and Buggies, Sleighs and Pungs, that may be desired.

Best of Stock used in all classes of work.
Painting, Repairing and Vanishing executed in a first-class manner. MEMO. HEADS,
BUSINESS CARDS,
VISITING CARDS. POSTERS PROGRAMMES, CIRCULARS, PAMPHLETS, TICKETS

Choice Lines of WEDDING STATIONERY RECOMMENDED AS A FINE HORSE Estimates Furnished, Satisfaction Guaranteed.

DAILY TRIPS During JULY and AUGUST, 1892, th 'City of Monticello,' R. H. FLEMING, Commander across the Bay of Fundy, leaving St. 3 every morning at 7.30, local time, Annapolis every afternoon upon arrival last express train from Halifax, calling Digby, and due in St. John at 5.30 p.m. Most attractive route for the United tates and the QUICKEST route for the HOWARD D. TROOP,

J. S. CARDER, Agent, Annapolis.

Manager, St. John, N.

Heartburn, Constipation, Dryness of the Skin, Dropsy, Dimness of Vision, Jaundice, Salt Rheum, Drysipelas, Scrofula, Fluttering of the Heart, Nervousness, and General Debility; all these and many other similar Complaints yield to the happy influence of BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS. T. MILBURN & CO., Proprietors, Toronto. NOTICE! Windsor & Annapolis Raiw'y

THE PACKET SCHR. Time Table. TEMPLE BAR, will again, during the season of 1892, ply between this port and St. John, N. B. and until further notice. The subscriber will keep for sale as ormerly, LIME and SALT. Also CEDAR GOING WEST. SHINGLES in the different grades.

J. H. LONGMIRE, MASTER. The Schr. NANCY ANNA, W. G. ER, Master, will also run in the same

Importer of Marble Monuments, Tablets,

12 45 12 15 5 20 5 40

GOING EAST.

Annapolis-dp. 9 17 2 53 .

IN THE MOST GRACEFUL STYLES.

their patronage.

CHOLERA CHOLERA-MORBUS DIARRHOEA DYSENTERY
SUMMER COMPLAINTS CHILDREN OF ADULTS Price 35cTS

at all stations.

W. R. CAMPBELL,
General Manager and Secretar,
K. SUTHERLAND,
Resident Manager. I am now Prepared to Show at the one of the Largest and Best-Assorted The Shortest and Best Route between STOCKS OF BOOTS & SHOES

Nova Scotia and United States. THE QUICKEST TIME. 15 to 17 hours between Yarmouth and Boston. Steel steamers YARMOUTH and BOSTON YARMOUTH and BOSTON

(until further notice) will leave Yarmouth for Boston every Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday evenings after arrival of train of W. C. Railway, Returning, will leave Lewis' wharf, Boston, at 11 a.m., every Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday mornings, making close connections at Yarmouth with W. C. Railway and coach lines for all parts of Nova Sootia. These are the fastest steamers plying between Nova Sootia and the United States, and form the most pleasant route between above points, combining safety, comfort and speed. Regular mail carried on both steamers, Tickets sold to all points in Canada, and to New York via Fall River line and New York and New England Railway.

For all other information apply to W. C., W. & A., and N. S Central Railway agents, or to L. E. BAKER, Pres. and Managing Director.

CAUTION NOTICE. THE

GRAND CENTRAL HOTEL BRIDGETOWN, NOVA SCOTIA, 14 5i

EINIMENT.

Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Orders from any part of the Country
Bridgetown, Feb. 27th, 1892.
Sweet's Bone Liniment in louse and stable, and can highly recommend its use for man and beast as the best I know.

CHARLES SAUNDERS.

Satisfaction Guaranteed.
Orders from any part of the Country will receive prompt attention.

Address,
Orders from any part of the Country will receive prompt attention.

Address,
Orders from any part of the Country will receive prompt attention.

Address,
Orders from any part of the Country will receive prompt attention.

Address,
Orders from any part of the Country and part can be any rely on finding it first class in all its appointments, and charges most reasonable.
Good Sample Rooms. Teams convey passengers to and from depot free of charge.

G. LANGLEY, Proprietor.

Bridgetown, Oct. 22nd, 1890.

E. B. FOSTER, Hampton.

-GO TO-Central Book Store SCHOOL BOOKS, SLATES, STATIONERY, and everything in the Book Line. B. J. ELDERKIN.

Box 144, Bridgetown, N. S.

(Formerly bearing name of Manchester),

MONUMENTS. - TABLETS. HEADSTONES, &C.,

American & Italian Marble. Marble, Granite, and Freestone

Our charges are reasonable in every respect, and we guarantee perfect satisfaction to all who may favor us with

ASTHM A DR. TAFT'S ASTHMALENE AST

STRAWBERRY *COLIC Trains of the Nova Scotla Central Rainway leave Middeton at 2.15 p.m., for Bridgewater and Lunenburg.

Trains of the Western Counties Railway leave Annapolis daily at 1.05 p.m., and on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at 5.30 a.m., leave Yarmouth daily at 8.10 a.m., and on Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 1.45 p.m. Steamers of the Yarmouth Steamship Line leave Yarmouth every Tuesday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday p.m. for Boston.

Steamer "City of Monticello" leaves St. John daily for Digby and Annapolis: Returning, leaves Annapolis daily for Digby and St. John, Sundays excepted.

Steamers of the International Line leave St. John every Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday for Eastport, Portland and Boston, and on Tuesday and Friday a steamer leaves St. John for Portland.

Steamer "Winthrop" leaves St. John every Tuesday at 3 p.m., for Eastport, Bar Harbor and New York.

Trains of the Canadian Pacific Railway leave St. John at 6.25 a.m. daily, Sunday excepted, and at 8.30 p.m. daily for Bangor, Portland and Boston.

Through tickets by the various routes on sale at all stations.

W. R. CAMPBELL,

Potter's Liniment W. W. CHESLEY'S.

YARMOUTH S.S. CO. Farmer's Store,

> ever held in this part of the County. be satisfactory. Remember are given For Cash AT THE FARMER'S STORE. J. R. ELLIOTT.

STOCK OF PAINTS plenished now EVERY DAY. SEED OATS, BARLEY, Etc.,

The Eclipse Lace Seamless Boot or Shoe the Dominion of Canada, will be prosecuted y me to the full extent of the law. LIONELL B. LEGG.

Joker's Corner.

They Meant no Murder.

stand in "What the dever monkey, meets some remarkably claver relatives and "What Spoiled the JUSTLY ACCUSED.

Boy," "Dick's Auction," "A Little Builder," "The Plague of Locusts," "A Boy, and A Girl," "Talks by Queer Folks, and A Girl," "Talks by Queer Folks, "Did Tabby Understand?" "The Tally-to Jaint," are among the stories by bright Jaint," are among the stories by bright crowd collected outside was enabled to perform who with the clever artists help to

Lothrop Co., Publishers, Boston.

Babyland for August is a pretty, dainty number, as the summer issue of the Babies' magazine should be. Nurse Karen tells a charming story, Sweetheart has a good time at the seashore, and the Tiptoe Twins enjoy a garden full of flowers. There are pretty stories and pretty verse and pretty pletures, all made for Baby, and Mamma will like them better than ever. Price 50 cents a year; 5 cents a number. D. Lothrop Co., Publishers, Boston.

Pansy for August contains a comprehensive paper on Jean Ingelow, which will be read with pleasure and profit. It also gives a bright bit of American History under the title of About St. Augustine, and has likewise a goodly number of short stories, poems, sketches and verse. Pansy and Margaret Sidney furnish excellent chapters for the two principal stories. The illustrations are many and good, making a bright, attractive summer number, and an every was desirable magazine for old and young.

"The child one the wife and mother might be seen dancing with a mark—ed degree of abandon on the sofa. The baby reclined in a high chair and blinked apathetically.

"Such people ain't fit to have the care of a child," authoritatively declared a lady with glasses, who stood very near the house and could see plainly.

"It's a shame," indignantly insisted a stout woman with an armful of groceries.

The husband and father suddenly seized a chair and waved it frantically above his head.

"Oh."

The lady with glasses shuddered. The woman with the groceries averted her face as if to save herself the shock of witnessing a revolting tradegy.

"The child one to the work and profit."

The project contemplated by the commissioners of Victory park, Truro, to erect a memorial to Joseph Howe in that delightful and romantic retreat "built by nature for herself," which her charming pen first brought to general public notice in Nova Scotia, is one deserving of the utmost encouragement by every patriotic lover of his country. It is not to the credit of Nova Scotians that they have permitted nearly twenty years to roll by without providing any public monument of a great countryman in the breasts of succeeding generations. The young man who attained his majority a month ago was only two years of age "Nothing was further from our minds" "Nothing was further from our minds" "Nothing was further from our minds" "Nothing was further from our minds" a month ago was only two years of age when Joseph Howe breathed his last, but "Nothing was further from our minds sation with his seniors, than murder or injury of any sort."

will, for the season of 1892, stand at the stable of Norman Chute, Bridgetown.

For extended pedigree and terms see posters.

For extended pedigree and terms see posters.

est of British Americans. It has e greatest of British Americans. It is a said that democracies are exceptionally ungrateful. The history of Howe with glasses, who had been looking over the shoulders of the determined men, sud-the statement and states manshin saved the statement of the statement of the determined men, sud-the statement of the denly recalled their dear ones at home and

Nova Scotia and the adjoining provinces from a condition which was but little better than serfdom. He gave us political freedom and he also pointed the way and led the van in support of railway construction and other great public improvements in this province. His speeches are models of eloquence which every student of oratory may read with profit and pleasure, and his distributions and literary essays are model. He was such a weak and humble little nay read with profit and pleasure, and his diblic letters and literary essays are modis of lucid and brilliant composition not urpassed in vigor and rythm of style by voice, "if any gentleman here sold my wife

We would be glad to see a general move-ent for a suitable monument in this his ative city, but in the meantime have leasure in saying a good word for the pro-"I guess I'm the man," responded a big, of in his business. "Oh, excuse me," exclaimed the custon er shrinkingly, "I mean no offense. The butter is all right, but I wanted to say that three colors of hair in one roll is somewhatit was an oversight on your part, and I am with some fifty inhabitants and all urtenances thereto belonging. The plaining, merely suggesting."

The coner left Cunningham & Curren's wharf The clerk's face was a study.

Off for the Labrador.

ian Recorder, Haliiax, N. S.

o-day on her mission.

A Recorder reporter was talking to-day to Capt. Wm. McConnell, of Port Hilford, Guysboro, who is in charge of the vessel. An interesting incident was mentioned (and although it sounds like a "puff" of a patent medicine it is worth noting.) "Do weight and price, or throw in a clawhamalthough it sounds like a "puff" of a patent medicine it is worth noting.) "Do you see that man over there," said a friend, "that is Capt. McConnell, who is going after Esquimaux. I have known him for years, and he was that bad with asthmahe had sometimes to be held up on board his vessel. You see him "—(he was piling wood in a cord measure to take on board)—"he is a well man; and he attributes it to some of Dr. Williams Pink Pills that he took, two after each meal."

Out of curiosity, the reporter secured an introduction to the captain, and after some we read that Sampson had long hair and a second make a materioscent in the second in the less you make a threstoch to be say in the less you make a threstoch to be say in the less you make a threstoch to be weight and price, or throw in a clawhammer so we can draw the tacks upon putting the butter on the table."

The clerk was gasping and the little man was going right along. "Referring again to the hair mentioned previously," he said, "permit me to say that I find no fault because of its quantity or its length. The incongruity of color was the only objection. In the less you make a threatche. Out of curiosity, the reporter secured an introduction to the captain, and after some talk about the expedition, remarked: "Is that correct, Captain, about your recovery from asthma, and that you attribute it to the exilted." rom asthma, and that you are the hose pills? "Well, I don't know anything else. I you did not send it up in a cage."

"Well, I don't know anything else. I covered after taking them."

"And haven't been troubled since?"

"No. Of course we will see what this inter may bring forth; I haven't said not head. "I might, possibly," he continued mildly and weakly, "touch upon its age, but I have some reason to suspect that this butter." nd the change brought about in my contion, which Dr. Parker, of Halifax, said is made from milk, that the mik came It is not often that a patent medicine gets uch a big boom in the incidence of newsathering, as is furnished in the above; but is all set down just as it transpired, indicated the state of the state o it is all set down just as it transpired, incidentally.

The whole Labrador party consists of Messrs. Tabor and Vincent, Prof. Reid, of Harvard College; Mr. Lyle Vincent, St. Louis; Dr. Baur, Ehiladelphia, a distinguished naturalist; Prof. Gillette, New Haven, Conn., and Hon. W. F. Ryder, Quebec. They expect to return with about 50 Esquimaux, with dogs, komaticks, kayacks, and a general collection of curiosities from Esquimaux land. The schooner is a handsome model, 95 tons, and is a fast sailer. John Silver & Co. furnished the supplies. the butter. Good morning," and the little

An Arraignment of Bad Roads.—Bad man walked meekly out. roads give the country a slovenly uninviting look; check education, by making rural school attendance irregular; deprive farmers' families of church privileges, of social intercourse with each other and with the intercourse with each other and with the country of the country of the country as no reactly seen dalons."

intercourse with each other and with the town; provoke grumbling at the weather, and are in other ways hurtful to the disposition; cost of farm produce to producer and consumer; deprive voters of the privilege of the polls and thereby affect elections; put town and country farther apart, often causing waste of time and loss of opportunity to sell produce at best prices; use up old horses, harness and vehicles, and make old ones of the new; depreciate the value of farm lands; and exceedingly cruel to draft animals; give speculators chance to fill their A new stock of that peatiful GLASS. WARE is just being opened at the Farman's Store. Call and bargain for it. I will serve you to your satisfaction, I am confident.

J. R. E.

farm lands; and exceedingly cruel to draft animals; give speculators chance to fill their pockets; crowd farm work into unseason able times: in short, cause discomfort and impede process in every direction.—N. Y.

Tribune.

Stick to the Right.

Right actions spring from right principles. In cases of diarrhwa, dysentery, cramps, colic, summer complaint, cholera morbus, etc., the right remedy is Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry,—an unfailing cure—made on the principle that nature's remedies are best. Never travel without it.

DEAR SIRS,—For several years is suffered from liver complaint. As doctorave her no help we tried B. B. B., which cure—made on the principle that nature's remedies are best. Never travel without it.

—If there is any one thing that the hen louse despises, it is kerosene oil. The smell of it makes them walk lively.

Lines From Lyons.

DEAR SIRS,—For several years resulting and the complex of the surface of the smell of it makes them walk lively.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

impede progess in every direction.—N. Y Tribune.

-Hall's Hair Renewer contains the nat-