

- Indian farming a pretended discovery and novelty, 133-6.
- Indian judgment on white neighbors, 40.
 - Lands, struggle for, 32-3.
- Indians, numbers of, east of Mississippi in 1820, 141-8.
- Indian rights in the soil conceded, 56-60.
 - Safety only in distance from whites, 38.
 - In Kentucky once and now, 143.
 - Number of, in early New England, 138-40.
 - Remnants of, in Massachusetts, in 1861, 140.
 - Separation of, from whites, proposed and impossible, 51.
- Indian Territory, area, population, 76; design of, 127.
 - Gloomy anticipation in, 81-85.
 - Government in, 78.
- Indian titles to land, and the law of nations, 147.
 - In Dominion of Canada, 116-125.
- Intermarriage, 25-9.
- Introduction, 3-8.
- Iroquois as farmers, 95.
- Is Christianity able to Christianize Indians, 172-4.

- JACKSON, PRESIDENT, on the only chance for the Indians, 32.
- Jackson, President, on reservations, 126, 130.

- KANSAS, hostility to Indians in, 32.
- Kirkwood, Secretary, Indian policy of, 131.

- LAND in severalty, experiment of with Housatonics, 180-84.
- Law as the protector of the Indian, 48-51.
 - Illustrative case of, 50.
- Lawlessness in the Indian Territory, 49, 77-81.

- MATHER, COTTON, his views of the Indians, 19-20.
- Marshpee Indians and Richard Bourne, 13-14.
- Massachusetts, hostile legislation of, 17.
- Massachusetts Indians, education of, in colony times, 17-18.
- Metlakahtlans and the Canadian Dominion, 111-125.
- Missions, Franciscan, in California, 157-162.
- Monette on border men, 41.
- Montana, Indian farmers in, 133.
- Morse, Rev. Dr., estimate of Indians in 1820, 139.
 - On Indian removals, 125-6.