

statement of the funds and effects in the hands of the Trustees.

4. Those ministers now on the roll of Synod, or Professors now in its employment, shall have the privilege of entering till the 1st July 1865, but hereafter no minister shall be admissible to the benefits of the scheme, unless he apply for that privilege within one year from the date of his ordination.

6. Each applicant shall be required to furnish the committee in writing with a statement of the date of his birth, and if married, of the date of his wife's birth, and shall also if required, furnish a medical certificate of the state of his health, and also a statement of the names and dates of the birth of each of his children under 16 years of age.

7. There shall be three classes of payments, and every person on becoming a member, shall signify which class he chooses; and the choice being once made, he shall not afterward have the power of rising to a higher class; but he shall at any time have the liberty of taking a lower class, it being understood that no part of the sums already paid or due by him can be returned or abated to him, and that his widow or orphan children will thenceforth be entitled only to the annuity of the class then chosen by him.

8. Every person coming on the scheme shall pay annually on or before the 1st July in each year the following sums, according to the class which they intend to enter.

Class 1.	Class 2.	Class 3.
$10	$15	$20

And also a marriage equalising tax for every year exceeding four years that his age exceeds that of his wife,

	Class 1.	Class 2.	Class 3.
Under 45	$2	$3	$4
Under 60	4	6	8
Over 60	6	9	12

The same to be paid on every subsequent marriage, except where he marry a widow already on the fund. In all cases in which members shall marry, they shall be bound to give the committee notice in writing, and furnish a statement of the dates of their own birth and that of their wives.

9. In the case of those ministers now on the roll of Synod, subscribing to the capital fund according to their means, such subscriptions shall be considered as their entry money and first payment, but all future entrants shall pay as entry money a sum equal to the annual payment of the rate at which he enters, beside the annual payment for the year. But in the case of persons ordained during the intervals of meetings of Synod, if their ordination shall have taken place less than six months previous to the 1st July, they shall only be liable for that year for a half-year's rate, beside their entry money.

10. Members not making payment of their annual rates on or before the 1st July in each year shall be subject to the following fines,

1st Class,	12½ cents
2nd "	25 "
3rd "	37½ "

for each month thereafter till payment be made; and that those who neglect payment for four full years, shall from that period cease to be members, and shall forfeit all privileges connected with the Institution, and shall have no claim to the money they have paid into it. Intimation shall in all cases be sent to ministers in arrears before they shall be cut off from the benefits of the fund.

11. As soon as correct tables for the purpose can be prepared, members shall be entitled at any time to redeem their annual rates, payable for life by the payment of a single sum at once, or to commute them into an increased annual payment to cease on their completing the 60th or 65 year of their age.

12. The annual annuities for widows for the present shall be as follows—

Class 1.	Class 2	Class 3.
$60	$90	$120

But no widow shall be entitled to receive any annuity from the fund until full payment of the annual rates for six several years, or in the case of those now members of Synod for three years has been made either by her husband or in the event of his decease, by herself or her friends with such other payments as may have been due. But if she or her friends pay the whole in one sum she shall be entitled to half annuity until the time when she would have been entitled to full annuity, the amount thus advanced to be deducted from subsequent payments.
