

helping the minister at Bryson, about fourteen miles away. We don't forget to pray for you and the workers.

Bro. J. H. Sedweek writes from Berlin, Ont.: I have received an urgent call, through Bro. A. Trott, from the ministers of West Michigan, to come on at once. I have accepted. Interest in the meetings here is increasing rapidly. Quite a number have decided already. I stay over Sunday.

Bro. Chapman writes from Kilworth, Ont.: Souls have been flocking to Jesus here. We fully intended closing last night, but the work broke out again. So we go on for two days more. Then to Delaware, then to Talbotville until Christmas. It is just wonderful how God has been blessing our labors in this section of country, and blessing us too as a Band in our own souls. I never felt more of the love and power of God: Nor did we ever see such direct answer to prayer. May God bless and strengthen you in your work in the East.

Rev. D. D. Moore writes from Charlotte-town, P. E. I.: I followed Bro. Banton to Hampton, N.B. A number were converted, but our work was chiefly that of consolidation and organization of Class and Local band. Since seeing you I have been more deeply impressed than ever that God answers and must answer the prayer of faith. After resting a while I go to Truro.

Dr. Black writes from Windsor, N.S., Dec. 6: Last night gave us a grand meeting. Six at the altar, and a score of testimonies. Sunday night the floor of the church would not hold the crowd, and the galleries were used. Bro. C. would surprise you. He does me. His addresses are excellent. Clear, pointed, and touching. My eldest son came out for the Lord last week. Has not my home been blessed? And so much more than I deserve. The blessing is coming here abundantly and gathering in a number of young men, as well as others.

WINDSOR, N.S.—The Lord has been blessing us. All glory to His name. Sunday night we had a glorious time indeed, and perfect freedom in talking. O how God is revealing Himself to me. Altar filled and seekers out into the light. Bro. Rogers is heart and soul in the work. He gave the address on Monday night. Five were forward; Tuesday night there were eight, and on Wednesday night the altar and one seat were crowded—a general break, praise God. Last night there was a little reaction, but still a very powerful service and quite a number of seekers out. Old church members are falling into line. Bro. Rogers thinks we had better stay over Sunday at least. I feel so weak. Surely if the Lord helps me it is the greater glory to Himself.

SHELBOURNE.—The Lord has been greatly blessing us during the last few weeks in Shelbourne, N.S. About fifty persons have come out on the Lord's side, and have professed to have found pardon and peace through believing in Jesus. Several backsliders have been reclaimed. It is needless to add that the church has been greatly blessed. Bro. G. H. McLachlan, one of Rev. D. Savage's workers, has been with us during the past three weeks, and he has proved to be a great blessing in advancing the Redeemer's kingdom and in leading persons to decide for Jesus. Thirty-five persons have given in their names to connect themselves with the Methodist Church. We expect a few more names. The other churches have also been blessed. To God be all the praise.

SAUGATUCK, MICH.—We are here 250 miles from Canadian soil, in a pretty village of western Michigan. It nestles among the hills, with the Kalamazoo river winding around it and emptying into the lake about half a mile off. This is the greatest peach growing country I ever saw. It takes about six steamboats all their time to carry them from here to Chicago in the peach season, besides what are shipped by rail. The church I have taken charge of has about 150 members, good earnest people most of them. Bro. Dunsmore is at Douglas, just across the river. This week our District Ministerial Association was held. It was a grand and spiritual season. There are some thirty ministers on this district. Some of the sweetest spirited men I have ever met. As young men and strangers we are treated so kindly. Holiness and salvation are watchwords on this district. The presiding Elder, Dr. Barnes, is a grand man, full of the Holy Ghost. Our cry is, "A thousand souls for Christ this year." I thank God for a good experience. "I am crucified with Christ, nevertheless I live, yet not I but Christ in me, and the life that I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God who loved me and gave Himself for me." Glory to God! Glory to God! Give my love to all the workers. Daily I carry you and them and the work to God in prayer.

ARTHUR TROTT.
