of expenses. Resigns and passwords, we are sure they would benefit the Association. There should be some way of knowing a brother wherever you meet him. We simply mention these important items with a hope that our delegate will be permitted to lay same before the Convention. In the meantime we would like other Branches to consider, and let us hear from them.

Yours fraternally,

P. O. PELON, J. B. MOONEY,
THOS ROACH, Committee.

Grand Falls, N. B., June 30, 1898.
To the Editor of THE CANADIAN:

Dear Sir and Bro.—At a regular meeting of Branch 210, C. M. B. A., held on the 29th inst., it was unanimously agreed on to endeavor to urge the delegate attending the next Convention to vote against having conventions every two years on account of the heavy expenses they entail. It was further agreed on that in the opinion of this Branch a convention every six years would be quite sufficient; or, again, if the conventions should continue biennial, then let each Branch that wished to send a representative pay his expenses, and then we would not be receiving so many surprises by special assessments. I proposed that this opinion of Branch No. 210 be sent to THE CANADIAN for publication, and our delegate to the next convention, bear in mind the unanimous adoption of the above opinion by the members of Branch No. 210.

M. A. O'KEEFE, P.P. Rec. Sec.

MARRIAGE OF GRAND TRUSTEE BEHAN.

THE CANADIAN has much pleasure in extending congratulations to Grand Trustee Behan upon the event of his marriage to Miss Brannagan, of Kingston. The happy event took place Wednesday morning, June 8, in St. Mary's Cathedral, the nuptial knot being tied by Very Rev. Vicar General Kelly. The occasion was taken advantage of by the very numerous friends of Mr. Behan to demonstrate the high place he holds in the esteem of the people of Kingston. The Liberal Association of Kingston presented him with an elegant secretary and cabinet, the presentation being made in the British American Hotel by Mr. Penne, President of the Reform Association. The Young Irishmen's Catholic Benevolent Association presented him with an elegant silver tea service accompanied by an address. The individual token of regard came from far and near, from all classes and all parties. The bride is one of Kingston's most esteemed young ladies, a talented musician and highly favored in social circles. She was attended at the altar by her niece, Miss Harty, of Ottawa, while Mr. Behan was supported by Mr. Andrien, of Montreal, and Mr. Wm. Cunningham, of Kingston. The happy couple are beginning life's journey under the most favorable auspices, and many are the prayers and well wishes that their path may be free from life's cares and sorrows till the end.

Alterations and amendments to the C. M. B. A. constitution, laws, by-laws, rules of order and Code of Procedure may be made at any regular Convention of the Council by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and entitled to vote at such Convention.

Try never to miss an opportunity of giving a pleasure. It will make you happier and better.—Longfellow.
