

"I speak not out of weak surmises, but from proof."

LARD MUST GO.

since COTTOLENE has come to take its place. The satisfaction with which the people have hailed the advent of the New Shortening evidenced by the rapidly increasing enormous sales is PROOF POSITIVE not only of its great value as a new article of diet but is also sufficient proof of the general desire to be rid of indigestible, unwholesome, unappetizing lard, and of all the ills that lard promotes. Try at once and waste no time in discovering like thousands of others that you have now

Cottolene

Glasgow F. C. Presbytery by seventy votes to fourteen have rejected Rev. John Robertson's overture for the exclusion from the eldership of those engaged in the drink traffic. Rev. Mr. Muir, an abstainer, in moving the rejection said that wherever there was sin there must be no compromise elders and members being treated alike. Rev. J. J. Mackay regarded the overture as unnecessary. He would sooner resign his charge than admit even to the membership anyone engaged in the traffic.

The Harriers.

The members of the well-known Ranelagh Harriers' Club of London, Eng., know what is best when one writes like the following. Mr. W. F. Jefferies, member of the Club, says: "I find St. Jacobs Oil the best remedy I have ever used for sprains, stiffness and bruises. It quickly removes pains and swellings, and if rubbed into the muscles, it will be found of great benefit to all athletes. I may also add that several friends of mine have found the Oil a cure for rheumatism and neuralgia."
