THE GOLDIE & McCULLOCH CO., GALT, ONT.

GENTLEMEN. In our recent fire which as you know was a total wrick and of which we are sending you a photo by mail, we had two Goldio & McCulloch safes in which we kept all our books. They have come through the fire in remarkable shape, and we feel that our hay and grain as well as large quantities of packages, barrels and boxes. We might say that everything was burned to a crisp, heavy from safes in such manner as to make them of any use to us, which we can assure you would have been a very serious matter. We were agree ably surprised, however, on reaching them. While we found the safes somewhat warped and hent on the outside yet all our books and do une not a manner that we can get overything from them all right. This without a doubt was an extremely hot fire, and documents came out in such a manner that we can get overything from them all right.
