BUSINE'S NOTES

S. E Adam, general merchant and lumberman, Disraeli, Que., is reported to have assigned to V. E. Paradis.

George H. Curry, assignee, is asking for tenders by September 19th for the purchase of the planing mill and other property belonging to the estate of William Curry & Son, Windsor, N. S.

A meeting will be held this week to appoint a curator for the estate of S. E. Adam, general store and lumber, D'Israeli.

The first meeting of the creditors of

H. & G. Curwen & Company, lumber dealers, Liverpool, Eng., was held in Liverpool on Angust 30th, at which the official receiver stated that the statement would be somewhat complicated owing to there being assets and liabilities in Newfoundland. It seems that the company acquired a timber concession in Newfoundland, and that for this purpose a considerable sum was advanced to them by creditors. If it is found possible to realise satisfactorily on the assets, it is probable that the estate will show a small surplus.
