

THE March Number

'STAMBOUL OF THE SULTANS

By ALBERT R. CARMAN

An intimate and graphic description of a visit to a great playground of the Turkish Sultans, while it was yet Turkish. There are a number of beautiful photographs for illustration.

FAMOUS CANADIAN TRIALS

No. 3 of this series deals with the trial of Patrick Whalen for the assassination of Thomas D'Arcy McGee. It is written by C. S. Blue, and gives a vivid account of one of the most dramatic episodes in Canadian political life.

OLD-TIME TRAVEL THROUGH THE YELLOWHEAD PASS

By EMILY P. WEAVER

Now that two transcontinental railways are using this famous pass as a means of reaching the Pacific, it is intensely interesting to read Miss Weaver's account of travel in that region before it was opened up.

There will be as well a choice selection of short stories, among them a capital one entitled "The Magician's Box," by Madge Macbeth, author of "The Adventures of Aniwar Ali," Etc.

$2.50 PER ANNUM. Including Great Britain, Ireland and most of the Colonies.
