PROSPECTUS OF ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE, FORDHAM WESTCHESTER COUNTY, N.Y. THIS Institution is incorporated with the privilege of a University, and is conducted by the Fathers of the Society of Jesus. It is situated at Fordham, in a most picturesque and healthy part of the County of Westchester, eleven miles distant from the City of New York and three from Harlem.

The fathers, desirous of bestowing the most conscientious care upon the domestic comfort of the pupils, have deputed to this important and highly responsible department persons of tried skill, whose training and experience fit them for the peculiar wants of an institution which purports to be one large family. The students are in three distinct divisions—the senior, the middle, and the junior—each having its separate halls and separate play-grounds, and each presided over by distinct officers and professors.

The regular classical course of instruction embraces the Hebrew, Greek, Latin, English, and French languages; Religion, Elocution, Poetry, and Rhetoric; Geography, Mathematics, and History; Arithmetic, Book-keeping, and Mathematics; Natural, Intellectual and Moral Philosophy. There are two semi-annual examinations: the first towards the end of January, the second before the annual commencement towards the middle of July.

When it is the wish of parents or guardians to have some or wards fitted for commercial pursuits, means are taken to direct and adapt their studies accordingly. There are two preparatory classes, in which beginners are taught spelling, reading, writing, the first elements of English Grammar, of Geography, and Arithmetic.

Students coming from any foreign country, or from a distance exceeding 500 miles, should have guardians appointed in or near the city, who will be responsible for the regular payment of bills as they become due, and be willing to receive the student in case of dismissal.
