the breath of Living Flowers. WHAT ARE ITS ANTECEDENTS?

For twenty years it has maintained its ascendancy over all other perfumes, throughout the West Indies, Cuba and South America, and we earnestly recommend it to the inhabitants of this country as an article which for softness and delicacy of flavor has no equal. During the warm summer months it is peculiarly appreciated for its refreshing influence on the skin and used in the bath it gives buoyancy and strength to the exhausted body, which at those pe-

READ AND REFLECT.

Believing that FACTS, IMPORTANT to the HEALTH and COMFORT of the PUBLIC, and which can be VERIFIED at ANY MOMENT by addressing the parties who wouch for them, ought not to be hid under a bushel, the undersigned publish below a few communications of recent date to which they invite the attention of the people, and at the same time ESPECIALLY REQUEST all readers who may feel interested in the subject to ADDRESS the individuals themselves, and ascertain the correctness of the particulars.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS

Brooklyn, N.Y., May 22, 1863.

Messrs. Hostetter & Smith: Gentlemen-I have used your Bitters during the last six weeks, and feel it due to you and to the public to express my hearty approval of their effect upon me. I never wrote a 'puil' for any one, and I abhor everything that savors of quackery. But your Bitters are entirely removed from the level of the mere no trums of the day, being patent alike to all, and exactly what they profess to be. They are not advertised to cure everything, but they are recommended to assist nature in the alleviation and alti-mate healing of many of the most most common in-firmities of the body, and this they will accomplish. I had been unwell for two months, as is usual with me during the spring. I was bilious, and suffering from indigestion and a general disease of the mucuous membrane, and though compelled to keep at work in the discharge of my professional duties, was very weak, of a yellow complexion, no appetite, and much of the time confined to my bed. When I had been taking your Bitters a week my vigor returned; the sallow complexion was all gone—I relished my food, and now I enjoy the duties of the mental application which so recently were so very irksome and burdensome to me. Whon I used your Bitters, I felt must be made by each individual for himself.

Yours, respectfully,
W. B. LEE, Pastor of Greene Avenue Preobyterian

Church.

a change every day. These are facts. All inference Prospect Cottage, Georgetown, D.C., April 2, 1863.

Mesers, Hostter & Smith: Gentlemen -- It gives me pleasure to add my testimonial to those of others in favor of your excellent preparation. Several years of residence on the banks of a Southern river, and of close application to literary work, had so thoroughly exhausted my nervous system and undermined my health, that I had become a martyr to dyspepsia and nervous headache, recurring at short intervals, and defring all known remedies in the Materia Medica. I had come to the conclusion that nothing but a total change of residence and parauits would restore my bealth, when a friend recommended Hostetter's Bitters. I procured a bottle as an experiment. It required but one bot-tle to convince me that I had found at last the right combination of remedies. The relief it afforded me has been complete. It is now some years since I first tried Hostotter's Bitters, and it is but just to may that I have found the preparation all that it claims to be. It is a Standard Family Cordial with us, and even as a stimulent we like it better than anything else; but we use it in all nervous, bilious and dyspeptic cases, from fever down to tootbache. It what I have now said will lead any dyspeptic or nervous invalid to a sure remedy, I shall have done some good. f remain, gentlemen, respectfully yours, E. D. R. N. BOUTHWORTH.

New Convalescent Camp, Near Alexandria, Vu., Mry 24, 1863. Messra. Hostetter & Smith :

Eenr Sirs - Will you do me the favor to forward by express one half dos a Heatetter's Stomach Bitters, with bill, for which I will remit you on receipt of same, as I am unable to prosure your medicine here, and if I had a quantity it could be sold readity, as it is known to be be best preparation in use for disennes having their origin with a diseased stomach. I have used and sold hundreds of preparations, but your Bitters are superior to anything of the kind I am cognizant with. Indeed, no soldier should be without it should be be ever so robust and healthy, for it is not only a restorative, but a preventative for almost all diseaser a soldier is subject to. I have been afflicated with chronic indigestion and no medicine has afforded me the relief yours has; and I trust you will lose no time in sending the Bitters or-
