

Canada's Capes

are the crowning climax of a trip that has no equal—"Niagara-to-the-Sea."

From the moment you board a "Canada Steamship Lines" boat at Toronto—you will find each hour of the journey filled with new and surprising delights. The route is one of wondrous beauty—the boats are floating palaces, providing a new experience in travel de luxe.

Through the kaleidoscopic beauty of the far-famed "Thousand Islands," winds this route of scenic enchantment. Then it traverses the River Rapids of the St. Lawrence—the "shooting" of them is an experience that charms and exhilarates.

Then comes the quaintly interesting city of Quebec—rock-bound, and reminiscent of old-world cities.

The final entrancement of the trip is found in the canyon of the River Saguenay—where the boat steams slowly past Capes that tower higher than the Rock of Gibraltar.

1000 miles of scenic splendor—each day of it so wonderful that you'll marvel why anyone ever went across the Sea for scenery when this vacation route is so readily accessible—at a cost so low that all can go.
