

At the 49th session of the Commission on Human Rights, the Canadian delegation participated actively in the confidential 1503 proceedings on Rwanda.

A presumed Rwandan human rights violator, who was living in Canada, was expelled in September 1993 after being found guilty of uttering death threats to some of his compatriots. Another presumed violator is being investigated by the Department of Immigration.

8

9

10

11

12