in order to have competition, but there is no real competition in the wholesale and retail price of gasoline. Four companies, including Petro-Canada, control the market and have been keeping the price up because they are surviving and making a little money. The poor oil companies in Alberta, the little Canadian oil companies who do not have retail markets like this, are suffering and will be gobbled up by these big fellows who are making all that money in Halifax.

I am glad the Hon. Member brought this up because, as I said in my speech, this is a country in search of a new energy policy. However, we are simply not getting it. This document addresses itself to what the Hon. Member for Cape Breton—The Sydneys, who is very familiar with this subject, has called a bit of a fantasy. There is nothing happening in the frontier, but this is the kind of Bill we are getting and the Government is ignoring the real problem.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Paproski): Is the House ready for the question?

Some Hon. Members: Question.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Paproski): The question is as follows: Mr. Masse, seconded by Mr. Mazankowski, moves that Bill C-5, an Act to regulate interests in petroleum in relation to frontier lands, to amend the Oil and Gas Production and Conservation Act and to repeal the Canada Oil and Gas Act, be now read the third time and do pass.

Is it the pleasure of the House to adopt the motion?

Some Hon. Members: On division.

Motion agreed to and Bill read the third time and passed.

RESUMPTION OF DEBATE ON ADDRESS IN REPLY

The House resumed from Friday, October 10, consideration of the motion of Mrs. Collins for an Address to Her Excellency the Governor General in reply to her Speech at the opening of the Session; and of the amendment of Mr. Cassidy (p. 227).

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Paproski): It being six o'clock p.m., pursuant to Standing Order 13(5), the House will now proceed to the taking of the deferred division on the amendment. Mr. Cassidy (Ottawa Centre), seconded by Mr. Riis (Kamloops—Shuswap) moved:

That the following be added to the address:

"This House regrets that the Government has failed to provide leadership on major issues of social justice affecting average Canadians including the need for action to provide greater protection for battered women, a commitment to legislate pro-rated benefits for part-time workers, the majority of whom are women, a refusal to establish and work towards lower unemployment targets for Canadians, and the failure to pursue a serious tax reform that would eliminate the unfairness, the complexity and the unaccountability of the present system".

Call in the Members.

The House divided on the motion (Mr. Cassidy), which was negated on the following division:

(Division No. 12)
