

THE REVELENE AND SOUTH END OF PARK, ISLE AUX NOIX.

contain many names well known in Canadian history, and well repay a visit to the northern portion of the island. Regarding modern conveniences there has been expended a considerable sum in making the island a favorable place for excursionists and picnic parties. The officers' quarters have been repaired and rendered comfortable, and suites of furnished rooms can be rented

OLD MAGAZINE, ISLE AUX NOIX.