

EQUITABLE ADJUSTMENT.

FOUR LETTERS TO THE HON. JOHN STUART WORTLEY, in Answer to his "Brief Inquiry into the True Award of an Equitable Adjustment between the Nation and its Creditors." Price 2s.

RURAL RIDES.

COBBETT'S RURAL RIDES. (Price 5s.)—RURAL RIDES in the Counties of Surrey, Kent, Sussex, Hampshire, Wiltshire, Gloucestershire, Herefordshire, Worcestershire, Somersetshire, Oxfordshire, Berkshire, Essex, Suffolk, Norfolk, and Hertfordshire: with Economical and Political Observations relative to Matters applicable to, and illustrated by, the State of those Counties respectively.—These rides were performed on horseback. If the members of the Government had read them, only just read them, last year, when they were collected and printed in a volume, they could not have helped foreseeing all the violences that have taken place, and especially in these very counties; and foreseeing them, they must have been devils in reality if they had not done something to prevent them. This is such a book as statesmen ought to read.—W. C.

POOR MAN'S FRIEND.

COBBETT'S POOR MAN'S FRIEND (Price 8d.); or, a Defence of the Rights of those who do the Work and fight the Battles.—This is my favourite work. I bestowed more labour upon it than upon any large volume that I ever wrote. Here it is proved, that, according to all laws, divine as well as human, no one is to die with hunger amidst an abundance of food.—W. C.

EMIGRANT'S GUIDE.

COBBETT'S EMIGRANT'S GUIDE (Price 2s. 6d.); in TEN LETTERS addressed to the TAXPAYER OF ENGLAND; containing information of every kind, necessary to persons who are about to emigrate; including several authentic and most interesting letters from English Emigrants, now in America, to their relations in England; and an account of the prices of House and Land, recently obtained from America by Mr. Cobbett. A New Edition.—Here all the information is contained that any one going to the United States of America can want, down to the most minute particulars; and here it is shown, that a man, who does not wish to be starved, or to be a slave, ought not to emigrate to any other country.—W. C.

MANCHESTER LECTURES.

COBBETT'S MANCHESTER LECTURES. This is a small duodecimo volume (Price 2s. 6d.), and it contains Six Lectures that I delivered at Manchester in the Winter of 1831. In these Lectures I have gone fully into the state of the Country, and have put forth what I deem the proper remedies for that state. I have fully discussed the questions of Debt, Dead-Weight, Sinicures and Pensions, Church, Crown Lands, Army and Navy, and I defy all the doctors of political economy to answer me that book. It contains a statement of the propositions which, please God, I mean to make as a ground-work of relief to our country.—W. C.
