

gainst thee: and the goodness, which thou hast shewn us so plentifully, hath not led us to suitable repentance, nor have we been duly mindful of the rock of our strength. It is only of thy mercies, that we are not already consumed: and we cannot hope to escape, if we go on to treasure up wrath unto ourselves. Give us, we intreat thee, a deep sense of our dependence upon thee, and our ingratitude to thee: that there may not be in any of us an evil heart of unbelief, disobedience or forgetfulness; but that henceforth for ever we may serve thee with fear, and rejoice unto thee with reverence; engaging thy future protection by a conduct worthy of thy past favours: for which be ascribed to thee, and thy dear son, and the spirit of grace, all honour and glory, thanksgiving and praise, world without end. Amen.
