

N.

- NAPIER, Sir Charles, on sufficient force, 28.
- NAPOLEON on blockade of unfortified places, 14.
- NEUTRAL vessel may retire from blockaded port, with cargo shipped before notification of blockade, 23; vessel may make inquiries in case of blockade de facto, but not in case of blockade by notification, 37; vessel must not go too near a blockaded port, 38; merchants may not cover enemy's goods with their own, 45.
- NEUTRALS may carry on commerce with blockaded port by means of inland communications, 40; must be notified of existence of blockade, 16.
- NOTICE to a government equivalent to notice to all its subjects, 19; should be given of raising of blockade, 31.
- NOTORIETY equivalent to notification, 19.

O.

- ORDERS in Council (Jan. 7, 1807), 6; (Nov. 11 and 21, 1807), 6; (April, 1809), 7.

P.

- PAPER blockades, 12; Professor Bernard on, 12.
- PARIS, Congress of, on blockade, 9.
- PENALTY of violation of blockade adheres only during blockade-running voyage, 43.
- PERIER on actual investment, 30.
- PHILLMORE on the Armed Neutrality, 5; on root-idea of blockade, 12; on declaration of blockade by other than the sovereign power, 15; on blockade de facto and blockade by notification, 21; on renewal of blockade, 32; on licenses to trade with blockaded ports, 33; on sailing with intention to evade blockade, 35; on inquiries, 38; on distinction between cargo and vessel, 48.
- PRINCIPLE regulating interference with neutral commerce, 8.
- PROOF of intention to violate blockade, 36.

S.

- SALE of vessels in blockaded ports, 26.
- SHIPS of half-civilized powers may not violate blockade, 44.
- STOWELL, Lord, definition of legal blockade, 8; on Berlin and Milan Decrees, 8; on three things essential to blockade, 9; on declaration of blockade by other than the sovereign power, 15; on the duty of government towards an officer who has enforced a blockade illegally, 16; on notification of blockade, 16; on distinction between blockade de facto and blockade by notification, 17; on the duty of a government to notify its subjects of the existence of blockade, 17; on due time for knowledge of blockade to spread, 19; on specific blockade, 21; did not consider previous warning under treaty indispensable in all cases, 22; on want of water and provisions as excuse for breach of blockade, 23; on neutral vessels coming out of blockaded port with cargo, 26; on goods sent in before blockade, 27; on sales of ships in blockaded port, 27; on effective blockade, 28; on occasional absence of blockading squadron, 34; on abandon-