

The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit: a broken and contrite heart O God shalt Thou not despise.

O be favourable and gracious unto Sion: build Thou the walls of Jerusalem.

Then shalt Thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness with the burnt offerings and oblations: then shall they offer young bullocks upon Thine altar.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

Answer.—As it was in the beginning, &c.

Then shall be said the following Versicles and Responses by the Minister and People.

V.—O Lord receive Thy work.

R.—In the midst of the years.

V.—Arise O Lord and judge Thou the earth.

R.—For thou shalt take all the heathen to Thine inheritance.

V.—Deliver us from blood guiltiness O God.

R.—For we have left undone those things which we ought to have done.

V.—Deliver us from all our offences.

R.—And make us not a rebuke unto the foolish.

V.—Shew Thy servants Thy work, and their children Thy Glory.

R.—Prosper Thou the work of our hands upon us, O prosper Thou our handy work.

V.—Awake, awake, put on strength, O Arm of the Lord.

R.—Awake as in the ancient days, in the generations of old.

V.—Stir up Thy strength, and come and help us.

R.—That thy way may be known upon earth, Thy saving health among all nations.

V.—Look upon the Covenant, O Lord.

R.—For all the earth is full of darkness and cruel habitations.

V.—Shew Thy marvellous loving kindness O Lord.

R.—O send out Thy Light and Thy Truth.

V.—When Thou lettest Thy Breath go forth they shall be made.

R.—And Thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

V.—Thou shalt shew us wonderful things in thy righteousness, O God of our salvation.

R.—Thou that art the hope of all the ends of the earth, and of them that remain in the broad sea.

V.—All nations whom Thou has made shall come and worship Thee O Lord.

R.—And shall glorify Thy name.
