

BOOK IX.

an execution, and
the loyalists who
spect of affairs
s greatest need,
nglish and Ger-

is undertook an
had succeeded',
towards Cana-
he had exposed
so great a dis-

militia of New recovering for Mount Indepen-
ge. He knew
isons. He ad-
corps into three
as to proceed to
to fall by sur-Johnston, was
nce, in order to
ould favor it;
d it in view to
dward. Colo-
l all the posts
Mount Hope,
possession of
gun boats; he
Colonel John-
Independence.
But brigadier
e was resolved
cannonade for all caliber, and constrained to
ositions.

np, on the left
g industry and
ard from Fort
ed about thirty
river with his ge to Albany.

BATTLE OF SARATOGA. Vol. II.—p. 9.

