· TERRORIZED BY WOMEN. Is That Reason for Owen Sound Voting for Local Option ?_

Mabee yesterday, in seeking to have people as evidenced by the vote, the January vote in Owen Sound, relating to local option, quashed, said in

"Is a person bound to be terrorized up to the last moment by one old lady who, acting in the cause of religion, foltaught, once and for all, that feminine interference that attempts to terrorize communities in that way, is to be suppressed in free communities?"

In addition to this, counsel contended that owing to the multiplicity of questions voted on at the time, much tiff that people were admitted to the polling booth while the voting was in progress, to show voters how to mark to-morrow and will remain so till Tuestheir ballots. It is also alleged that day, in order that departmental offithe voters were not allowed to vote on cials and employes may have opporthe local antion bylaw in the different tunity to enjoy the holiday.
