The London-Port Huron indoor base-Huron, Tuesday evening, was largely attended both by Sarnia and Port Huron citizens. The Forest City boys were easy marks for the Port Huron players, the score being 12 to 1 in Port Huron's favor.

WRESTLING.
AT SARNIA.

A crowd of 125 men assembled in the town hall, Sarnia, on Tuesday evening, to witness a wrestling match between "Billy" Jackson, of Toledo, and Martin's "unknown." The match was for an alleged purse of $1,000, and the conditions were: Best two out of three, catch-as-catch-can. The match was very interesting, and looked like a genuine contest of skill and strength in that particular style of wrestling.
Jackson was the first and third bouts.
The backer of the unknown, who came from Tilbury, and is said to be a butcher, dropped in the neighborhood of $750 on the match.

Doctors now agree that consumption is curable.

Three things, if taken together, will cure nearly every case in the first stages; the majority of cases more advanced; and a few of those far advanced.

The first is, fresh air; the second, proper food; the third, Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil with hypophosphites.

To be cured, you must not lose in weight, and, if thin, you must gain. Nothing equals Scott's Emulsion to keep you in good flesh.

ARCHBISHOP

OF TORONTO

Appointment of Most Rev. Denis O'Connor, D.D., of London.

Who Continues to Follow in the Footsteps of the Late Archbishop Walsh —A Popular Selection—Sketch of the New Archbishop.

Toronto, April 5.—The Catholic Register, of this city, publishes the following official announcement regarding the archbishopric of Toronto, which has been vacant since the death of Archbishop Walsh, on Aug. 1, last year:

St. Michael's Palace, April 5, 1899.— It will be learned with pleasure that the new archbishop of Toronto has been chosen by the Holy See. I am authorized to state that the Most Rev.
Denis O'Connor, D.D., Bishop of London, received his official appointment as archbishop of Toronto, last week.
The installation will take place in St.
Michael's Cathedral probably the first week in May. Due notice will be given of the precise date of this imposing ceremony. In the meantime the very reverend administrator will continue to look after the affairs of the archdiocese. The "Te Deum" will be sung after the late mass on next Sunday in all the city churches as a thanksgiving to the Almighty. (Signed) Jos. J. McCann, administrator, archdiocese.

There were three names submitted to the consideration of the pope. The nomination of the clergy of the Toronto diocese was Vicar-General Mc-Cann, the present administrator of the archdiocese. But the bishops of the ecclesiastical province of which the archdiocese of Toronto is a part, chose names from the ranks of the clergy, and sent them along with Bishop McCann's name to Rome. Both of these names happened to be O'Connor, the bishop of London, and the other bishop of Peterboro, and the London prelate was the choice of the Vatican.

Most Rev. Denis O'Connor, D.D., archbishop-elect, was born of Irish parentage in the township of Pickering, in the Toronto diocese, March 28, 1841. In many respects his career has been similar to that of the late Archbishop Walsh. The late archbishop was a priest in the diocese of Toronto before he became bishop of London, and was transferred from the London see to the archbishopric. Archbishop O'Connor received a large part of his education at St. Michael's College in Toronto, and has received preferment in the same way as his predecessor.

His elevation is approved by all ranks of the clergy and laity. He has administered the diocese of London most capably, has paid off a large debt on the cathedral, and will leave the diocese in a flourishing condition. He is agreed to be by age, experience, education and ability the fittest man to fill the highest ecclesiastical position in Ontario.
Incidentally, it may be mentioned that the archbishopric of Toronto is not very far from the red hat, and that if another Canadian cardinal is appointed, Toronto may get it. Bishop O'Connor is a man of European education. After his theological course in Canada, he studied in Germany and at Rome, deepening and strengthening his knowledge in many departments. He returned to Canada in 1863, and was ordained priest at St.
Mary's Church, Toronto. The first years of his ministry were spent as professor, but to this was very early added the supervision of the temporal affairs of the college; and in both relations he showed such talent for business and direction that before the age of thirty he was appointed superior of the college.
His elevation in Sandwich, which the late Archbishop Walsh—then of London—was striving to put on a new footing.
He was principal of this college for some time, and was transferred thence to the see of London. In 1888 he received the degree of doctor of divinity.
He is an aggressive and energetic prelate.

His translation leaves the see of London vacant, and although it has not been officially announced, it is believed that Vicar-General McCann will be transferred to the bishopric.

THE BIG ROADS

Annual Meeting of C. P. R. Shareholders—Big Increase in G. T. R.

Montreal, April 6.—The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Canadian Pacific Railway was held here yesterday.

Aylmer branch to the C.P.R. The issue of securities on the extension of the Pipestone and Stonewall branches was authorized, and the lease of the Columbia and Western Railway approved. An extended agreement with the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie Railway Company—the "Soo Line"—was approved, providing for taking up certain maturing interest-bearing obligations of that comquired, by the creation of five million dollars' second mortgage four per cent be guaranteed by the C. P. R. on a million and a half of the bonds, to be held by trustee against future requirements, subject to control of the C.P.R.

This arrangement is calculated to enable the Soo Company to apply regularly earnings to interest and dividends, and to repay from earnings C. P. R. interest advances in annual installments.

The expenditure of $728,255 on capital account was authorized. The old board was unanimously re-elected, and at a subsequent meeting of the board the former officers and executive committee were re-elected.

the 2nd to the 31st of March, 1899, $729,537; 1898, $674,045; increase, $55,492.

NOTES OF SPORT.
Tommy Britton and Oakland Baron have been matched to trot at Terre Haute for $10,000 during the September meeting.

Jim Corbett has formally announced his retirement from the ring, and will henceforth spend his time in mixing cocktails, drawing beer and other regular duties of the dispenser of liquid refreshments.

Pitcher Sudhoff wanted $2,400 to pitch for the new St. Louis club. Tebeau offered him $2,100 as a starter, but Sudhoff kicked. Tebeau then put a tag on him and shipped him to the Cleveland club, where he will draw $1,500.

WALKERVILLE WEDDING.

Windsor, April 6.—Miss Mary Fraser Keighley, niece of Wm. Robins, manager for Hiram Walker & Sons, was married yesterday morning to James Cleghorn, of Montreal. Miss Keighley is the daughter of W. W. Keighley, of Toronto. She came to Walkerville with her grandmother to visit Mrs.
Robins, and during the visit the old lady was stricken with paralysis. Miss Keighley remained with her and attended to her every want till the last, and it was six years before the end came. By that time the Robins family had become so attached to her that they induced her to remain with them as their adopted daughter. The bridegroom has been for 18 years with John Hope & Co., of Montreal, the leading wine and liquor house in Canada. No invitations were sent out. The wedding took place at St. Mary's Church, Rev.
W. H. Batterby officiating. Miss Ina
