MAGISTRATE IS CAUSTIC ACTING MAYOR CONTENT

Allan Durst and Henry Strub, two self-confessed deserters from the vicinity of Kitchener, were each fined $500 or one year in jail by Magistrate A. H. M. Graydon in police court today. Both men paid their fines.

Durst, who is 23 years of age, was the young chap who astonished the court two weeks ago by confessing that the reason he did not register was because he was afraid to go to war.

That the daylight saving bylaw passed last Friday by the city council may have some bearing on the legality of the action of the council at its Monday meeting in deciding to ask the Regislature to approve of increased fares for the London Street Railway Company, is the opinion expressed in certain city hall circles today. The question is raised whether the council met at 7:45 or 6:45.
