braves, whom it regarded as the bar-Men." It has known Murphy's follow-ers only as they have been depicted in cartoons. It expected red-faced, heavily-jowled, flashily-dressed men, with dyed moustaches and rolls of yellow-backed bills. Despatches from New York, prom-inently displayed in the local news-papers, have 'told how the Tammany men were coming west in five special of two hundred thousand dollars, and bringing besides eighty-four hundred pints of champagne, thirty thousand bottles of beer, 1650 quarts of whiskey, 175,000 clgars and thirty-five tons of ice. Denver looked forward to this the Wellington Hotel for a suite of ice. Denver looked for as the small boy anticl-
