EDUCATIONAL. FIRST-CLASS SCHOOL

PELLIOTT

W. J. ELLIOTT, P.

NDERS WANTED

iders will be received onday noon, March 7, arious trades required rection of a residence lowest or any tender n sarily accepted ns and specifications ma

RLING & PEARSON 2 Leader Lan

D OF EDUCATION

ENDERS WANTED. nders, addressed to the Seasurer of the Board, will

NOON, FEB. 25TH, 1916 s' and plasterers' work he erection of a new eleva

BUILDING, LOGAN AVENUE d specifications may be seen attended to the seen at the off Board. City Hall. Each ten e accompanied by the depoyin the said specifications and tender. The lowest or any

H. SMITH. Chairman of Com C. WILKINSON. Secretary-Treasurer

TION SALE

NOGRAPH GOODS

of chattel mortgage, and cted, I will sell by public Wednesday, the 23rd day y, 1910, on premises, No. Street, all the goods and ice furniture and fixtures, of books, type writing honographs, records, parother goods. le will be offered en not sufficient offer the ne goods will be sold in

E. GEGG,

FBRAU Extract of Malt invigorating preparation ever introduced to help he invalid or the athlete E. Chemist, Toronto. adian Agent. FACTURED BY 246

rdt Salvador Brewery ted., Torento. DE REFINED OILS

RICATING OILS ND GREASES NO THE WAR THE GO

QUETTE DEFEATED ind in His Race for Que

c Mayoralty. eb. 21.-(Special.)-Aldas to-day elected mayor returned are pledged erance and municipal

Ind. Feb. 21.—The F. Johnson, aged 54, of the State National uct. and who served the State Native to the state of the state of the federal was found in the watch and jewelf by a few cents were to the state of the sta ted suicide.

zzled $250,000 of the ank of which he was ince his release from in the brokerage busi-

Banker Drowned.

a thousand votes, de-P. A. Choquette. Both sick kidneys cause. But they can't help it. If more work is but Droin was supportput on them than they can stand it is not ier Parent, chairman of to be wondered that they get out of order. Weak back is simply a warning from the kidneys and should be attended to lently thought that it if the railway and the immediately so as to avoid years of terrible suffering from kidney troubles. Doan's Kidney Pills will cure you in the uette's election looked same way as they have cured thousands days ago, but a wave

Miss Alberta B. Clarke, Stoney Creek, Ont., writes:—"I was troubled with kidney trouble for several years; my back was weak, I had such terrible headaches, and was so restless I could not sleep at night and tried everything without enefit. Meantime a friend advised right during daffodil time.

prano voice, which was heard to great

Miss Elsa Ryan as Toinette, maid to Miss Frances Kennedy won favor, and

The humor of the comedy rests large ly with Frank Daniels, who gave the Women

Cannot be Strong and Healthy Unless the Kidneys are Well.

Weak, lame or aching backs are the first sign of Kidney Trouble.

It is hard to do housework with a weak and aching back. Backaches come from sick kidneys, and what a lot of trouble er ordinary conditions they ought the marquis played with acceptance.

vantage in her musical numbers.

me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, so I got four boxes and they completely cured me. I now feel as well as I ever did and would advise everyone suffering from Kidney Disease to try them."

Price 50 cents per box, or 3 for $1.25, at all dealers or The T. Milburn Co., Limited, In ordering specify "Doan's."

role of the marquis an original and thoroly amusing interpretation. His byplay's kept the audience in constant laughter and in response to insistent recalls be delivered as laughter and in response to insistent recalls he delivered a speech, than which nothing could have been more provocative of hilarity. Frank Rushworth, who took the role of Raymond, gave good support, as did Martin Brown as the chef. Both sang well and Mr. Rushworth's dancing was evidently one of the popular features. Hubert Neville gave an eccentric characterization of the fashionable Compte Victoire and Al Wilder made the most of the part of Poquelin. The singing and dancing of the chorus were unusually good and altogether "The Belle of present that the same of the part of Poquelin." theme new to that writer, contrasting with his earlier productions inasmuch as it is fragrant with an entire absence of the over-wrought sex problem. The action is continuous, and the dialog, save for touches of comedy, sufficient to relieve the intensity, bears directly upon the story to be unfolded. Briefly, the plot deals with the devotion of Dorothy Faringay for her brother Arnold, who is a defaulter for three thousand pounds. To protect brother Arnold, who is a defaulter for three thousand pounds. To protect him, she seeks to gain the good will of Edward Thursfield, a bridge engineer, to whose undertaking in Egypt the amount had been charged. Tho engaged at the time to Walter Gresham, she allows Thursfield to fall in love with her, and when Arnold confesses to the theft, Thursfield generously advances the amount. At first Dorothy repudiates Thursfield's generosity and

TUESDAY MORNING

"The Builder of Bridges."

Alfred Sutro's latest play, "The ilder of Bridges," which was presentof for the first time in Toronto at the

Kyrle Bellew, as Edward Thursfield,

Royal Alexandra

cess Theatre last night with Kyrle llew in the title role, introduces a vances the amount. At first Dorothy repudiates Thursfield's generosity and appeals to Gresham, who refuses to lend his aid, the engagement is broken off, and Thursfield becomes her fiance. Gresham returns with the money. Thursfield withdrawing, a distillusioned man, but Dorothy, who has grown to love Thursfield, succeeds in winning back his affection by a full streamptor. is nothing forced in it. The various parts of the play fit naturally into one another and follow with the well-ordered sequence which pleases all classes of people—the casual playgoer, the habitue of the theatre, the one who goes for entertainment only, the one who goes with a critical sense, and the one who goes with a critical sense, and the one has all the polish and discrimination which is the highest expression of the English comedy drama. He has lost none of his delightful urbanity, easy poise and those graces of manner which have in the past distinguished him. Miss Gladys Hansom, as Dorothy Faringay, was truly feminine, and it is to be regretted that the lines did not give more scope for her talent. De Witt C. Jennings, who represented Sir Hanry Killick head of the firm. goes with a critical sense, and the one who likes no play of a suggestive character. This is due, doubtless, to the it's Lent. truth of the play to human nature. It don't raise is full of wit and pathos and rings true t every moment.

AT THE THEATRES

"Checkers" is a story of the frequenter

"the recent the start of the frequenter by walked out to the front of the stage De Witt C. Jennings, who represented Sir Henry Killick, head of the firm, is reminiscent of some of Dickens' characterizations, embodying the irascible but warm-hearted Englishman. Mrs. Thomas Wiffen, in the part of Mrs. Debney, a widow of 50, contributed much of the comedy. The parts of Arnold Faringay and Walter Gresham were adequately taken by Eugene O'Brien and Frank Connor respectively. "Checkers" is a story of the frequenter of the race track, who is sound of heart and in the cardinal morals of mankind. He is brought to a desire to reform his daily life thru the love of a beautiful girl but he stumbles, and yet recovers himself in such gallant fashion as to make glad the hearts of his audience, that all comes out right in the end. The play has in it the note of love for those play has in it the note of love for those who are interested in the old, old story, and it is told in a sweet, charming way. and is embodied in the model dairy There is the thrill of fierce excitement bill of Victoria colony. in the race track scene for such as love In the practical recomm

Majestic

Daly's Theatre. The book, written Leedham Bantock and P. J. Barrow, develops a story possessing con-tinuity of interest; the music, by How-ard Talbot and Marie Horne, is bright Fred Karno's London Company. and Talbot and Marie Horne, is bright and tuneful and above the average in this class of production, and the lyrics are more appropriate to the comedy than usually happens.

Judging from the numerous recalls and prevalent enjoyment that were the conspicuous features of last night's conspicuous features of conspicuous features of last lights with the construction of the figures of last lights with the construction of the figures of last lights with the construction of the figures of last lights with the construction of the figures of last lights with the construction of the figures of last lights with the construction of the c tive. Beautiful staging, rich costumes, er, no lover of genuine humor should are over 125,000 more or less tubercugood singing, really clever dancing and miss this turn, which has not a dull lous animals. It is to be feared, how-a liberal sprinkling of humorous interludes gave zest to the performance and provided ample amusement. This atter all is what the general public find most congenial and the proclivities could. Incidentally, while performing a hairnot have been more desirably met than they were in "The Belle of Brittany." knife an apple conveniently perched on The story turns on the plight of an assistant's head.

old French marquis, who has given a The Mayvilles, hu

The Mayvilles, human manonettes, estate miller. In order to pay it the marquis plans a marriage between his dienne, came in for well merited appreciation. mortgage on the family chateau to the was another excellent turn, and Sadie

Marshall and King danced gracefully, ut love and fate intervene. Raymond Miss King in her novelty, "The Bra-zilian Robber Dance of the Hills," givfalls in love with the miller's daughter: she finds she cannot love the Parisian chef that her parents desire her to marry; he cannot escape from his Par-sichorean art, and Gillihan and Murmarry; he cannot escape from his Parray evoked lots of laughter in their isian sweetheart and at last all comes clever and humorous turn.

This week's show, from first to last Miss Christine Nielson, who took the part of the miller's daughter, has a charming and highly cultivated so favorite with lovers of good vaudeville.

Shea's

the marquis, also made an entirely fa- Kris Kringle in Song and Pantomime. vorable impression by her singing and fine dancing. As Madame Poqueline, Not in a long time has Toronto seen so exquisite a spectacle for the amuse ment of little children as, is Kris Kringle's Dream, the vehicle employ-Miss Florence Rother as the ward of Kringle's Dream, the vehicle chapter of the consumer. 'Maintaining ed by The Allison-Sangor Company at Shea's this week. There is song and delightful pantomime aplenty and two pertinently pointed out, "has not affect the price of bread nor driven." delightful pantomime aplenty and two large houses in which the kiddies were distinctly noticeable enjoyed it to the full vesterday. There is a polar bear, about as natural and three times as funny as any real denizen of the north. There is Jack-in-the-box and the Peppermint Kid and the Doll Priness and a host of the folks cutting apers in the workshop of Santa Claus. Come kiddies, come. That is the answer to this funniest and most tuneful of all sketches for the little

The acrobatic numbers, of which there are two on the bill, are of unusual excellence. The Three Ernests to be strong and ready to bear the burdens of life. have a horizontal bar and bouncing pad, which is a scream from start to finish, and the balancing and general athletic work of the Three Nevarros is one loud round of applause thruout. Elizabeth Murray with Irish and funny stout lady that she has been getting to be. Charlie Chase, the one ig grin, in black face, is there with more tales of the brother who would so honest if he did not steal, and Patterson and Kauffman dance well and sing fairly well.

Edwina Barry, supported by William Richards & Co., has a tremendously funny sketch in "The Home-Breaker."

Star

Torontonian in Burlesque.

Tom McRae, an old Toronto boy, is the star of the Big Empire Show playing at the Star this week. McRae was one of the famous Scotch dancers in will doubtless be well remembered by Right Rev. J. F. Sweeney, Bishop of To many of the Scotch residents. He is in Dr. McTaggart's vegetable remedles for as good form to-day as before, a fact that can be proven by anyone who takes a little trip to the theatre and sees him still doing the same old stunts. The burlesques give McRae good scope for his gift of fun-making, and he is the one big hit of the show. The two burlettas are woven around the adveny are one continual scream. The is even better than the burlesques, and includes such well-known enter-tainers as Azalea Fontain, some singer; Rose and Ellis, barrel jugglers of ex-traordinary ability, and the Comey Four, a quartet that has large laughs and good songs. The feature of the olio, however, is Payton and Wilson, two blackfaced comedians, who are the real thing when it comes to using the down south dialect.

Gayety

Gay Masqueraders. Two hours of solid amusement and unmaking is the feature of M'lle Ani's Gay Masqueraders at the Gayety this week is a musical burlesque, "Mis-of the part of Poquelin. The singing and dancing of the chorus were unusually good and altogether "The Belle of Brittany" met with a well-deserved success. This week there will be a matinee on Saturday only.

Grand

"Checkers."

There is no gainsaying the fact that "Checkers" is to the liking of the playgors of this city. Last night's audience at the Grand was a big one, and in enthusiasm was just as big.

"Checkers" has proved to be a delightful play. The character sketches are numerous and capitally drawn. The story is a simple, natural tale of love and iuck of the present day, and the parliamentary committee on the antigambling bill would probably gain considerable information if they attended a performance. It is unstrained. There is nothing forced in it. The various parts of the play fit naturally into one and the parts of the play fit naturally into one and the parts of the play fit naturally into one and the parts of the play fit naturally into one and the parts of the play fit naturally into one and the parts of the play fit naturally into one and the parts of the play fit naturally into one and the parts of the play fit naturally into one and the parts of the play fit naturally into one and the parts of the play fit naturally into one and the parts of the play fit naturally into one and the parts of the play fit naturally into one and the parts of the play fit naturally into one and the curtain rises. The cause of all the trouble, or nearly all of it, is all the trouble, or nearly all of it, is a therefore. The curtain rises. The cause of all the trouble, or nearly all of it, is all the trouble, or nearly all of it, is all the trouble, or nearly all of it, is all the trouble, or nearly all of it, is all the trouble, or nearly all of it, is all the trouble, or nearly all of it, is all the trouble, or nearly all of it, is all the trouble, or nearly all of it, is meat, he remarked: "It's a good thing it's Lent. We can eat fish, if they don't raise the scales on us." Several beautiful violin solos were given by

Continued From Page 1.

In the practical recommendations for The Belle of Brittany.

To those who prefer English musical comedy without American adaptation "The Belle of Brittany," presented at the Royal Alexandra last night, should specially appeal. First offered at the Queen's Theatre, London, it met with splendid success, repeated at New York, where it proved one of the strongest attractions and drew crowds to Daly's Theatre. The book, written to Daly's Theatre. The book, written to Daly's Theatre. The book, written to Daly's Theatre. to feel their nerves tingle. There is, not the tear exactly, but the lump in the cleanliness and coldness at every cattle before milking, first drawn milk to be discharged,immediate removal of milk from the stable, scrupulous care as to personal cleanliness of the milk-

"It is not to be expected," the report continues, "that any revolution can be wrought in a week or a month." Two great difficulties are the tenant farm-mate of five per cent. means there are over 125,000 more or less tubercuever, that the true total would be nearer double that number. One of the most potent causes of the disease in this province is the low, dark, close, foul-smelling stables in which the cattle are housed.

The most frequent cause of infection in cases of typhoid, scarlet fever and diphtheria is from persons with one of the diseases, milking or handling the milk. Care should be given to the transportation and retailing. "Milk should be sold in shops only in bottles, except in shops restricted to dairy products." The larger cities, at least, should maintain bacteriological laboratories and tests.

Pasteurization is declared to be an expedient, but not an ideal. If done at all it should be done properly. No milk should be sold as pasteurized unless held at 140 degrees for at least be extended to "certified" milk. Will Not Increase Price. The commission is of opinion that attention to these recommendations would not materially increase the price to the consumer. "Maintaining a fected the price of bread nor driven bakers out of business." A wealth of information gathered by the commission in its inspections of American and other cities and their methods is included in the report, which also goes into methods in Copenhagen and London. Attention is called to the work of the Canadian Medical Milk Commission, organizing local commissions in every city in Canada. The only ones so far are at Toronto, Otin Ontario tawa and Hamilton. The educational value of the Ontario Agricultural College is commended. In Owen Sound the commission found modern, progressive bylaw regulating and licensing milk vendors."

In dairy farm conditions the district around Ottawa is declared to "lead the province."

The establishment of civic mi'k depots for infant milk supply is highly recommended. In 1908 there were 8662 deaths under one year (excluding still-These figures, the commis hirths). sion is confident, can be reduced by

A. McTAGGART, M.D., C.M. 75 Yonge St., Toronto, Canada

References as to Dr. McTaggart's professional standing and personal integrity permitted by:
Sir W. R. Meredith, Chief Justice.
Hon. G. W. Ross, ex-Premier of Ontario.
Rev. N. Burwash. D.D., President Victorial College.
Rev. Facher, Teefty, President of St. Mich.

For the Woman Who Has Beautiful Hair

(New York Theatrical News.)
The beauties in the Anna Held thorus are famous for their pulchritude. Their coiffures add a great always the same well-groomed appearance, is beyond the ken of the average woman. But, listen while I whisper, these girls depend altogether upon dry shampooing to keep their hair fine and glossy.

They mix 4 ounces of powdered orristory with a concess of the provided the provid root with 4 ounces of therox, and they are prepared for a season's shampcoing. Once or twice a week they sprinkle a tablespoonful of this mixsprinkle a tablespoonful of this mixture on the head and then brush the powder well through the hair. That is all there is to it, and they have escaped the bother and discomfort that accompany washing, rinsing and drying the hair, together with the danger of catching cold.

The powder well through the hair together with the danger of catching cold.

The powder well through the hair together with the danger of catching cold.

The powder well through the hair through the powder well well well well well well well and then brush the powder well through the hair through the powder well through the hair. That is all there is to it, and they have established the powder well through the hair. That is all there is to it, and they have established through the hair. That is all there is to it, and they have escaped the bother and discomfort that accompany washing, rinsing and drying the hair. That is all there is to it, and they have escaped the bother and discomfort that accompany washing, rinsing and drying the hair, together with the danger of catching cold.

ISLANDERS WON'T PAY

City Treasurer Will, However, Cellect if Possible—Case Against Mrs. Lane, committee yesterday, City Treasurer Coady reported that eleven island for the work, which was carried out in 1908 at a time when the high level sary.

There were 103 leaseholders benefited by the improvement, which cost $1739.09, and 92 have paid. The amount out-

The city treasurer was instructed to make another effort to recover pay-

Architect Approved Plans.

The city's case against Mrs. Mary Lane, charged with proceeding with the erection of a house at Centre Island without the city's permission, came up before Magistrate Kingsford yesterday afternoon, and was adjourned after evidence apparently favorable to Mrs. Lane had been given by G.

carrying out the city's order that all Mara, Mr. and Mrs. Scythes, Mr.

Dr. Sheard reports that the latest analysis of the city water shows a marked improvement, there being a bacteria count of only 320 per as against 2500 on the previous count. He advises, however, that boiling be continued. He is convinced from the fact that the bacteria count increases when the water of the lake is stirred up, that the source of pollution is entirely at the intake pipe.

IN THE HOMES

20 minutes. Milk raised to 165 degrees for 30 seconds should be sold as "heated." Similar legal protection should Bringing Health to Weak, Despondent People.

> There is not a nook or corner in Canada, in the cities, towns, villages and farms where Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have not been used, and from one end of the country to the other they have brought back to breadwinners, their wives and families the splendid treasure of new health and new strength. You have only to ask your neighbors and they can tell you of some nerve-shattered man, suffering woman, ailing young er unhappy anaemic girl who owes present health and strength to Dr. Wilsuccess is due to the fact that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills go right to the root of the disease in the blood, and by making the vital fluid rich and red strengthen every organ and every nerve, thus driving out disease and Mr. Joseph Lacombe, Quebec says: "To-day I weigh about forty pounds more than I did a year ago, and am in every way in much sound-er health. For upwards of two years I had been studying hard to pass my examinations and my health had completely given way under the strain, I ost flesh rapidiy, my appetite was gone, my nerves were greatly weaken-I was obliged to abandon my studies and was in a state of co Liquor 5 Tobacco Habits

Liquor 5 Tobacco Habits

A. McTAGGART, M.D., C.M.

To Young St., Toronto, Canada. I had not used more than a couple of boxes when I could feel an improvement, and hope returned. I continued using the pills for some weeks longer, with the result that my strength increased daily and I was soon able to take over my studies and work with cal Keltic societies are invited. as much energy as I had ever done. teasts will be responded to by To-day I am in perfect health, and I Broome, organist and choirn attribute my recovery solely to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

You can get these Pills from any me-

SOCIETY NOTES

Eckley, 665 Spadina-avenue, will receive on Tuesday, Feb. 22, and not again this setson.

marriage with her mother, Mrs. D. Hunter, 121 Dovercout-road, on Friday ston, and her sister, Mrs. Carman Montreal, were the guests of their aunt Mrs. Gibson at government house for the week-end.

The engagement is announced of Miss Sarah Finklestein to Mr. Samuel Fischman. The wedding to take place in September. The Toronto Suffrage Association will day evening. Rev. Percy Billings will speak on "How the Women got the Vote in Australia." Mr. Bell Smith will give recitations. The Conservatory School of Expression has issued invitations for a recital by Miss Helen B. Robertson on Thursday, Feb. 24, in the Conservatory Music Hall. Invitations may be had upon application at the office of the Conservatory of Music. Rev. Dr. Alex. Gilray is confined to his residence, 367 Palmerston-boule-vard, suffering from a bad cold. He has been forced to remain indoors since Sunday week. Nothing serious is feared. Dr. Gilray has been pastor of College-street Presbyterian Church for William Whyte, second vice-president of the Canadian Pacific, passed thru Toronto in his private car "Manitoba" en route to Montreal to his home in Winnipeg yesterday.

N. C. R. BALL.

ASSIGNEE BRINGS SUIT John Wilson Trying to Recover Money

John Wilson of New Liskeard, who is assignee for the estate of the late William Murray of that town, is suing J. W. Fitzpatrick for the recovery of money due on promissory notes made in favor of the deceased. The plaintiff's claim is for $4937. The notes were given OF FAIR CANADA as part payment for parcels of land which defendant purchased from Mr.

Murray. In defence Mr. Fitzpatrick claims that he did not receive proper consideration of land value and especially a certain portion along the Wabis River, which he wanted particularly, he says, he was unable to obtain. Consequently he claimed he was not entitled to pay nots, but, on the contrary, put in a counter claim for $8000 damages. case was heard before Justice Teetzel in the non-jury assize court and will be concluded to-day.

Prof. Mackenzie Submits Scheme to Education Board.

University, a fellow of the British Institute of Actuaries, has submitted a pension scheme for the Toronto school teachers to the board of education. Four alternative plans are embraced in the scheme, and Prof. Mackenzie suggests that teachers should be compelled to elect which scheme they pre-fer before Sept. 1.

1. A pension for life on retirement. Return without interest of all his contributions to any teacher who re tires without qualifying for a pension 3. Return without interest of all contributions paid by a member in the event of his dying before retirement with a pension.

He further suggests that the board should contribute a fixed proportion towards annual premium of each teacher, and that the fund should be valued

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ross of Avenue-road are spending a short vacation in New York at Hotel Chelsea. Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Fisher of this city are in Atlantic City, N.J. Mrs. H. C. Wilson, 23 Wilton-cresdeal to their charms. How they can 'manage' such abundance of beautiful tresses day in and day out, keeping always the same well-groomed appearalways the same well-groomed appearance. Mrs. H. C. Wilson, 25 Wilson, 26 Wilson, 27 Wilson, 28 Wil with there convinces me that it is the only thing that can grow hair, for their hair is long and abundant in accition to being fluffy and lustrous.

West Walnut-place, Philadelphia, for the past six weeks.

Mrs. A. F. Demary, 10 Lyall-avenue, will receive on Wednesday of this week and not again this season.

Miss Wilson is the Mrs. Frank Axworthy (nee Hunter) will receive for the first time since her

Mrs. D. Stewart Robertson, King-

hold their regular meeting in the People's Institute (Zion Church), on Thurs-

Enjoyable Function Saturday Evening. Headed by Mr. F. E. Mutton, general manager for Canada, the officers of the National Cash Register Co., tendered a briliant dance function to their Ald. McCausland complains of the Geddes, Miss Laura Hambly, Mr. and anner in which theatre managers are. Mrs. Chas Rickets, Mr. and Mrs. Fred exits are to be opened after each perfermance. He says that the doors are suddenly thrown open before the theatre patrons have time to don their coats. After the suddenly thrown open before the theatre patrons have time to don their coats. theatre patrons have time to don their Miss Tolminson, Miss Cummings, Messis.

Harry Kelson, Robt. Irvine, A. H.
Baker, Mr. Gordon Tomlinson, Ernest
Moores, A. R. Richies, Frank and Arthur Follett, Douglas Gorrie.

on Promissory Notes.

PENSIONS FOR TEACHERS

Prof. M. A. Mackenzie of Toront

The benefits offered by each plan are:

every five years. St. David's Society.

The annual banquet of St. David's Society (Welsh) will be held at Mc-Conkey's Tuesday evening, March 1. President Thomas P. Williams will be in the chair and act as toastmaster. All the prominent members of the lo teasts will be responded to by Dr Broome, organist and choirm Jarvis-street Baptist Church; Rev. Dr. Thomas, pastor of same church; Alex ander MacDonald, and Alex. Fraser, dicine dealer or by mail at 50c a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

and Alex. Fraser, president and ex-president of the Gaelic Society, and D'Arcy Hinds, president of the Gaelic, and Dr. J. D. Logan, philoceltist.

The Beauty Question

It is not to cosmetics and artificial applications to the skin and complexion that one must depend for physical comeliness, but to pure, healthy blood.

(A la Quina du Pérou)

-A Big Bracing Tonic-

eradicates all poisonous accumulations, restores healthy action to the skin by sending a supply of rich, pure blood to it; the pores are opened and impurities allowed to pass off, making the skin soft, smooth and velvety.

Dr. J. J. DAVIS, M. R. C. S. Eng., L. R. C. P. Lon.

"I can recommend "Wilson's Invalids' Port". The patients like it and one gets results. It is a good tonic".

BIG BOTTLE

Everywhere. 68

of Light

The Leaders ALWAYS Since 1851 Everywhere in Canada

ASK FOR

The Most Perfect

Matches

Struck!

You Ever

All Druggists.

Eddy's Matches

COAL AND WOOD

W. McGILL & CO.

Cor. Bathurst & Farley Av. 429 Queen W.

Abuse of the Privileges Accorded by the Issue of Fishing Licenses by Settlers. "I regret having been compelled to her of fishermen, farmers and others, who, having obtained licenses for alleged domestic purposes, have grossly abused the privileges accorded them, by illegally catching, selling and exporting black bass," says E. Tinsley, superintendent of fish and game, in his annual report to the department. "These parties foolishly kill the goose that lays the golden egg. Most of these infractions occurred in locali-ties and vicinities of summer resorts visited by large numbers of foreign tourists, the attraction being the angling for bass and other game fish. These men, if alive to their own interests, would neither violate the law ner allow others to do so. Having a market for their produce and a de mand for their services as guides, etc.

ernment in protecting and perpetuating the interests of those evidently unable to protect themselves." Absurd Regulations. He expresses regret at "the absurd and unwise regulations" in certain parts of Lake Erie. "I fail to realize he says, "how any matter of exped-ioncy would justify the issuing of regulations to fishermen allowing them to take whitefish from the spawning grounds during the entire close sea son. These absurd and unjust regula tions make it impossible for this de-partment to enforce the laws in other localities where close seasons are suppesed to be observed. No natter where and highly remunerative terms should convince them of the folly of their past hey came from the exempted disfingerlings" by means of a pond at Brantford, a new experiment, is noted. At least 25,000 of these were raised and used in restocking the and used in restocking the waters of the province. Increased efficiency of the patrol service is a matter for congratulation, especially in the work of the new boat

"Navarch" on the Bay of Quinte, Lake

whitefish are procured during the close season, dealers and others affirm Ontario, St. Lawrence River and Ri-Pollution of Waterways. Special attention is called to the necessity for the prevention of the pollution of waterways within the province. "Some two years ago," he states, "a letter reached me from the reeve of the oriental peoples.

a village situated on the banks of The treasurer's report showed great-fish that had been killed by deleterious matter from a nearby factory. Many of the fish so wantonly destroy-LAYS THE GOLDEN EGGS residents, been recently placed at considerable expense in these waters for restocking."

1143 Yonge St.

restocking "

LOST HEIR OR IMPOSTER? Peculiar Fight for Fortune in the

Massachusetts Courts. CAMBRIDGE, Mass. Feb. 21 .- A hundred days' wrangle over the right-ful claimant to the $750,000 estate of the prosecute during the present year for late Daniel Russell of Melrose, has not infractions of the fishery laws a numand Jarndyce of Massachusetts juris-prudence, but has developed sufficient testimony to warrant criminal action no matter which way the scales of justice fall. A tall, dark-haired, well tanned man from the plains of North Dakota stands before the Middlesex probate court, either as the long lost son of his father or an accomplished impostor. He says he is Daniel Blake Russell, the second son of Daniel Russell, who disappeared when a boy, and that he did not hear of his father's death until a year after the estate had been practically settled. Opposite stands William C. Russell, the elder son and principal beneficiary under the will, surrounded by an array of the highest priced lawyers in the state, who set up the defence that the North Dakota giant is really James Rousseau of Malone, N.Y., and that he has been backed in his fight for the Russell property by a particularly clever group of gamblers in or about Dickinson, N.D.

The case to date has cost $200,000.

ASSASSIN'S BULLET FATAL Egyptian Premier is Dead-Victim of Political Conspiracy. CAIRO, Egypt, . Feb., 21.-Boutres Pasha Ghall, the Egyptian premier and minister of foreign affairs, who was shot by a student yesterday, died at 8 clock this morning. It was at first thought the wounds were not serious.

A score of arrests of supposed accomplices have been made, and a quantity of literature seized that shows the Mission to Lepers was held yesterday afternoon, in the rooms of the Bible Training School. Hon. President Dr. Parsons was in the chair. A paper was read by the president, Mrs. Trees, describing the work carried on in Tracadie, N.B., the only lazaretto in

Dr. Kilborn, who for the past 17 years has been working amongst the Chinese, gave a very interesting talk on the ravages of this disease among a village situated on the banks of the Grand River to the effect that in-his official capacity in the interests of the inhabitants he had been com-pelled to have buried tons of putrid

Does not Color the Hair

Ayer's Hair Vigor is composed of Sulphur, Glycerin, Quinin, Sodium Chlorid, Capsicum, Sage, Alcohol. Water, Perfume.

Show this to your doctor. Ask him if there is a single injurious ingredient. Ask him if he thinks Ayer's Hair Vigor, as made from this formula, is the best preparation you could use for falling hair, or for dandruff. Let him decide. He knows.

J. O. AYBR COMPANY, Lowell. Mass.