Caps Easy for Toronto. Torontos and Capitals lined up o Saturday at Scarboro Beach, and the former enjoyed the game as the would a holiday. The Torontos hat the game won before the Capitals were on the field five minutes, and the gam was more of a burlesque than any thing else. There was never a chance of the Capitals with the capital with t of the Capitals winning, in spite of the stupendous efforts of Bowery Robertson on the side lines. His advictors good, but the Capitals were apparently not listening, for the To parently not listening, for the Torontos continued to get goal after goal until at half-time the score was to 1, with a promise of being twice that at the end of the game. At that the Torontos were playing a loose game, and were putting up anything but the championship article. The line-up:

NATIONAL YACHT CLUB Annual Regatta Held Saturday on the Bay-Results.

Scores of yachtsmen and aquatic enthusiasts througed the lake front yesterday to see the events of the eighteenth annual regatta of the National Yacht Club run off. A splendid breeze was blowing, a "blustering hor wester," as some called it, and the sailing was excellent. The course was a triangle, two miles and a half, twice around. It started at the south pier of the western gap and ran as far as the island, and then back to Dufferin street wharf. Eleven skiffs competed in the 15 cere.
