ANUARY SALE INTERNATIONALISM AS ANNEXATION

New Idea of Labor Movement Presented by National Labor Leader.

Tonight at S.O.E. Hall, the general executive of the Canadian Federation of Labor will hold the most momentous of any sessions within the past two years. The possibilities of the future will form the central theme of discussion, and steps are under consider-ation to determine the feasibility of branching out in every province in the Dominion as the embodiment of the spirit of Canadian, nationalism in labor. This was the sentiment aptly expressed last night by Tom Watt, in an interview with The World.
