W. H. MURRAY LAID TO REST

Body of St. John's Late Lumber King Taken to Springhill This Morning—Very Large Funeral.

A large number of citizens paid their last tribute of respect to the memory of the late W. H. Murray this morning.

More than a year ago despatches to eastern newspapers from Dawson noted some difficulties into which Isaac Burpee, formerly of St. John, and well known in Fredericton, was alleged to have fallen through the action of his business partner, having him arrested at St. Louis on the charge of embezzlement and fraud.

Some little time before the hour set for the service people began to assemble to view for the last time the familiar features of St. John's most prominent lumberman. The body, which had been embalmed, was enclosed in a heavy hand-carved casket of solid oak, with silver handles and extension base, and lined with white puffed satin.

After the service, which was simple but very impressive, consisting only of the reading of a portion of St. Paul's epistle to the Thimotheians, and a few appropriate collects, the remains were borne from the house by eight of the oldest employees of the Murray & Gregory mill, and the cortege formed containing relatives of the deceased, employees of Murray & Gregory's mill, pall bearers, Rev. G. A. Kuhnring, Rev. P. P. McKim, and N. Louis Brennan, Heane, mourners, lumbermen and the general public.

The chief mourners were E. S. R. Murray and J. Fraser Gregory. The remainder were Judge Gregory, A. J. Gregory, Geo. Murray, Hon. James Holly, A. W. MacRae, and James Pender.

The bell at St. Luke's church tolled out solemnly as the long procession passed down Main street. On reaching the station the body was removed from the hearse and placed in the rear car of a special train. The car which was reserved for the body and mourners was draped with large purple ribbons.

The train consisted of a baggage car, two first-class coaches and the funeral car, and was in charge of Conductor McGovern, and left for Fredericton about 10:30 o'clock.

Among those who occupied the special car were J. Fraser Gregory, Judge Gregory, E. S. R. Murray, Geo. Murray, Rev. R. P. McKim, A. W. MacRae, A. J. Gregory, James Pender and N. Louis Brennan, besides relatives of the deceased.

Among others going from the city were Robert Farmer, A. Edge, A. B. Holder, Charles Miller, John E. Moore, Neil McLean, A. P. Bernhart, F. C. Beattie and George Cushing.

At the funeral train passed through the city as a mark of respect to the memory of the deceased lumberman. Mr. G. A. Kuhnring, rector of St. John's (Stone) church, who conducted the service at the house, accompanied the remains to Springhill where he will perform the last sad rites.

Although it was requested that no flowers be sent, many handsome tributes arrived at the home of the deceased. Among them were a large bunch of white lilies and amilies, tied with a large purple bow, from Mr. and Mrs. J. Fraser Gregory; large bunches of white lilies, purple roses, asters, phlox, amilies and araspangus, with the word "brother" in purple letters from the brother and sister of Mr. Murray; cross of lilies, roses, asters and stocks, with the word "Uncle" in the same, in purple letters, from his nieces and nephews; large bouquet of crimson roses from G. S. Cushing; large red and white lilies, asters, phlox, amilies and araspangus, from Messrs. Holly and Sons; large bouquet of lilies, asters, phlox and araspangus, tied with white satin ribbon, from Mrs. James Holly. Many private bouquets were sent by friends.

WHERE IS MORGAN?

Young Man Arrested for "Lying and Lurking" Broke Away from Police and is Still at Liberty.

Last night between eleven and twelve o'clock Officer Finley looked up a young man for lying and lurking in a yard off Carmarthen street, and not giving a satisfactory account of himself to the police. The young fellow was placed in the British street lockup.

As is the custom, all prisoners are brought up to central in the morning, and that morning about 9:30 a. m. Officer Totten and the young fellow wended their way in solitude from the lockup en route through Queen square. Suddenly he wrenched himself from the officer's grasp and ran. The young man would not divulge his name, so the story goes, in the lock-up, but when being pursued he shouted "my name is Morgan." So it is that "Morgan" appears on the police books this morning, but there is no Morgan at the receiving end.

ISAAC BURPEE, VICTIM OF FORMER PARTNER'S SPITE

Vindication of St. John Man Who Was Arrested in St. Louis on Charge of Embezzlement and Taken Back to Dawson—He Was Acquitted and Now His Complete Innocence is Proven.

(Fredericton Herald.) More than a year ago despatches to eastern newspapers from Dawson noted some difficulties into which Isaac Burpee, formerly of St. John, and well known in Fredericton, was alleged to have fallen through the action of his business partner, having him arrested at St. Louis on the charge of embezzlement and fraud.

The firm of Burpee & Company carried on a business handling general merchandise and drug supplies, from September, 1902, till March, and in the latter part of the year Isaac Burpee and E. Shoff.

On the date of the dissolution of partnership Mr. Burpee was on the outside. The year after the dissolution of partnership Mr. Shoff, partner in Dawson, laid a charge of embezzlement of twelve thousand dollars against Burpee in connection with the business.

Extradition papers were applied for, but were refused. However, on another criminal charge, that of embezzling six hundred dollars, the extradition process was allowed, and on May tenth of that year Mr. Burpee was arrested in St. Louis and brought back to Dawson. In all he was in confinement until Sept. 6th, of 1904.

Burpee was tried before Mr. Justice Macaulay, who found him not guilty of the charges preferred against him, and ordered his release. At the trial it was admitted that Burpee could not be brought back and made to face the other charges.

Before Burpee was acquitted Shoff started a civil suit for the recovery of the twelve thousand dollars, which he claimed Burpee had in connection with their partnership. In October, however, the charge on which the extradition papers were issued was merely pressed in order that Burpee could not be brought back and made to face the other charges.

February last Burpee took a bond in the case of Shoff. There was considerable cross-examination and finally an agreement was reached that the whole matter of the partnership would be referred to F. W. Maddam, the expert accountant of the N. A. T. & C. Co. He was instructed to investigate the books and to go into the matter with the utmost thoroughness and find just how the partnership stood in regard to each other.

There was considerable cross-examination and finally an agreement was reached that the whole matter of the partnership would be referred to F. W. Maddam, the expert accountant of the N. A. T. & C. Co. He was instructed to investigate the books and to go into the matter with the utmost thoroughness and find just how the partnership stood in regard to each other.

There were on the books some good for $1000.00, and on the other hand some $1000.00. A considerable portion of this was written off to profit and loss. After large bills of lading, and other documents, a considerable sum of money was still due to Mr. Burpee from Shoff, and responsible for the same. The acknowledgment printed in another column.

Mr. Burpee and his friends are naturally jubilant at his complete vindication. There is still a feeling that Mr. Burpee has been wronged and that a whole year of his time will be joined at Norton this evening by Messrs. Reid and Young, who in the meantime will be known about the city by members of the board of trade.

NOVA SCOTIA SCHOOLS

Rev. Clarence Mackinnon Contradicted by David Soloan, Principal of the Provincial Normal Schools.

A Halifax despatch to the Toronto Globe says David Soloan, principal of the Provincial Normal School, has written a letter stating that the statements about the Nova Scotia schools made to the Toronto News by Rev. Clarence Mackinnon of Winnipeg, who, Mr. Soloan says, "has been imposed upon by a man who is a Catholic." He says that he has heard nothing of "demanding a separate normal school," nor has he heard of "many concessions in regard to the management of the normal school. Principal Soloan has endeavored to adorn the walls of the school with reproductions of works of art for the inspiration and instruction of teachers, and among the number representing modern and other schools is a photographic reproduction of Titian's Assumption of the Virgin. That is all there is in the story.

ATE JUNE BUGS AND DIED

AMHERSTBURG, Ont., Oct. 4.—(Special)—During the past week one hundred houses have died in this neighborhood. The farmers at first were unable to account for the cause of the epidemic, but now they are convinced that the June bugs, which mixed in the hay, caused all the trouble.
