

6,791

VOL. II, NO. 215,

ST. JOHN, N. B., TUESDAY, JUNE 19, 1906.

ONE CENT

THE EVENING TIMES

Times Want Ads ... Yield ... Good Returns.

SAYS GRAFT WAS CAUSE

"Dishonest Mortar" Responsible for Damage IN 'FRISCO EARTHQUAKE

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 18.—"Dishonest mortar, a corrupt conglomeration of sea sand and lime was responsible for nearly all of the earthquake damage in San Francisco," says Dr. Nakamura, professor of architecture of the Imperial University of Tokyo...

INTERESTING TALES OF DOMESTIC INFELICITY

CHICAGO, June 18.—This is the story of a wife who never hugged her husband in 20 years of married life. It is the story of Mrs. Nellie Ballard, prominent clubwoman, who has just won a decree of separate maintenance in Judge McQueen's court...

DOCKET IS SMALL ONE

The St. John Circuit Court Opened Today NO CRIMINAL BUSINESS

The June sitting of the circuit court was opened this morning in the court room at 11 o'clock, Mr. Justice McLeod presiding.

The list of grand jurors is as follows:—George H. Hunter, Alfred E. Herrt, James W. Morrison, J. M. F. Whitney, Thomas Kichham, Charles A. Clarke (excused), Timothy J. Lantieri, M. B. Harrison, Robert R. Patchell, Arthur D. Branscomb, John B. Magee, John Condon, Homer G. Brown, J. Fred Shaw, Simon A. Jones (absent), John Spaine, Albert Peters, Elias D. Elliott, Albert E. Treborsky, Frederick C. Melick, J. Allan Bayes (excused).

The docket shows that there is no criminal business to come up at this court, and in fact very little business of any nature.

FEAR FINANCIAL PANIC

ST. PETERSBURG, June 19.—In spite of the government's left handed denial that it intends to order a parliamentary recess, the Reich today expressed the fear that "the Reichstag will be dissolved and appealed to the country to make its choice."

A Peculiar Compliment

FREDERICTON, N. B., June 19.—(Special.)—The June term of the York circuit court opened here this morning, with Chief Justice McLeod presiding.

FUNERALS

The funeral of Mrs. Michael Driscoll took place this morning from her late residence, Marsh road, to the Cathedral, where requiem high mass was held.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

Mr. Hiram Hornbeam says that, late spring had had a remarkable effect on the mosquitoes. The cold, he says, appears to have had the effect of such an extent that instead of being able to pierce the skin of a summer boarder they merely tickle him and make him laugh.

CZAR'S ADVISERS FEAR FINANCIAL PANIC AND MUTINY OF THE COPS

Usual Chronicle of Murder and Robbery from the Russian Interior—Success of General Strike is by no Means Assured Yet—Brigands Hold Up Street Car in Tiflis, and Rob Passengers.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 19.—The massacre of Jews at Bialystok has shocked the country and added to the general excitement and the revolutions which the commission of the lower house of parliament sent to investigate the outbreak at Bialystok are expected to make it only add fuel to the flames.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 19.—The lawlessness in the Caucasus is growing. In spite of the patrols of soldiers and police, murder and robbery are unchecked in this city. At noon today fifteen brigands, armed to the teeth, boarded a car in the center of the city and held up the passengers, taking their purses and jewelry. No arrests were made.

IS WANTED FOR FOUR MURDERS

Notorious Indian Criminal Shoots Halfbreed and Makes His Escape.

VICTORIA, June 19.—(Special.)—Johnnie Jackum, a notorious Indian murderer, who was pardoned from the British Columbia penitentiary a couple of months ago, shot and killed Axel Smalle, a halfbreed, as the result of a quarrel over a game of cards.

TALENT FOR CAPE BRITON

Tommy Howe the well known ball player passed through the city this morning en route from Wakefield to Sydney, C. B.

WALL STREET

NEW YORK, June 19.—Trading in stocks at the opening of the market was active and a smart rebound from yesterday's depression.

MILITIA CHANGES

OTTAWA, June 19.—(Special.)—The following are gazetted: 3rd New Brunswick Regiment, Major J. B. M. Baxter is transferred to the corps reserve.

PERSONALS

P. R. Perry, who was recently promoted from the office of district passenger agent of the C. P. R. here, to the Boston office, arrived in the city today, to make arrangements for the removal of his effects to his new home.

STRIKE IN THE MILLS

Practically No Change In The Situation Today

WANT TO START WORK

Many of Hilyard's Employees Are Said to be Anxious to Return and Mill Will Have Steam Up In The Morning.

There was practically no change today in the situation between the mill owners and the striking employees. Members of the Millmen's Union are endeavoring to get their fellow workers to enroll, and hope that within a few days they will have a majority of the men as members of the organization.

THE HOSPITAL TROUBLE

The difficulty at the St. John, N. B., General Hospital, which resulted in the summary dismissal of two nurses and the resignation of several physicians, was the subject of much discussion by the hospital surgeons here today.

SYSONBY, GREATEST OF RACEHORSES, IS DEAD

NEW YORK, June 17.—Sysonby, considered by race horse men to be the greatest thoroughbred ever uncovered in this country, is dead. For months there have been all sorts of rumors concerning Sysonby's condition, and as to the true nature of his ailment, but each day there came encouraging statements from the stable that assured the admirers of the great race horse that he was doing all right and would probably be himself again.

JUVENILE THIEVES

FREDERICTON, N. B., June 19.—(Special.)—Two boys named Eyles and Kennedy were before the police court this morning for stealing cigarettes from G. Y. Dibble's drug store.

NEW STEAMER FOR BAY ROUTE

MIDDLETON, N. S., June 19.—A ten thousand dollar steamer is being built at Margareville, which will ply on the route between St. John and ports on the south shore of the Bay of Fundy next season.

PLAYGROUND FUND $1,065

Equipment of First Ground is Under Consideration

BY WOMEN'S COUNCIL

Playground Committee Now Hunting for Teachers to Take Charge of Work—None to be Found in St. John at Present.

The playground fund continues to grow, amounting now to $1,065.25. The playgrounds committee of the Women's Council met in the King's Daughters' Guild yesterday afternoon and spent nearly two hours discussing the question of teachers and deciding upon the equipment for the grounds of Centennial school.

PREVIOUSLY ACKNOWLEDGED

George Percival, Montreal, 25.00
A. Gordon Leavitt, 5.00
$1,065.25

WINNING

Brighton, overnight sweepstakes ... 8.83
Brighton Junior ... 10.00
Saratoga, Flunk stakes ... 5.00
Saratoga, special ... 13.00
Sheephead, third in Futurity ... 2.883
Gravesend, Junior champion ... 6.200

1906

Belmont Park (dead heat) Metropolitan handicap ... 8.800
Sheephead, Tidal ... 13.000
Sheephead, Commonwealth ... 12.000
Sheephead, Realization ... 17.200
Brighton, Inopome ... 6.000
Brighton, Derby ... 12.200
Saratoga, Great Republic ... 42.000
Sheephead, Century ... 15.000
Sheephead, Annual Champion ... 20.000
Total ... $184,833
Has not run this year.