

The Evening Times Star

VOL. X No. 280

ST. JOHN N. B., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1916

TEN PAGES—ONE CENT

Greek King Abdicates, Says Saloniki Report; Indications of Revolution in That Country

New Sensations Today In News From Out The Balkan States

Crown Prince New Ruler, With Venizelos the Man Behind the Throne; Bulgarian King May Deem it Wiser to Stay in Vienna

London, Sept. 1.—King Constantine of Greece has abdicated, according to the official British press report at Saloniki.

On its face, this despatch indicates that a revolution is under way in Greece.

BULGARIAN KING, ALSO? Rome, Sept. 1.—(New York Times cable)—The people here are much interested in a report that Czar Ferdinand of Bulgaria has abdicated.

Although affairs at home were very grave, he did not leave there until the Bulgarians publicly informed him that if he did not return he would be dethroned.

FIGHTING AMONG THEMSELVES London, Sept. 1.—Various rumors are in circulation here in regard to the situation in Greece.

Crown Prince George of Greece, whose accession to the throne is reported, has been described as a man of liberal mind in sympathy with the aspirations of the Greek people.

ARE ANXIOUS ABOUT THE RUTH ROBINSON Charlotte, P.E.I., Sept. 1.—There is considerable anxiety concerning the three-masted American schooner "Ruth Robinson," which left Liverpool on June 25 for Charlottetown with a cargo of salt for Carvell Bros.

LARGE INCREASE Customs receipts here for August were $260,415.66 compared with $241,297.27 for the corresponding month last year, thus showing an increase of $19,118.39.

Austria and Hungary May Be Fighting Each Other

London, Sept. 1.—(Toronto Mail and Empire cable)—Advices to the Central News from Petrograd say: "Roumania's action has entirely upset the plans of the German staff."

movement has been started against Czar Ferdinand and that Bulgaria's defeat will be the signal for a revolution.

The relations between Austria and Hungary are critical, as the latter is clamoring for the concentration of the entire Hungarian forces on their own frontiers.

SOME INCREASES IN FOOD PRICES EARLY HEARD OF

New York, Sept. 1.—The ultimate consumer got a bitter taste of railroad strike conditions today from a sharp advance in prices of food.

MANITOBA JAILS BECOMING EMPTY UNDER PROHIBITION

Winnipeg, Sept. 1.—(Toronto Globe)—Statistics compiled by J. N. Macleod, chief inspector for Manitoba, have proved a revelation regarding the effect of the Manitoba Prohibition Act on drunkenness and crime in the province.

Washington, Sept. 1.—Measures which will result in resumption of orders for a railway strike on Monday may be passed by the Senate and House today.

FORMER MONCTON MAN MURDERED IN BOSTON

Charles W. Cranney, one of Boston's best known head waiters, was shot to death while dining at the Hotel Essex, Boston, on last Monday afternoon.

UNITED STATES TO "RETRIBUTE" IN THE MATTER OF TRADE

Washington, Sept. 1.—An Associated Press despatch from Washington last night said: "Retaliatory legislation striking at the commerce of the Entente Allies in support of diplomatic protests against interference with American trade, has been decided upon as general policy of the government."

ALLES' CAUSE ONE THAT MUST BE SUPPORTED, SAYS CARDINAL

Montreal, Sept. 1.—Cardinal Beaudry has issued instructions to French Canadian priests in Quebec that they should cause is one that must be supported.

WEATHER REPORT

Issued by Authority of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, R. F. Stewart, Director of Meteorological Service.

Shower. Moderate to fresh to southwest winds, fair and warm today, local showers and thunderstorms on Saturday.

Bulgaria Goes to War With Roumania

London, Sept. 1.—Bulgaria has declared war on Roumania, according to an official announcement at Saloniki, as forwarded by Reuter's correspondent there.

MUCH LESS MILK THAN USUAL OVER THE I.C.R. TODAY

As a result of local milk dealers refusing to meet the demand of Kings county farmers to pay forty cents for an eight quart can of milk, a deadlock has resulted and instead of 1100 cans of milk arriving in the city this morning only 400 were received.

GERMANS MAY FALL BACK TO LINE ON MEUSE

New York, Sept. 1.—The London correspondent of the World cables—Inquiries in Brussels and other quarters in close touch with Holland have elicited the fact that the belief prevails in well-informed quarters there that Germany probably will shorten her line in the west before long.

HOLLAND BELIEVES RETIREMENT IS SOON TO BE MADE

By such a withdrawal, military critics here say, Germany could possibly release 750,000 men for the east, but the allies insist in the west would be they would be hardly improved.

GIVE UP NEARLY ALL OF NORTHERN FRANCE AND ABOUT HALF OF BELGIUM IN DESIRE TO SHORTEN FRONT

There is no doubt a big crisis in the war has been reached, although it is not believed here it can possibly be finished, so far as Germany is concerned, until another summer campaign.

BULGARS ARE DEFEATED BY THE SERBIAN TROOPS

London, Sept. 1.—(New York Times cable)—The Times special correspondent writes from the Serbian army at Saloniki, August 30, telegraphically: "The Bulgarian offensive in the Ostrovo region appears to be temporarily broken."

OFFENSIVE BROKEN—THEIR RETREAT FROM GREECE REPORTED ALREADY BEGUN—SUCCESS OF ROUMANIANS IS MARKED

London, Sept. 1.—(New York Times cable)—The Times special correspondent writes from the Serbian army at Saloniki, August 30, telegraphically: "The Bulgarian offensive in the Ostrovo region appears to be temporarily broken."

FORCE BULGARS OUT OF GREECE

London, Sept. 1.—(New York Times cable)—An Athens despatch to the London Daily Mail says: "The Bulgarian retreat from Greece appears to have begun."

DOWN CARPATHIAN SLOPES

London, Sept. 1.—Roumanian forces on Sunday night descended the slopes of the Carpathians and occupied the district around Kronstadt, says a despatch to the Times from Bucharest.